UNKNOWN ENERGY

Sensing Energies: New Energy Vortex in the City

Trance Channelling begins..

█: Who is this room is consciously energy sensitive? Please ask them.

Group Member: Who is consciously energy sensitive? Who can pick up energies?

Two of them Ferz, and Geet

█: We do not admire this shyness. Now, you will use your intuition and you will say which others are also consciously energy sensitive and are embarrassed to speak out. Use your intuition.

Group Member: and (Pin).

█: Consciously?

Group Member: Not consciously.

█: She is consciously energy sensitive.

Group Member: I picked that up.

█: We were testing you. What about yourself?

Group Member: I am.

█: What about these two?

Group Member: Yes, these two are already in the group, complete.

█: ALL IN THIS ROOM are energy sensitive. The ones you have indicated are consciously energy sensitive and the others are still developing this aspect of consciousness. They are all energy sensitive. . It now needs to be brought out, therefore this particular meeting. For those who are conscious of their energy sensitivity, it will be heightened. And for those who are not conscious, it will be activated.

What is happening in your city today? Energetically? Let us have some views? We do not ask about the rain and the thunder. We ask about the energies.

Group Member: I had a different feeling about the rains today, maybe because of the rains or change in weather, but I don't know, feeling it is very, can't express it in words.

☀️: Express it. Take a moment. We ask only for what you are feeling. Take a moment. Center yourself.

Group Member: I am feeling very happy, that I am blessed, I am conscious about the energies that are showering on me and looking forward to carry forth.

☀️: These are the answers she thinks we want to know, and yes, she is feeling that. Yes, she is feeling that because that is her, that is her, for every single moment of every single day, that is her. We ask you to go beyond yourself and simply express, what you are feeling of the energies of this city today. How is it making your insides react?

Group Member: As of today, I was feeling a little out of sync, not focused today.

☀️: More

Group Member: I am quite unsure about myself, you know it all.

☀️: Who else would like to volunteer what they are feeling?

Group Member: I am feeling a kind of upheaval, kind of feeling. I was listening to FM Radio today and they were talking about electricity cuts and power cuts and water cuts and I feel the city is going to go through that upheaval and chaos, and the freak rains are really again.

☀️: How are they affecting your energies?

Group Member: No. I am trying to get stability and I am not yet getting the stability factor.

☀️: A state of flux for you.

Group Member: A state of flux for me, yes.

Group Member: I was feeling very optimistic. I was sitting and praying and I was feeling very good and I was watching the palm trees and I was feeling very optimistic and I don't know what ☀️: Wonderful. Thank you. It is very important for you to understand that one kind of energy can affect each person differently, sometimes in complete opposition. It is important to note that. We do not ask you yet.

Group Member: I feel very positive and I am breaking free.

■: Any comments?

Group Member: I felt very negative today because I felt the city of Bombay spinning on the globe of money. Feeling was there since morning and everybody is there to outdo each other (inaudible). Money, human values.

■: So how did it make you feel?

Group Member: I wanted to fight for justice, for which I cannot

■: We do not want external.

Group Member: I was feeling negative, that is why I came forward today with great determination that I have to get a message from here. (Inaudible)

■: And how are you feeling?

Group Member: After this (inaudible) it out. Very happy otherwise I carry it in my mind and don't express it.

■: So the energies shook you up and you want from imbalance to balance.

Group Member: (inaudible)

■: What are you feeling today? (To Geetika)

Group Member: A bit unsettled at times but I think, overall, what I picked up, its almost like a rebirth and a reawakening because there are various ways, energy shifts can happen with larger natural disasters , but today is a very subtle energy shift, that's taking place for all of us in so many different ways. But for me, I actually, I reaffirm, it is actually a re-birth.

■: What do you two (Divya & Neha) have to say? Examine the energies of the city around you, aurically if you wish.

Group Member: I think, after a long time after a span of some weeks, I felt very peaceful today, though I wasn't very focused. I was very distracted, I felt like pampering myself. Today was extremely peaceful and I did not have thoughts running here and there. I was acting in the here and now. I wasn't connected to the city because (inaudible) very peaceful and quiet.

Sohrab: So you found your energies detaching from those around you.

Group Member: Ya, a lot.

Sohrab: Thank you.

Group Member: I felt happier, very peaceful, very calm, no worries, no hassles and you asked me to see what I saw for the city aurically. I saw lot of white, which is purity, (inaudible). Have been feeling that purity within myself very calm, very centers, something very positive, out of all this, something reaffirming, very, very positive.

☐: If I were to ask you both (Divya and Neha) to describe in an energy visual, what would you say. Use your own words and your own vision.

Group Member: 3 colors, baby blue, white and silver.

☐: What would these mean to you?

Group Member: White means purity, blue is calm and cool and comfortable, and silver means joy.

Group Member: I see a very bright , very bright shining white and just white because white means a lot of things because its purity, its cleansing, its freedom, its peaceful, it's at least I am feeling for the city , very calm, very peaceful, very pure.

☐: Would anyone else like to add?

Group Member: I was seeing a big tree in violet light.

☐: What does this mean to you?

Group Member: Green means freshness, purple light is healing, so I just saw colors of health — green and violet.

☐: What does the symbol of the tree mean to you?

Group Member: It means its connected to nature. Its like the rain, the train.

☐: Would you (Geetika) describe the tree means to her.

Group Member: Grounding and growth.

☐: (To GI) Would you like to say something?

Group Member: Is a symbol of life and growth.

☐: How beautiful, each one has contributed their aspect. Of the rebirth , the growth, the expansion, the development of the energies in this city today at this given instant of Now.

Let us explain exactly what is happening. Do not get caught in the trappings of what you see around you— The rain, the thunder, the dark sky, the water. Look beyond that as you just have. A new energy vortex is being established in your city today. When a new vortex is established externally and not from within the Earth, it literally hovers over the area. It wishes to ground itself. In finding the most appropriate energies, or point of energies, for it to anchor its epicenter.

This has not yet happened. The Vortex has not yet chosen where it wishes to anchor. But this anchor will be somewhere within the confines of your city. It should do this within the next 3 to 5 days. The energies will then attach themselves to The Mother Earth, from that anchoring point, and start to spread, in a whirlwind fashion, moving around the city wherever it is needed. And these new energies will bring with them new thoughts, new beliefs, new attitudes, new shifts, for all those within the city.

For those of you, who are blessed with intuition, with foresight and understanding of energies, you can use this vortex for your benefit. The common man, who is not consciously aware, will use it on a higher level. He will use it predominantly to release old patterns, old vibrations, and old, dead, stale energies. You have the option. You can use it for that and for growth, for expansion, for clarity, for focus, for spiritual development. The choice is yours. Use it for everything. Use it for nothing.

Let us understand a little more about external energy vortices, as compared to an internal one. You are all aware of the various vortices that exist around your planet Earth. You have heard about the Power Points, such as your Stonehenge, your pyramids, your temples, as well as those in your forests which hold reserves of energies, such as your mountain tops, your sacred Shambala. Yes, all these are various vortices around your planet Earth, and all these have a combination of energies. But predominantly energies rise up from Mother Earth, activating the site which then permit, a spread of energies around affecting all those who come in contact with all. Is that correct?

What is happening here, today right now is an external vortex, is being implanted on this part of the Earth by external sources. Your friends above (the Ashtar, and many others) are here today, right now, for the placement of the external energy vortex above your city. Over the next 6 to 8 months, similar vortices will be placed around your globe, one by one. Each area will be activated, eternally as well. We will permit you all the questions you wish. You must ask them. It is for your growth and learning that this session is taking place.

When an external vortex is placed upon an area on the planet Earth, it has within predominantly, what you call 'alien energies'. These energies vibrate at a frequency slightly differently to your own earth energies. What happens is that when they are implanted and grounded, they begin to vibrate the area on which they are grounded. This in turn will release energies from under, which will join at this vortex point and start to vibrate at their old rate.

So these two energies are vibrating at different rates, but the vibration is attracting the other to itself. Slowly, slowly the vibrations begin to intermingle till the energies fully exchange and there is no differentiation between the Earth energies that are being released upward and the alien energies that are being implanted downwards.

In doing this external energies, are very gently raising the Earth's vibration, point by point by point, to bring it into alignment with high level cosmic energy, which automatically facilitates the move from the 3 dimension upward. Now you may ask questions.

Group Member: Establishing the 4th and the 5th dimension onto the planet. Now are we there or has it already happened?

■: Are we in competition?

Group Member: No we are not, but I would like to know.

■: Yes, your city is amongst the first.

Group Member: Ok, is it cause...

■: But that is not because of the level of energies of the people in your city. That is because it is the most appropriate time and release point for Earth energies to merge with these particular cosmic Energies. Just as a volcano erupts, when a certain Earth shift takes place beneath the surface, so is it with energies. They have a pattern of eruption, a movement from the Earth's center upward to the surface and then out into the universe.

These energies are sensitive to your earth, erupted energies and the instant they feel an eruption of the correct and appropriate vibration is being released, they will then ground at that point. That is why this city is one of the first and that us the only reason.

Group Member: Will it cause destruction?

■: We do not want to give you a set answer on this. In certain cases, when these two energies intermingle and a vibration is caused, if there is still debris in the existing people around and indeed in the city itself, it may choose a collective "choice" to release that.

If the city in conjunction with the people who inhabit it 'choose' for that flushing out to occur, then there will be what you see as destruction. This city has chosen to release a lot during your last few months of flooding. It may not choose to go to a level which is noticeable. None of this has yet been decided. Do not forget the vortex is around but it has not anchored yet. We are preparing you for the anchoring which will take place within 3 to 5 days.

Group Member: I would like to know whether this vortex which is coming in, will have some effect on the people who are living under the earth, inside the earth.

■ It must , my dear friend, it must. Energies affect all.. The point of highest resolution of vibration will naturally affect those around them more fiercely than it would those further away. But do not forget those on the surface and those below the surface are equidistant from these energies, so just as it affects you, it must affect them. But remember nothing is done randomly. It must be a conscious and collective choice if there is to be a cleansing.

Group Member: Are they also waiting to come into the 5th dimension?

■: Oh Yes. They move along with you. Their path of evolution is different, but their movement is the same.

Group Member: Are these vortices going to affect our blueprints?

■: They will enhance your blueprints.

Group Member: And these are according to the astrological configurations right now?

■: Yes.

Group Member: Are they connected?

■: Oh Yes.

Group Member: with the planets?

■: Your friend, here (Geet) will help you understand this better; you may address all these questions to her. She will intuit the answers for you. Kindly do so. You may even speak to her. You may even mail her. She will get you the answers through her intuition.

Group Member: So in a way, the last year's flooding was a preparation for the vortex, of today.

■: You might say that, understand that it was not deliberately preparation for this vortex to arrive, but each step of vibration must meet to the next. It must. The moment there is clarity and light, there must be more and more and more clarity and light around. That is why we have said to each and every one of you, many a times, if you are a beacon of light, within your homes, it must affect all others, in the home. it must. There is no choice.

Group Member: This is the 2nd vortices class I am sifting in, why am I sifting again in a vortex class right now? Personally what do I need to do with this?

■: You are sitting in a vortex class because you have chosen to be a mini vortex on this planet, just as many in this room have chosen around which others will receive energy. It is simply for your growth and understanding of your own self and your own power. Each time anyone becomes a spiritual teacher of any form, they became a mini vortex of energies. Energetically, like a spinning top.

The moment the person begins to teach, go into a trance, heal or do any form of spiritual work. The energies of that person begins to spin faster and faster, drawing from the universe the most appropriate energies, to spread to that particular group, that is with them, and simultaneously to activate the strands of energy within themselves that are required to be passed onto the people around. Do you now see how this child (Sohrab) or you or you are the vortex at times like this. What is this child(Sohrab) doing right now? But being a mini vortex. It is precisely the same.

He's accessing the vortex energies, his Master's energies, the Master energy of each and every single person in this room, and that have been implanted in the past, in this particular room, activating simultaneously those small parts of himself, that are required to teach each person sitting here, so that they best hear him.

That is why after high level of energy work, many people feel depleted. The top begins to slow down and you have been used to spinning at a wonderful vibration, and you permit your own energies to slow. You are then getting out of sync with what you have created and you begin to feel fatigued. The moment you raise your vibrations again, the fatigue vanishes, and the aim for each and every Light-worker is to keep their tops spinning at the highest level from within. When you reach that point, you will need no sleep, no food. You will just be energy.

Group Member: This energy you were just telling us about, can we affirm or positively ask can we prepare ourselves?

👉: You must. And let us now move onto that aspect. Do not take this child's word for what has just been said. Go home, sit by yourselves with this energy, in the city and see, what has been said today feels appropriate. If it does not feel appropriate to you, discard the information, it is not for you. If it does feel appropriate, simply connect with it.

You may do this right now, if you wish. Sit in a comfortable, relaxed open manner, and consciously allow not only your physical body, to not only relax, but to open visually every pore, every cell, every bone, every muscle, every part of the fluids within the body opening like flowers to this energy. The cells, the molecules, the atoms are bathing in this new vibrant energy As you bathe, as you open, you will feel no resistance, and you will find yourself in beautiful accord with this energy.

Yes, it still feels strange, still feels alien, but you are not resisting it now. And therefore you are vibrating beautifully along with it. Draw this energy into your physical body, visualize your organs, your bones, your muscles, your skin, your internal tissues and fluids, all bathing in this beautiful new energy.

Take a few moments and quietly sit in harmony with this energy. You may speak to it mentally, if you wish and ask it to align with your energies and to work through you and for you. . . .Yes, it has been done.

This energy is now in perfect sync with all of you, but remember if you go out of balance at a future time, the energy will also go out of balance with your energies and you will then have to realign yourself with it. It will take only a few moments, that is all and then you may command this energy to work through you and with you for whatever you wish. There is responsibility because this energy will intuitively create whatever you put your focus to; therefore if you put focus to angry thoughts or destruction it will intensify that as well.

Understand that this energy has great power but has no mind It will simply magnify whatever you align with it.

Group Member: I want to know, the vortex which was in the Himalayas,. Is there a difference in the energies?

■: Completely different, completely different. In this particular case, dear friend, understand that these vortices are now being attached, strand by strand, around your planet earth. A different formation of a grid is being formed by these energies, to serve a completely different purpose, to the vortex, that you worked with the last time. Allow the purpose to reveal itself slowly, but yes, it is completely different set of energies and a completely different reason. Let us leave it there for the moment.

Let us talk to you for a few moments of energies. When your pharmaceutical companies formulate pills, drugs, and essences, it is a pity that they do not have an esoteric department to guide them. If they did, their cures would be practically instantaneous. That is why your essences of homeopathy, ayurveda and other such natural remedies have far-reaching effects and are now being rediscovered.

Science is now discovering how it has pushed aside energies for too long. Why is it that you have heard of natural miracle cures, through the ages, and from all cultures? How can all of these stories be myths?

The Red Indian Culture, for example, truly understood energies and used many forms of barks, flowers and natural remedies. They harnessed not only the natural substance, but its purest energy as well.

Simply applying the drug is no use. But applying the drug with Energy Intent doubles the effect. Do that when you now take any kind of physical medication. If any of you are on physical pills, energize the pills before you swallow them. If you are applying any lotions or creams, energize the creams and lotions before you apply them. See the difference for yourself.

Group Member: Will the universal energy enhance them? Intent?

■: Of course! You need not even harness universal energies, just the power of your own energies is sufficient, but the universe is at your disposal, dear one. Why not harness all the energies and put into the cream that you apply on your sore hand? The energy of Healing Angels, the Guardians, the Spirits, your Personal Master Energies, any energies that you want, including those of your dear departed, loved ones, why not put all of that into the little application, that you place upon your hand.

THE UNIVERSE KNOWS ONLY ABUNDANCE. IT IS YOU WHO CHOOSE TO BE LIMITED.

Group Member: Can you tell me why Planet Earth is being singled out for all the help it is.

🌅: Dear friend, it is not that Planet Earth is being singled out at this moment, in your linear timeline. What is important is why YOU have chosen to incarnate on Planet Earth at this time, in this instant of Now.

And that is because ALL OF YOU HERE deem yourself big enough, responsible enough, worthy enough, valiant enough, courageous enough, joyous enough, to be a part of this universal movement.

Your bigness is truly understood by you, if you have incarnated in this moment of time. And yet you hold yourself in these 3 dimensional bodies filled with insecurities, smallness, and feelings of 'why do I belong? I do not belong, I am worthless, I am nothing, I am small'.

If you are on Earth at this moment in time, you are not small; else you would not be here: remember that in your darkest hours, remember that no one has placed you here, YOU have placed yourself here. This is your greatest affirmation to self "I am Worthy of being on Planet Earth in these momentous Times. That will serve to remind you of your own bigness."

Geet: Is there anything we can do for the grounding of these energies? When the energies are grounded, how do we work with them?

🌅: In the case of this particular vortex (and please understand that each vortex has its own energy rules), in the case of this particular one that you have been introduced to today, you can do nothing do to help it.

It must do its own work and it will merge with the energies below and find the appropriate point. Nothing you can do will help it. What you can do is work with it, which you have all contracted to do right now, right here, by opening your bodies to these energies, by doing that, you have automatically and instantaneously given these energies permission to work through you and from you. They are now fused with you.

Be the pipes that carry the energy water: you can turn off the water by being off balance, but the moment you acknowledge this and wish to reactivate the energies, simply come back into center, and the energies flow.

And how will you use them in EVERY aspect of your life? Just acknowledge the Power, and you will start finding what they mean to you, that is why we began with the initial questioning session for each. Some, before they knew what these energies were, felt out of sync, is that not correct? That was simply their own physical energies, which they are used to, vibrating at a different rate with the energies, that are now surrounding them, and there is automatic résistance. Not fear, simple resistance to the unknown. Yet some others found it joyous. Both had an experience of a certain release, which happened automatically. These energies forced out certain issues from them, and they came into harmonious balance after that.

Had we questioned you two days from now, each of you would have given a different answer, and if we questioned you two hours from now, each of you would have given different answers. It is simply the point you are at physically as compared to these energies.

Work with them. Beloved friends, do not focus on this particular vortex. There are now going to be hundreds of vortices introduced around Planet Earth: many, many in the same city. Now be aware, be aware to look beyond, what you see around, and to start trusting your own inner selves.

Everyone in this room felt different today and yet everyone has experienced the Bombay Monsoons. It was not bad. Everyone picked up a different vibe in the air. It is then up to you to say “why I am feeling different today and to go within and had you explored, you would have come to the same conclusion.

We wish to work with these two friends (Div and Neba) before we close this session.

All the others in this room may also work if they wish. It is simply that the Higher souls of these two friends have asked

It is now time to go. Allow the vibrational change to take place. Do not fight it, flow with it. Now go within yourselves and just relax your bodies. Be aware of the energies around your own selves. Slowly discard your physical body and just be energy, allowing these energies with the new energy vortex that has been hovering around you today. Now you will proceed to work, and you may open and close your eyes as you wish.

First examine the energies, the vibrations, the aura, whatever you wish to term it, around this particular child (Sohrab). Analyze it for a moment as you have always done. Proceed. Speak it out.

Group Member: I see a lot of magenta. I see its rot very vibrant but the color is eye-catching, not very big either, a lot of streaks of violet.

■ Now as you watch, the entity in him will retract all these energies and you will see nothing. Do you see any emanation now? Does this mean that there is no energy within him. Now what do you see?

Group Member: not very clear(Inaudible)

■: Slowly you both now will be given visuals of different energy forms. They will not always be in color or vibrations. It is time to understand how to read them. At this point just describe what you see or feel, including nothing. If you get nothing, wait a newer energy has to be passed (inaudible)

Group Member: I see something

Group Member: I feel I have gone

Group Member: Cloud formation on the crown.

Group Member: A lot of brightness, yellow, very

■: Now a last energy will be passed through. Take your time about describing it. Understand dear friends, that you will not always be called to describe it. It is simply for your growth and learning that you are being made to vocalize it right now. Speak.

Group Member: (inaudible)

■: (laughing) what do you feel? You will not be able to see or know its form.

Group Member: Pitch black, animal form

■: That is your mind playing tricks. What does pitch black mean to you?

Group Member: I don't know, I don't know, it seems to be sucking me.

■: Release it, release it, you have done well Kindly place your palms upon her chest and hit her a few times. She requires energy from you. Ground yourself and return to full body consciousness. You have done well, dear friends. You were given a series of alien energies that you have never before encountered. The forms are not even slightly familiar to the human consciousness. The last form (which is not even a form) was a glimpse of Dark Matter. The fabric of the universe. It was not even a black hole, as many thought. It was dark energy, which is not negative. it is the actual fabric of creation.

Group Member: I felt very heavy, I have a headache and feel nausea.

■: You did. It wasn't simply that your mind was playing tricks. You did sense it. You took it into your physical body as well. You sensed it in your thighs, chest and down the arms, you actually took in strands and then rejected them. These strands are not to be integrated in your physical body.

She (Div) flung herself into these energies a little too violently, hence the disorientation. Each experienced it differently.

What happens when you come across an energy you do not understand?. You experience it in the way you know best, that is fine. The two of you from now on will be working more and more with sensing, feeling and seeing energies you are not familiar with. Welcome them. They will only expand your knowledge and now rid you of all preconceived notions about energies and colors that you see around people.

You have now become slightly judgmental, where you say "this person is expanded, this person is not." The energies will play tricks with you. You will now have to use your sight along with your gut, to test whether the person is truly expanded or not.

Group Member: Many a times, I do feel what I see and see and feel are two different things.

🌅: Wonderful, wonderful, and it is now time to marry the two, to understand why you see one thing and feel another and understand neither are wrong. It is simply that you have not understood the connection. That is why you were placed here.

Group Member: Also was there a reason why I saw such a strange animal form.

🌅: Yes, there was the energy that you saw at that particular moment in time, was for you into the shape of an extraterrestrial being, which you are familiar with. It is the closest in energy form that you have experienced though it was not the same energy that this child carried. Therefore your own cell memory interpreted that energy in that particular animal form.

It is interesting to note for all, that we have cell memory of many lifetimes and therefore when you see an image, a being, a person, an animal or even a landscape that you know without doubt you have never seen, on Planet Earth, you are simply activating a cell memory, a visual of the past.

Do not reject it. In fact, embrace it because it has appeared to you. It has happened for a reason. Explore it further and the reason will unfold. Do not push it away, saying once again 'I am imagining things' THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS IMAGINATION. There is only memory. There is only memory. Imagination does not exist.

Sometimes the memories will pull visual images from different realities together that is the closest you will come to 'imagination.' But still it is a memory. If I ask you right now to close your eyes and imagine in this physical room the figure of this child whom you know, and two others who have never been within this room. You could put them together and visualize them, that would be imagination and yet it is reality because you know that person. You know this person and you know this room and you have placed them all together.

Be in Light, Be in joy and Be in love.

Blessings from an energy friend.
