Duties of the Guardian of the Meeting

Trance Channelling begins..

(To GI) We wish to begin by felicitating you!

Today we welcome you to the fold of the true Masters who walk the earth.

A guardian's work begins before she awakens, early on the day of the meeting. She connects not only with the medium, but with all the presences in the meeting room, and with all the Masters and Powers that have chosen to participate in that particular meeting, on that particular day.

She then goes into a conference with EVERY SINGLE member of the group that has been chosen, and she has individual energy conversations with them, where it is decided whether or not it would be beneficial for them to attend that particular meeting.

If it is not, the person then withdraws his or her presence on that day.. either something 'comes up' or they simply forget'; sometimes a slot is opened up for a 'special' energy presence that is required. All this is done, not through the medium himself, but through the guardian.

Then, from the moment she is awake (though she is unaware of this), she connects with each person who is to attend the meeting, bringing them into balance and taking it upon herself to actually WORK AS A FILTER for those energy aspects that they are carrying on that particular day, which would not be beneficial to them for that particular meeting. And she joyously absorbs these aspects like a sponge, and then releases them appropriately, either into the Universe, or into Mother Earth.

This is the work she does every single time there is a session. Then she begins the work upon the actual medium. She connects with him in full joy, and helps him come into balance. In fact, at times, she helps him go out of balance, as that may be required for his growth, or for the energies or entities that he may be required to carry for the meeting.

And then, not only does she 'prepare' the room, but she also works tirelessly during the meeting, fine-tuning the energies and balancing each and every one of you, as you sit here and listen to the medium. At times, she puts her own energies at jeopardy, to do this selflessly for you.

It is time this work is recognized and acknowledged. We wish to particularly bless and thank you, the previous guardians of this child, as well as the guardians of all other mediums in your extended group. Allow this message to be conveyed to all.

Do you have any questions you wish to ask the guardian? You may do so now.

Group Member: Are you in awareness when you are in fine-tuning?

GI: Consciously? No.

Group Member: How do you know which person to call on which Thursday? Is it imperative that we attend if we are called?

GI: I use intuition, but I also have to be fair to everyone, even though on some occasions certain people feel that I have not been fair. Sometimes people have to be called over two consecutive sessions. Those who are meant to be here will automatically be brought here.

Group Member: Today I got lucky and was asked to attend. Thank you.

GI: Today I KNEW that there were two people who HAD to come, though I had to push them to do so! They are here.

Sohrab: Can you explain why you needed to push them, and what you felt?

GI: Their energies and their presence were required for this group, even though they themselves didn't know that. Maybe they also required to make other connections with members of the group itself.

Sohrab: Precisely! Sometimes a single member is brought to the meeting to cause complete IMBALANCE in all the others. This is simply a test to see if the others can hold their energies together, and whether the Medium and the Guardian are strong enough to work through this, and continue with a 'pure' meeting. Needless to say, this test is often failed!

Group Member: The opportunity for me to come here today suddenly opened up today. Thank you. I am in gratitude.

[The remainder of the meeting consisted of extensive energy work and personal messages for the attendees]
