

2nd June, 2006
THE VATICAN COLLECTIVE
THE ST GERMAIN
Channelled by Sohrab

The VATICAN

Trance Channelling begins..

There has been a special call over the last few weeks, not just from this group but from energies around your globe. Hence we appear before you. We are the collective energies of the Vatican. See us not as an earthly body, a church, a set of bigots; see us as expanded energies. (Dian's dog walked in) Permit it. We welcome all to the fold.

You wonder, what are these energies of the Vatican? We are collective body. Our energies comprise those who have added to our direct links, for example: all Popes, Cardinals, Bishops, priests, nuns, and other such holy members who have added their strands to ours over the years. They also comprise the energies of the actual buildings of worship, throughout the world, that have any affiliation to the Vatican. They also comprise the energy of the treasures that exist within the walls of the Vatican and they also comprise the energies of all, not just on this Earth but in this universe, who have any kind of affiliation to an organized structure of the energies that belong to, what you term, the Jesus Christ.

Why has he (Dian's dog) come? He has an affiliation. Yes. Yes, indeed. Do you think animals do not have an affiliation? Oh yes. There are strands within him. He has also come to deliberately upset the energies, in this room. The moment the words 'the Vatican' were spoken, vibrations were released from many: some of fear, some of curiosity, some of downright anger, some of complete and total disbelief. He has come to add to those.

An institution such as the Vatican is a collective body of energies. It increases in power, strength and size, over the millennia. Each time an episode takes place, (for example, in your own Earth past, the Crusades) energies get a shake-up. They are then changed, once again, by the collective feeling throughout the world. At times, the world is completely pro Vatican: at times, the world is completely anti-Vatican. Once again, we repeat, do not think of the Vatican in your limited earthly sense; understand the vastness of these energies.

As you are all aware, with the appearance recently of the book and film you've all been talking about, a new shake-up has taken place. We do not wish to comment on the veracity of the information; that is for you to feel out within you and most of you have found your answer already. These energies have deliberately been released, at this point in time (and we repeat, at this point in time). As you are aware, the book was released several years ago and yet, it has come to world attention only recently. And the film has only added to these shake-ups. It is time for all of you to question yourselves, your affiliations, your beliefs, your own energy structure and your true connection with the Vatican; the Vatican, not in your limited perception but the vastness of the Christ Office. The Vatican energies include those of the extra-terrestrials you are familiar with; they include those of the Indian Gods, such as the Hanuman; they include those of the Shiva and the Nataraj. These are all the Vatican energies. Why limit yourself?

A new vortex has appeared within the space you call the Vatican. You (Angela) have aided to the release of the vortex. Stand up. Receive the blessings and the thanks of the Christ office. This new vortex will now release energies that will affect every part of the globe. Some of them will play upon your emotional strings. There has been much upheaval in everyone present. There has been much upheaval in the world, in general, emotionally, particularly during the last 3 to 6 Earth months. Allow it to arise. Feel it. Experience it to the end. Do not push it down. Why do you think these five (Sohrab, Dian, Scher, Dhir, Sy were sitting in front) have been placed here? They are the biggest culprits in this room, of pushing back emotions, energies and feelings; these 5 place in front of you. But do not think you have not done it, as well. They have been placed here today to receive the thrust of this energy to break these blocks within them. Each one functions in a completely different manner and yet, each one does exactly the same thing. Emotional releases will and must take place. Do not fight them. Welcome them. It means you have the ability to feel. Had you not lost this, a little while ago? Had you not got to the stage of feeling completely blank, dull, bored? Now it is all bubbling up. Let the pot boil over.

Emotionally you will be affected. Physically you will be affected. In some, there will be physical expansion; in some, it will not manifest in physical expansion, it will manifest in different behavioral patterns. In yet others, bodily features will change, yes, physically change. Do not be afraid if people tell you that you are looking different. It is simply part of the adjustment process: allow it to happen. These energies, this vortex, will also bring up one other, particularly strong aspect: complete upheaval of patterns. You will not be able to function anymore in set patterns. One by one, your patterns will be brought up in front of you; you will be made to see them and if you don't change yourself, they will be forcibly changed for you by painful methods. We warn you; painful, not necessarily physically but emotionally. Take this opportunity to review all patterns in your life. All patterns, habits, notions, beliefs, outmoded practices that do not belong to you but perhaps belong to your conditioning or your parents. Change them but if you observe a pattern that you are comfortable with and genuinely view from a balanced perspective and understand that it fits for the present, allow it to fit, knowing that it may change in the near future.

Questions before we move on?

Dian: How do we use this energy to break the blocks?

Let us visually describe to you the energies that have emanated from and to the Vatican. The physical location of the place you call the Vatican has now come into alignment with a series of planets and other extraterrestrial aspects, in perfect harmony. This has caused a cosmic ray to be passed through the center of the Vatican (not the physical center, the energy center of it. This physical cosmic ray has been released into the Vatican and has been activated energies approximately one Earth mile below the structures. In turn, from this area, energies from Mother Earth are being released upward in various sacred geometrical patterns and intensities, so that they flow back through the physical structure of the Vatican, then move into all those who are connected, energetically, with the Vatican and then emanate to all others on planet earth. It is from those last few links that the energies return back into the cosmos.

A new musical pattern of energies has been created. Having understood this, use them. Draw them consciously into your physical bodies and allow them to expand within you. As they do this, memories, patterns, emotions, feelings must arise. The instant they arise, acknowledge them; if you wish, you may jot them down and then you may begin work upon them. On certain days, you will find only one issue will arise. Deal with it. On other days, you will find several will arise. Choose the most appropriate to start with. Work but do not overburden yourselves.

Diana: What will be the sign that one has released those blocks?

The sign will be individual to each and every one here. Some will feel great emotional relief; others will feel a physical discomfort, within their body, releasing; yet others will simply feel an internal sigh; yet others will feel a powerful vibration, emanating outward, from that particular issue. Let us not tie you down with one answer: find your own relief; find your own answers.

We wish to speak to you, very briefly, of your fairy tales. The key to many of these answers lie in the books that you term are for children. Let us take a random Hansel and Gretel'. The significance of the wicked step mother is simply that screaming internal parent whom you cannot get rid off. The uncaring depressed father, who cannot stand up to the wicked stepmother, is simply an imbalance of the masculine within you. The forest that the children are led into: different aspects of the veil of forgetfulness that you have pulled, thickly, down upon you so you cannot see the wood for the trees. The trail of bread crumbs that Hansel leaves: connections to the Divine, the little spark that is always within you, no matter how dark and disconnected you feel. It is the trail of Divine energies, of prana, of angel dust that connects you to truth. The cottage in the middle of the woods really represents you, depending on how you view self. This can be a refuge, a haven or it can be a frightening, dark, sinister place, in the middle of this veil of forgetfulness. The woman within the cottage can be viewed as a witch, nasty, evil monster that you are or it can be viewed as this kindly lady, who despite her appearance takes you in with complete love and enfolds the inner child into her being. And of course, the Hansel and the Gretel are the inner children—so simple and yet, so much to learn, to ponder upon from this little tale.

We urge you, think of any fairy story that has resonated with you, in your past, not now; think of what resonated with you in your childhood. Analyze it from your wide perspective and you will get a wonderful clue as to how you function today. You will see yourself in perfect clarity and you will begin to understand your games, your patterns, how you fool yourself, how you hide, all these aspects will be revealed. A perfect starting point before you access the Vatican energies.

We leave you with joy, light and love.

ST GERMAIN: Enjoy the furor that the book and the film have created. Enjoy it. It is a perfect shake-up for complacent energies. Come to your own inner conclusion. Did the blood line exist or did it not? Come to your own conclusion and then examine it. Let us take each option and play Devil's Advocate and how we enjoy that word in a spiritual session. Let us take the viewpoint that the Christ bloodline continued. If you feel that resonates within you, examine it. Why? Is it wishful thinking on your part? Is it your hope and desire? Or is it what truly, truly seems to be right within you? Not within the next person, within you: not even within your spouse, your best friend, your lover. Within you, examine it, enjoy it, revel in it then view yourself from the outside. Having taken this viewpoint, how do I feel? Oh! I feel like an advanced, liberated, wonderfully modern human being. Fine! Now how do I feel about being an advanced, liberated, modern human being? What does that make me feel, etc., etc.?

Take the opposing point: the bloodline could not have carried on— Blasphemy; fine. Why do I feel so strongly about this? What does blasphemy mean to in? Does It mean sacrificing my own principles? Does it mean Christ was not super-human, he was only human? If I feel Christ was human, does that make him wrong in his teachings? Take it from there, No judgment of self. Enjoy the game. You will surprise yourself when you arrive at the final conclusion and we guarantee you, the final conclusion will have no bearing on this subject whatsoever. You will land up at some strange point in your childhood, either in this lifetime or another and will all tie together and you will say, "How can this possibly affect what I feel about the Da Vinci Code?" But it does, for you. Play the game if you have the guts.

Pil: Why do we have to play the game? It is Christ the soul the energy that we love, we worship, we revere, so whether he had a bloodline or a family is immaterial to us, at least to me. So why should I be bothered what he was?

ST GERMAIN: Wonderful. And, beloved, if it is truly immaterial to you do not play the game.

Pil: Absolutely.

ST GERMAIN: It is an unnecessary game for you but find another game to play. And you will find many where you have strong opinions, You are human therefore, you must have strong opinions, in certain areas. Find that game for yourself. Throw this one out. But first truly examine.

Pil: Absolutely truly. I had done that before you said it.

ST GERMAIN: Even that you have no curiosity whatsoever.

Pil: Absolutely not. I accept.

ST GERMAIN: Were we to send you out of the room and secretly tell everyone here whether Christ died on the cross or not? Would you be happy? Would you try to find the information?

I don't care whether he died on the cross. I believe in Christ as the soul and the energy so what does it matter to me? That is the truth, dear one; that is the truth. It matters not to you. This game is not for you but find one that is. We only give you a tool to bring up old patterns, thoughts, attitudes, conditioning. Do not use this; find your own.

St. GERMAIN: (To Sh) You called. We are here.