THE ST GERMAIN
THE ASHTAR
Channelled by Sohrab Ardeshir

Predictions
The Energy Core
Judgment
Energetic aspects of the city of Bombay

[A discussion prior to channeling]

A question was asked about the accuracy of predictive astrology/tarot/readings.

Sohrab: Predictions, in this era of elevated energies, are now are very fluid. In the past, we had strong blueprints, in which were inviolable cornerstones. These were certain aspects of our human life, 'fixed' by us, which would occur, come what may. For example, if you had put into your blueprint that you were going to marry a certain man, no matter how you tried to resist the event, it would have occurred.

Now, with our raised energy levels, blueprints and even cornerstones are more fluid, and we have the POWER to choose to change these. That is why astrologers and card readers can now only truthfully offer you a view of STONG POSSIBILITIES in your life, which you can change, if you want.

Everybody has this power now. If you empower aspects of a reading that is given to you, YOU MANIFEST IT. The probability then becomes a certainty with your power of manifestation and not with the power of the prediction.

Del: (inaudible)Astrologically and scientifically, we have moved from the age of Pisces into the age of Aquarius. The age of Aquarius actually is where each individual takes responsibility for himself, NOT where the individual leaves it up to others to make this decision. So now, whether or not you acknowledge the age, whether or not you believe in this, you will be the Master of your own destiny by default, because that's the age we now live in.

Sohrab requested that members of the Thursday group volunteer each week to come up and speak to the group for the first ten minutes, on any subject they chose...a personal aspect of their lives, something they wished to share, an insight that they had had, etc.

Ngs:

From time to time, Sai Baba comes and writes through me, and then Shri Aurobindo used to write a lot. One day I received this message, and I didn't know whether they were joking, or whether it was true!

St. Germain said, 'I don't want you to write with Sai Baba!' (who was calling himself Aka from Aka Kotmaraj – so I used to think it was a joke, you know, and I would never pay any attention to it).

This reminded me of the other day, when 'Dr Y', who was taking us through a Theta healing course, made the passing remark that the Masters at Level 5 are also very jealous about their followers, and they want to go down to the people who follow them and they don't want the people to move away and believe me, he said Krishna wouldn't like his followers to go off to some other Master. (General laughter).

This was on my mind – so when I sat down to write yesterday, I thought to myself : is this really true, are you people so egoistic that feel this way? (all laugh)

St. Germain wrote: 'Yes – we love you and we don't want you to be going to somebody else to write', but I said – 'I need all of you – I love all of you and sometimes I need you for the fun that you bring into my life and the physicality that you talk about, and I need Shri Aurobindo for his higher wisdom, and I need Aka for his very practical suggestions that he gives me in my normal problems, where He's so focused and He's so clear, whereas St. Germain goes round and round and round, He comes straight onto the point and talks ,so I said, 'I need all of you!'

He said, 'yes, we understand', then I said 'its ok then, I write with everyone', He said, 'we still think you should write with us, because I'm you main Master'. So I said, 'Ok, you're my main Master, but can I diversify, and write occasionally with others, when I need to? He said, 'yes, it's ok when you do that'.

I thought that I'd share this with all of you because I thought it was a joke earlier, then it was reinforced at the meeting where we had the Theta healing, and now this was for my writing. So, this is really, very funny, that there is this kind of thing – they are possessive about us, when we are in link with them and they don't want it to be broken completely and for us to waver and go off somewhere else.

So, this is a thought I would like to leave with you – though I really haven't worked it out exactly, but I did have a very, very good feeling, because you know – now this is something very difficult for me to mention, because it came in my writing, then I said that many times I am saying to Ahura Mazda – then Ahura Mazda comes and writes with me.

Then Sohrab had said to me, that don't you know that St. Germaine was Lord Zarathustra – so He again said the same thing to me yesterday in my writing, that I was Zarathustra. So I said that from Zarathustra how did you become St. Germaine?, because to me Zarathustra was the Highest, Wisest, you know, and now you have been doing the por---bles (inaudible) as St. Germaine, a very Human kind of a Spirit – so he said that you know, 'we were also the Spirit of Surur' and I said, 'now who is Surur?' He says that it's the sour Spirit of Sai Baba' Sour – sour means – somebody very serious, they call them 'Sour' and this comes in my writing as Sour Spirit, and he was a Happy Spirit, and Zarathustra was also a Sour Spirit, and I said 'He doesn't come across as Sour' – you know, (laugh) what He meant was 'serious'. Its another aspect, it the same, I think I am writing with Sai Baba, but I think I'm writing with St. Germaine,. So I said I will call on different aspects of St. Germaine and you will have no objection – He said 'Ok go'

I thought this was something new, I'd share.

Trance Channelling begins

WELCOME FROM THE ASPECT OF THE SOHRAB THAT IS ST. GERMAIN –

Let us help you understand this a little bit.

So much confusion (laugh) – Let us explain this, by giving you an Earth Analogy. NO DEAR FRIEND – THERE IS NO JEALOUSLY AMONG THE MASTER ENERGIES. How can we be jealous? We are all one, and we are all a part of you. Can your left hand be jealous of your right? That is an Earthly emotion and it does not extend to us.

In the past, we did request a certain amount of Energetic Loyalty. That was for your safety and growth. Let us explain.

When you are a two-year old child, you have in the average family unit: a mother, a father and various relatives. The Energy connection between the two-year old and the mother is extremely special and the connection between the two-year old and father also is extremely special. These are the prime focii of the child's existence: for guidance, understanding, nurture, love, caring, and wisdom.

Now imagine what would happen to the child, if he was randomly 'passed around' for a month at a time, to spend time with various relatives? This would completely disorient and stunt the child's growth, engendering in him lifelong complexes. He would feel torn up, abandoned, insecure, confused, traumatized.

Till the child is energetically strong enough, he or she needs the complete focus of the parental care unit and in an extended form, he needs the care and nurture of brothers and sisters, staff in the house, animals in the house, and be beyond that, the influence of relatives and friends from the outside.

When he reaches a certain level of inner maturity, he is then able to connect freely with others around him, with no personal confusion. As he matures, he may express fully, his true and deep love for a beloved aunt, a wonderful cousin, a nurturing friend of the family. As his base is so strong, the family unit has now elevated him to this point where he is able to branch out like a tree and extend his love, fully and freely, elsewhere.

In the past, you were the two-year old child. Not in form, but in Energy. For a while we did urge you to familiarize yourself completely with the aspects of individual Master energies within yourself, before working with others.

You always incarnated into a religion, into a community, for a reason – but at times the pull may not be to your religious Prophet, it may very strongly be to another one, and that is fine, in which case, heed that pull and forge the connection till such time that you are strong enough to be able to branch out. That is what we mean by ‘Energy Loyalty.’ It is not about a jealousy of another!

When Sohrab first began, he was not permitted this ‘variety show’. At first he worked very strongly with the influence of his training guide, and that guide prepared him to receive the next level guide. The next level Guide prepared Him to be able to channel and access all the Energies required for the growth of the group, and of self.

He is now joyously able to welcome all Energies, as he has started learning that they are all part of self! But he is partial to the Germaine aspects of self. And this loyalty will exist for all of you because of the composition of your energy strands. If your strands are combined and conditioned in a certain manner, as they all are, you will automatically feel the pull of the Master whose strands reflect this, on a larger level. And as you grow, at times the Masters change, because your strands have undergone an upgrade and as such, it is necessary for you to now attach yourself to a new Energy Master.

There is no ‘jealousy’ when there is a switch. After all, all is within you. This is simply a shift of focus. The hold comes from you, where you feel guilt about releasing one and accepting another. Ask him, how much he struggled to hold on to the Jade Fire and refused to acknowledge The Germaine. Ask him. It took him over a year to acknowledge the joy of The Germaine and it was essential for him, as his Strands had moved into The Germaine mode. The Jade Fire mode for him was not appropriate at that time and yet he hung on to mismatch energy and that is when so much confusion took place in his life till he aligned with the appropriate strength and the flow was free.

Group Member: (inaudible – something about pre-conditions)

As we have said, the likelihood is, if you are born into the Zoroastrian faith, your pull for the large portion of your physical existence will be to Zarathustra or an aspect thereof. That is why you have chosen that community. But in your case, beloved, to which aspect of Self is your pull?

Group Member: To Sai !

And you have heeded it, you have not struggled.

Group Member: What does that mean?

That means you are listening to self.

Group Member: May I ask a question? – You spoke of the ‘the Energy Core’. Is that the predominance of the Governing Master?

Yes, Yes – if you wish, we will explain this in further detail. Most of you are aware that all humans are a combination of the Energy Strand – thousands, and thousands, and thousands of Energy Strands and as you grow and evolve Energetically, these strands form new symphonies within you. At a period in time, these strands would be perhaps Indian Classical Music – to use a physical analogy. At other times they may move into western Classical, then they may move into Jazz, then they move into Rock, completely different forms, but still music.

Now when you are in the Indian Classical mode – we are using this analogy to helping you understand. – the pull would be to an Indian Classical Master; but when you are in a Jazz Mode and you hold on to the Indian Classical Master – it does not aid you, there is a mismatch. Of course there is a flow and a tie between all types of music. But the thrust changes from time to time. So, there is always a Core-Master for you. And here are always peripheral Energies that are required for a certain growth period, and beyond that there are Energies and Entities with you for a particular day or month and beyond that there are Energies and Entities who are with you for a particular situation in a particular day. Do you see the vastness of what each one of you brings with you at any moment?

If, Energetically, you were to examine her (indicating a group member) right here, right now, in this moment in time, you would observe that there are approximately 27 Entities attached to her right now – right here, right now, in this moment and perhaps at the end of this session there will be 37 attached to her. It is the ‘Orchestra of Energies’ if only you could hear and see your music. And right here, her 27 are combining with hers, and hers and hers, and there is this symphony of Energetic Sound . That is what takes you to a new level of vibration.

Group Member:– You see, I didn't ask Sai to come and write, nor did I ask Shri Aurobindo to come and write, but they came of their own accord, and I just do automatic writing. It was not my choice, so please explain, why this has happened?

■ It always has been your choice, and it will continue to be your choice. There is an element in your physical existence, where you are experiencing aspects of guilt, betrayal, and disloyalty; and those are simply manifesting right now, its all to do with you not to do with them. Look at these aspects, where you are feeling guilty, disloyal, and either the betrayer or the betrayal. Look at that – it will all settle down. You must work with all Energies, you must. You must and your focus, your root, your anger, is The Germaine, and you know it.

And for those of you who are wondering who you are currently attached to, open yourself up and feel it out. Go beyond the physical image you are so comfortable with. Do not visualize the Sai as the Man with the crossed legs, do not visualize Christ as the Man bleeding upon the Cross. Reach into self, feel the pull, go beyond religious boundaries. NO MASTER HAS ANY AFFILIATION WITH RELIGION. Religion is man-made and man has created divisions and boundaries. Masters do not acknowledge religion, they acknowledge Energy.

Group Member: May I say something please? – True Masters, they say, are not those with numerous disciples (inaudible)

■ Just to explain – though you have heard time and again, that all the Energies are one, and yes they are. There is still an Energetic Signature difference between various beings and that always will be. It is just that they are so fluid that they are able to combine, merge and separate; which you physically cannot do. It would be the same, if when you walked into the room you could merge physical with Sohrab and walk as one, and separate yourself when you left. There would still be the Nargis, there would still be the Sohrab and there would be the union when you were together, that is how Master Energies work with all. But there has to be a signature difference, just as each one of you has a signature difference. Even if you have a twin, you are not the same, there is signature difference. The Germaine, as you are aware, very vibrant, very powerful, very opulent. The Christ – as powerful, but loving and nurturing. The Krishna – very vibrant, in fact the Energy that shakes and destroys debris. The Shiva – all powerful, all knowing, all vibrating – In the Shiva presence, you cannot be anything but self. You cannot have facades.

So understand this – if, in a period in your life, you have to go through a phase where you choose to constantly play with facades, you would move away from the Shiva or Krishna Energy aspects of self, as these would not permit facades. You may then choose to experience The Germaine energies, which will permit facades in full joy, and in fact will decorate those facades to such a degree that they will become magnificent facades!

And then when you come to an Energetic level where you wish to shatter them, you will instantly affiliate yourself to The Shiv. This is the Cosmic Dance.

Group Member: Is there a level beyond a Masterhood – I mean connecting to the Master?

■ Oh Yes, Oh Yes!

Group Member: And what is that Master? I'm experiencing something like that..

■ You have all been touching it now. It began for many of you in the Cosmic Sessions, where you reached beyond the Cosmic Temple of the group and you came to the edge of all that is, to a space of pure creation. You are aware conceptually of the Universe and you are aware that nothing is everything – and yet at the very edge of the Universe (to use a physical visualization), IS THE SPACE OF PURE CREATION. And this is where Self resides.

Group Member: Is that a void?

■ It is a space where there is nothing, yet there is constant creation. Creation of such a High Level – it is self creating self. It is creating a new existence. This is the space beyond the Cosmos –. IT IS THE SPACE OF THE NEWNESS OF ALL.

■ Today we shall discuss 'Judgment'.

Why? – Because there is so much judgment floating in this room (laughs) – it is floating around you - thick clouds of judgment. - And most of it is 'judgment of self'.

Let us understand judgment today. Most humans are so quick to judge another's manners morals, attitudes, clothing, and beliefs. What is this judgment? It is an aspect of self, which is coming to the fore right now. We will explain.

Let us say that a person is extremely critical of another's sexual habits, patterns, multiple partners, and extra marital affairs. Two people can view the same person, who are going through that experience, and to one, it will not matter and to another, it causes a huge reaction within of trauma, which brings up judgment. – How can that person behave this way?, It is immoral, it is loose, it is vulgar, they will harm themselves, they will catch a disease, they will cause trauma in other people's lives, he/she is not a 'good person'.

If judgment does not arise, it is an aspect of self that you have already worked out either in this life time, or in a past one. But, to the person who finds this judgment arising very strongly, it is eminent and going to be worked out right here, right now, within a short period of time. And that is why it is causing so many traumas in you. You have ignored in the past life times, or perhaps you have chosen to experience it in this life time, - that is not important – the important fact is, if this is coming up strongly, know that you are going to go through it personally, in a very short time.

Let us make this clearer, by taking personal aspects of judgment. Who would like to share an aspect where they feel judgmental of others?

[A Group member volunteers]

■ Brave one, Thank You!

Volunteer: I keep thinking that he doesn't do the work well – useless person and just won't do the work properly, - that way – then I keep judging ---

■ When you say 'will not do the work' can you be clearer, for our group?

Volunteer: Suppose there's some work to be done in the building – like there's a particular gardener, every time I see him – I say – 'he is not going to do the work, please chuck him out' and then it goes on in my mind – 'see he's such a useless worker, why do we have to have him? – that type.

■ So you judge – and Thank you for being courageous and speaking up – do you think there is no one here who shares this? Each one has their own aspects of judgment. So you judge the shirker. Let us look at you and help you understand this.

You have had experiences in past lives, where you have been an extremely idle person. More than once, you have experienced luxury beyond belief and you have gone against your own inner promptings to do something. May we discuss this publicly?

Volunteer: Yes please

■ In a past life you were an extremely potent healer. You were aware of the power within you, and yet due to your European luxurious circumstances, you chose to ignore this impetus within, and you lived a life of extreme leisure. That is not wrong or right. Many people choose a life of extreme leisure as rest periods in their evolution. No judgment here. – But in your case, you have not chosen that, you have chosen the affluent circumstances as a buffer from which you could do your work without needing to fall back on physical labour, to earn your daily living and you ignored the promptings of 'self'. That caused in you an irritation with self, which you then took into a future life time, where once again you had the power to heal. This has been a recurrent pattern in your existence: you are aware of this –

Volunteer: Yes I am.

■ This time to heal as a herbalist – in the first case, it was just Energy Healing – you had the opportunity and the wisdom to heal as a Herbalist and this time you distracted yourself by creating around you a family, of which you refused to ‘let go’. You constantly involved yourself, to the point of obsessiveness, with your various children, husband and other relatives and kept telling self – ‘I do not have the time to do what I need to do’ and once again you deferred the Energy of healing.

In THIS lifetime, you have now chosen to overcome that aspect, and it irritates you so strongly because of your past experiences. Now you are working with focus and dedication, at your pace, but that aspect of judgment of self, is now directed outward. You will have an experience shortly, where YOU are called the shirker, - either by self or by others around you. Now just be aware of this and know, it has nothing to do with reality, it is simply a pattern come in to show you the mirror. Know that you have already gone through that. And next time you look at another who is shirking work, see yourself – that aspect will vanish. Just acknowledge the past.

Na: I need to ask a general question, is – when you have a judgment on another person, is it a mirror coming to you? Is it every time a mirror?

■ It is a combination of factors. It is a mirror – but why has the mirror come – that’s what you need to look at, it need not be the mirror saying that ‘you are doing exactly the same’ – but it may be a mirror (as in her case) to prompt her to continue on a path she already is on, and not to deviate. In her case, the aspect of the shirker is very potent from different levels. Past existences which she does not wish to slip into again, and the possibility that it could happen this time round, which she knows is a propensity within her. This mirror here serves to remind her not to slip back into old patterns, and to be tolerant and helpful towards others who are walking the same path she herself has walked.

Volunteer: – We have a lot of self judgment, I mean – I have come to the understanding that I don’t judge others so much as I judge myself. Particularly in appearance.

■ Appearance – we are so quick to judge another’s clothing, taste in jewellery, taste in hairstyle, physical appearance, physical form, the way they live the food they eat, the decor within their house, all extensions of the physical judgment.. You need to examine very clearly for self. ‘Do I do this?’ and every single one in this room with say ‘yes’, if they are honest. Every single one, to different degrees, but it is there. Then, take a good hard look at self,- ‘why is this repeated pattern happening?’ If you find yourself constantly judging another’s clothing, find out why clothing is so potent for you? Check it out, it could be an aspect of a past life which could appear if it does, it is necessary for you to understand it, and let us assume you do not get in touch with the past life. Why is clothing so potent? Why does it disturb you when another is wearing clothing that does not fit your sense of aesthetics? Go back to childhood; examine the attitude of your parents or your caretakers towards clothing.

Examine the attitude of the immediate family, towards clothing. See the attitude of the family you are living in now towards clothing and appearance. Examine the attitude of school children around you when you were a school or college going student. --- Clues will start to come up – take it a further step.

What does clothing signify? External appearance, the shield that protects you from the world. Are you covering up aspects of self that you don't want to examine? Also know, if this is coming up strongly, you will be tested for it. You will be at the receiving end. Suddenly someone will make horrendous comments about your sense of dress.

There is judgment and there is discernment, observation and discernment. If you do not have a particular issue with something, you would be able to observe it and describe it dispassionately. If I were to ask you to describe a chair in your house, you would say it has 4 legs, a comfortable seat and a back. That is observation. There is no judgment. But the moment I say, do you like this chair? – Your judgment comes up. Do you see the difference? Do you have questions on this?

Group Member: You say, sometimes judgment could be a mirror, couldn't it also come from conditioning? You said it's always a mirror – but at times it could just be conditioning?

■ Conditioning is a very potent base from which judgment arises – once you are at an adult Energetic level, conditioning must be examined. For example, if your family conditioning is such – that all Muslims are bad people. It is likely to be your judgment, but as you grow older and you interact with Muslim friends in school and college, and you start finding that they are humans as well, you have the ability to change this conditioning. Judgment does often come from conditioning, but not always. Either way, it needs to be examined.

Group Member: What do you do with people who are in a self pity mode all the time? I mean it irritates me no end, and if you say it's a mirror, I don't know how it can be a mirror?

■ Ah! Ah! Would you wish us to speak frankly?

Group Member: Ya, OK, because its not something that I can see myself and if you're saying its in myself, I want to know where it is?

■ It is a reflection of the opposite that is in yourself. The self pity does not exist in you strongly, it is an aspect that you have already (one side of cassette over) worked and we say this with no judgment. There is much intolerance in this room - among many you. She has the courage to speak up about it and we are using her as an example.

One of your aspects is intolerance in impatience. The desire to move at an extremely rapid rate, and the desire that all others around you were at that same Energy Level and it is extremely difficult for you to tolerate those who function at different Energetic plains. How perfect that you should choose, spiritually, to be a tarot interpreter, where you are constantly faced with people at lower vibration, and your whole function, your whole Energetic purpose is to help them raise it, in the most tolerant, loving and caring manner. See how you have dovetailed your own issue with your own strength? You are to be commended.

Na: My judgment stems from comparison. It comes up spontaneously, I don't think about it but it's like a – very comparative mind.

What a beautiful aspect she has touched upon. It is the core centre of your judgments and you have honed in on it. Look at your own life. Everything in your life has been extremes - comparisons, - your whole function is to seek the balance. To seek the balance, and to do that, you have chosen to swing from end to end.

You have gone from riches to poverty to riches. You have gone from emotional plentitude to emotional starvation to emotional plentitude. You have gone from believing you are nothing to believing you are everything. You have gone from believing that you were stupid to believing in your own wisdom.

Has not everything been in comparison? There has been very little evenness in your life. The Highs are high – the Lows are low. The relationships are magnificent; the relationships crash to rock bottom. And in doing this, in doing this, you are finding your own equilibrium.

Na: Yes – very true

And your comparisons have reduced tremendously.

Na: – Its there – its yet there.

: Your judgments in the past were extreme, yes – extreme. Not on the big issues but on all the small ones.

Na:– Ya

: Now, they are evening out. This is your growth. This is your growth.

Group Member: Well, right now we are living in a world, where there is a lot of terrorism going on. – I mean I know, I very, very impatient, and I really can't handle that kind of terrorism and the death and the horror that they are spreading. Is that judgment, because I judge them and I deem them to be lesser beings?

■ This has been spoken of many times but we will re-iterate it today.

The terrorist, the murderer, the Hitler: all creations of human consciousness to serve a purpose. There is no accident in any event. When a terrorist blows up a plane and a 160 passengers die, the 160 passengers have contracted to experience that form of death – and that is why – those 160 are in the plane and you are not – and the terrorist has contracted to give them this experience. It is a perfect plan.

Very hard to accept, and this does not mean there is no learning for all of them, there is extreme learning for all to them. Are you aware, since we are speaking of this, that when the train bombings took place in Bombay, there were a certain segment of people – few – not many – who were upon that train, whose ENTIRE EARTHLY INCARNATION WAS TO BRING THEM TO THE MOMENT OF DESTRUCTION BY THIS METHOD, TO EXPERIENCE IT, AND WORK OUT PENDING KARMA.

They had contracted to experience death in this particular process with that level of pain and trauma for those particular seconds, before their physical body disintegrated, was for personal growth. It was joyous.

Now, you may then say – should we condone all this and allow a murderer to go away scot-free? No. – If a murder takes place, and you are aware of it, or you find out about it, it is your civic right as a human being and an Indian, to report him to the police. And Earthly Laws and Justice have to take their course but it is not up to you to take revenge. You are not judging the murderer; you are performing your duty as is required by you. Do not excuse him and pretend it did not happen, because it is in the scheme of things. No. He also has a process to go through and perhaps you are the one who has to lead him to his experiences of earthly justice!

Similarly, when an accident takes place, it is extremely easy to walk away, saying that it must be his Karmic Experience and I must not interfere. You must – you must go and help, if the person is meant to be helped or healed, he will – and if he has to die even with 10 people around him and the ambulance – he will die. But you must do what you need to do in your flow and so, when an accident takes place, two people will run away, and two people will help, and that is perfect as well. Those two who ran away needed to experience how it feels to flee, they have to then face self, and go through growth. But the two who helped, have served the victim in the manner best for themselves. And yet the accident had to happen. That is why we say, - do what we do, prevent what you can, work towards whatever serves you, but do not judge the outcome.

Group Member:– If I am not a terrorist – I am looking at a mirror so have I done something like this, and do I have to work this out?

■: (laugh) That is your process – It is a lovely example – as most of us feel the same way about terrorism. And yes, it is a magnificent tool to help us look at self - where have we terrorized self? There is not one in this room, who has not terrorized self. Where have we been the terrorist in the lives of others around ourselves? We may not have physically maimed them, but our harsh words, our manipulations; our judgments have caused terror in many lives around us. Sometimes ‘not speaking’ is a form of terrorization.

Group Member: I also feel - (inaudible) judge everything as per my set of things that I think otherwise to be. Even though the awareness is there, I want to understand it in a better way.

■ Having said all that has been said today, let us not see judgment as a bad thing. It is a beautiful yardstick for self. For self-awareness, for self growth, and for tolerance of self. Don't judge self for judging self. It is a beautiful tool, to bring you to awareness. Now, for example, when you leave this room and you feel judgment creeping up, judgment of anything, take a moment, and ask self, why? Why? And let the answers arise. And then bless that aspect of judgment that has come up within you, it has provoked you to look at self..

Group Member: I want to ask a question – that talking of judgment considering that we are all born in India and the fact that our judicial system is so – well, it doesn't really work very effectively, what would that represent as a learning for us – in a larger scale, or a larger understanding?

■ : A wonderful question and we will speak of the judicial system.

Why you incarnate into a country? There are certain country ethos aspects that you have chosen to undergo, experience and / or change. The judicial system (as an observation and not a judgment) in the country of India is at this moment in time, relatively delayed, convoluted, outmoded and, to a certain degree, corrupt.

The predominance at this moment, is not corruption, it is convolution: outmoded systems being held on to and the inability of the country to move with the times, the refusal to create new boundaries, rules and laws, which would be applicable to this current year, not the last century, etc..

A beautiful example, - for those who are connected with the judicial system, the lawyers, judges, the plaintiffs, the defendants, and the accused: all of them are intimately connected with it, each serves a purpose best known to him. Some are there to change it. Some are there to experience its horrors. Some are there to experience its justice, yet others are there to cause it to go into a downward spiral and make it worse. Each one serves a purpose, the focus and the function is to shake it up in every way so that a New Order may arise. And as of now, this country has not chosen the New Order – it is many years in the offing. The New Order that India has selected is an overall upgrade of Energies and this must affect all aspects of your existence, not specifically the judicial system. India has chosen an upgrade of Generic Indian Energies. We will explain this since you have asked.

Your predominant Government offices, Government Centers, are now getting denser and denser; - you have been spoken to about this before. Drive past the Mantralaya at Sachivaliya and scan the Energy of the area and that building – it is dead energy – it is not good, it is not bad, it is dead energy. It is dead, dense, thick clogged energy. And that is the representation of the Government of this City.

The Energies of Government Houses and the parliament in Delhi are extremely different; they are not dead, but fully rotten. Completely corrupt – and it must – it is from this rot that will emerge, eventually, the new order. At the same time, at the same time, the area around Bombay City in pockets, is raising itself to a New High. Bandra, Prabhadevi, Parel: new Energy beams are being released from these areas, which are extremely powerful. So now you have once again, the Dead and the Powerful.

Navy Nagar, at this moment in time, is sinking Energetically, areas of Marine Drive and Malabar Hills are relatively stable, but sinking. Rising, Rising, - and the areas of Lokhandwala are extremely disturbed and complex, vibrant, powerful, new: not dead, but disturbed and complex – and it is from that complexity that will come the New Order. It is the Energy of the Lokhandwala area that will be the impetus, the catalyst, to bring about the New Energies of Bombay when they appear in 2012.

So you see, once again, how this symphony plays out. Energies of the Judicial System, Energies of the Police, and Energies of every aspect have to tie into the Energy release of this City, and that is why, the predominance of the Bombay City is an extreme upward graph. That is why so many people, despite the visual appearance of the city, find it so wonderful to be here now. Now, in this given moment of time. It is vibrant.

Group Member: (inaudible at first) will the take over be smoother, the way things are going, or will it be a kind of like a Phoenix, or –

 In the case of Bombay City, it will be the Phoenix, it will burn to rise – figuratively. In the case of other cities around India, it will be a much slower and relatively smoother process, except for pockets such as Gujarat. Gujarat also needs to go through the upheavals - Bombay will. Delhi will not go through the upheavals, but there will be crashes in pockets within Delhi. Pockets not physically, but pockets concerning the Government, the police, the corporate sector. That is how Delhi will grow.

Group Member:: Will there be a Tsunami to Bombay?,

Another Group Member: At Worli – (all laugh)

■ Do you want a candid answer?

Group Member: Of course we do.

■ At this point, the collective of Bombay is choosing destruction by water. This is likely to manifest within the next 5 years. However, as said earlier, it is not set in stone. And with collective changes, this course can also change. As of now, there is a call for destruction by water – and through that will be the emergence of a new and vibrant city.

This does not mean that the entire city will be razed to the ground, but much cleansing is needed through water. Remember, cleansing through water can be brought about by sewage problems, backups, pollution of water bodies, and diseases transmitted through the medium.

When a country chooses to cleanse, different areas chose different methods. Water, Fire, Air, Earth. Delhi will cleanse with Fire.

Group Member: Could we by our choice, try and heal ,and try and make the whole outcome a little more smoother, since we are living here?, since I heal, would it be presumptuous for me to assume a – --- to make the full outcome smoother?

■ Not at all, but kindly remember, this is the year of self empowerment and the best way you can heal outside self, is by healing self. Make the intent to heal that aspect within you that is dead, heal that aspect within you that is corrupt; and in doing so, extend it outward.

Rather than visualizing, for example, Sachivalaya as an external body, begin by healing that part of you that is dead and dense. Then extend outward. And it is in your empowerment, and yours and yours and yours, and extended Energy workers around the world, that consciousness will rise and then outcomes can change. As of now the Energy level is still where the collective consciousness knows that cleansing by water for Bombay is necessary. But if you all work, it could change. Nothing is fixed.

Group Member: Would you say that the new President will raise the Energy or bring it down?

■ There is in him an element of great vitality, we speak Energetically, great vitality and great power. What is very interesting, is his experience is to exercise his power and not get trapped in it and so the choice will be his, whether he goes up with the power and crashes, and becomes a megalomaniac; or whether he uses it in the most beautiful and effective manner and that is not yet decided, not only by him, but by the collective consciousness of the country. If they choose cleansing through a megalomaniac, he may choose to serve it by becoming that. You see how everything is interconnected.

Group Member: It is going to be a 'HE'?

It is going to be masculine energy that does not mean a 'he'! (All laugh uproariously) and as you well know, there are many women with predominantly masculine energy. But yes, India as a country has chosen that aspect of Masculine Energy for growth. You will see in the next Five years, more and more political figures around the country will be women with masculine energies. More, and more and more. And this is perfect, because it is a symbol for all of the merging of the two. The divine union of the masculine and the feminine and for the common man, it is easiest for them to learn this, from a visual of a strong woman.

All said Thank You

GREETINGS FROM THAT ASPECT OF THE SOHRAB THAT IS THE ASHTAR

Over the next 1 week, you will be able to observe, if you use your physical energies and your eyes, several craft floating over your city. Connect with these crafts. They are magnificent space beings; they are here to help vibrate and change Energies in this city. They will be here for a period specifically of seven days, starting today. Go to your windows and balconies at night. Look into the night sky and see us and even if you are not vibrationally able to see us, feel us. Adding your power to ours, will be the most beneficial for the city. .

Group Member: Bombay is covered in clouds in this monsoon season.

Must you only use your physical eyes? No, we will be actually in visual range, as well, as well. But most of you will say – Ah! A shooting star? Ah – a satellite, Ah a plane. Play the games if you wish and look at us if you wish. But even if you choose to play games with yourself, do so with our full permission!

Connect with us; just give us a few thoughts from time to time. You will also feel our energy vibrations, if you choose, when you are sleeping. Open up to us and go to sleep. You will have a vibrant night.

Group Member: This makes perfect sense...when I woke up this morning, there was an sms on my phone from a friend, who had received the message “We are landing today”.

Na: May I ask a question? – We usually wish upon a shooting star, to fulfill all our wishes.

■ The energy released by a shooting star is of a very high cosmic vibration. When you ‘wish upon a shooting star’, you are simply aligning self with cosmic vibrations of a very high caliber, which permits you to instantly manifest your thoughts and desires. That is ‘wishing upon a Shooting Star’

Na: Thank you.

■ : You will see us tonight. You will communicate with us tonight. You have been called here today, to fulfill this. You will.
