Mahashivaratri The Realm of Infinite Possibilities: Point Zero

[Sohrab spoke on the Unified Cosmic Board, referring to the meeting of March 2, 2008, in Poona. ]

Trance Channeling begins

Greetings from the Kryon Collective.

The Realm of Infinite Possibilities. What is this? The Realm of Infinite Possibilities. This is not a space, an area or a location. It is an actual point. A point of such power and such creation and such non-creation, in layman's term this would be called ZERO POINT.

If you are to touch zero point, you will only be able to do so for a nanosecond and yet that is all you need. It is the point where you experience pure bliss. What is Bliss?

Not an emotion. Bliss is not joy or happiness, it is... (Looking to the group members for an answer)

Group Members: Just Being...

The Kryon: It is even beyond just Being. It is acknowledging your Beingness and experiencing your own Beingness simultaneously. There is no emotion involved. It is just certainty-that I Am that I Am .

This has been a mental concept for you, for many many years: and you have all talked of it, discussed it, and toyed with it. You are now energetically ready to experience Bliss. It will not be done here. This is a personal, sacred journey. And you will find your own time and space in which to touch that nanosecond of bliss. You (Darshana) wish to speak?

Group Members: There is nothing to speak about, it is a complete void...wherein you go and experience....magnetic....that is when the experiences come. Is that not so?

The Kryon: At that point, at that zero point, you are so flooded with every single thing that you can conceive of and much that you cannot conceive of. You are so flooded, that you cannot help but become part of it. You cannot bear to resist that level of energetic empowerment and at that single nanosecond you merge. And then, your own 3rd dimensional Beingness will separate you from that merger as you are not permitted to remain there. If you did, you would shed your physical body. So you will experience it and return. And sometimes you will not even consciously know that you have experienced it. But all of you sitting here have known Bliss. It is now time to bring your active consciousness to it.

Group Members: Will the experience come only once or can it recur?

The Kryon: Oh! Indeed it can reoccur, but the first time is the hardest, and when we say the first time, we mean the first conscious experience. It has happened to all you time and again, but none of you has yet experienced it consciously.

Group Members: I thought I had experienced it consciously once, many, many years ago.

The Kryon: What you experienced at that moment was an instantaneous merger of several several aspects of Self, with several aspects of universal consciousness. But it was not experienced in totality. As you now have a point of reference for your conscious mind, you considered that 'bliss', imagine what the full experience can be!

Group Members: Is it the nothing / everything, shoonya / ashoonya state? I had the experience 20 years ago and I haven't been able to touch it ever again.

The Kryon: It will happen in its own time and you will all touch it in different ways. Not one of you will have a shared experience. Not one, and yet you will all touch it. Now bring your consciousness to it and demand this of Self. It will happen.

Group Members: If Earth is to move, will all humankind experience it?

The Kryon: The bliss? Not necessarily.

Group Members: To move into the other dimension...

Sohrab: Not necessarily: each one has his own path, each one has his own reasons and each one will still have his own limitations. It may not be in your course to touch bliss and yet you may move. But more and more will touch it.

Group Members: Why do we need to come back? (Inaudible)...realities...?

The Kryon: That will be spoken of now. The collective welcomes you.

The Shiv Energy Speaks: Understand the Shiv energy as it is, in this moment of the now. Rid yourself of old, familiar notions and preconceptions. The Shiv energy was a part of an energetic loop that was created millennia ago. The Shiv energy predates your Big Bang. It was part of a consciousness of All That Was Not.

The Shiv energy, in its own power and potency, chose to experience Self in different forms. The Shiv energy did this, pre the Big Bang, by merging with different strands of cosmic energy that were in existence at that time. Most of those energies were as yet unformed and with the power of The Shiv, they began to take on definition in different manners. Some evolved into other Godhead energies and yet others evolved into what you term 'dark matter'.

The Shiv energy evolved in these different streams and as the streams began to reconnect with each other, newer and newer patterns of energy were formed. Energies unlike the energy you know today, and it is from these streams that evolved the first level of sacred geometry .

Sacred Geometry, in turn, rejoined with the various Shiv strands and created higher levels of energetic awareness which formed the first equivalent of the grid. At that time the grid was free flowing throughout the Universe and was not attached to any solid bodies. But the existence of the grid energized the various planets and other solid bodies, giving them an awareness and the desire to become part of the grid, and so in the infinite wisdom of the Shiv energy, each one was joyously embraced.

The Shiv energy, today, in this current linear aspect of time, has many many functions. What do you know of the Shiv energy today?

Group Members: Destructive and cleansing...

Group Members: Metamorphosis...gateway, portal...shivlingam ...Shiva energy is about Self...inaudible...collective and not as an individual....that is the new era...

The Shiv Energy: You have spoken well...

Group Members: Spirit and matter and the entire female....inaudible

The Shiv Energy: It has been well explained....listen well...There are new offshoots of the current Shiv energy that are in the process of creation. They themselves are not fully formed as of yet. Your particular planet is harnessing these new offshoots and is doing with them what your collective desire wishes. It is the Shiv energy that has drawn the new portals that you have spoken of, not only collectively but for each individual sitting here. It is the Shiv energy that you are harnessing, to touch the realm of Infinite Possibilities, as in doing so, the instant you touch it, you will have access to any and every aspect of Self that you could possibly desire to explore. You also have the infinite possibility to create aspects of Self that are not in existence. You have the ability now to access this Shiv energy, and attach yourself to any and every planetary body, Universal entity, and to access energy for growth, development and exploration.

Portals will constantly open up, but portals are not only between dimensions. There are portals between levels of consciousness, there are portals between levels of desire, there are portals between you and other physical civilizations, there are portals between you and every aspect of any issue you wish to overcome: 'infinite possibilities.'

Group Members: You were talking of the new offshoot of the Shiva energy, I am finding it very 'gentle'e...

The Shiv Energy: : A beautiful observation. Most of you are aware of the power of the Shiv energy. The power has gone to the 'point of zero' where you can harness it in any manner you choose. It has every single aspect within it, from force to gentleness, but its predominance, as drawn by the collective of Earth right now, is the 'gentleness' aspect. You will all experience the Shiv in your most tranquil moments. The moments where you are flowing with blue light (pointing to a group member). Moments when you are feeling connected and harmonious and vibrant and yet almost 'Buddha-like' in tranquility, and yet this is the new Shiv energy. Use it any way you will, but acknowledge that its gentleness is not powerlessness. Its power is beyond the power it has ever existed at before.

Be In the Shiv.

Dear Friends, we have, in the past, taught you how to access Master energies from within your own energetic field. You are now even beyond that.

You will now not be given the luxury, most of the time, to even be aware of the energies in any individuated form. This will, once again, bring up panic in many people, as you will call upon your Beloved Master and you will be used to a certain energetic signature that Master has given you over years and you will say 'I am not connecting, I don't feel that energy within me, my body is not spinning, I am not vibrating like I did before, I feel nothing.'

It is in this feeling of 'nothingness' when you will be the most connected because you will be acknowledging to the Universe that you are willing to access all the energies , yours and theirs, in total unification. You will be admitting and joyously welcoming the Realm of Infinite Possibilities into your Beingness.

Individuation may occur from time to time, when you speak out or 'write'. But now... welcome the collective... This does not mean that you will never get certain Masters speaking, or within your writing, you will not get a name again, of course you will, but at the same time, welcome the collective energy as you will be doing self a disservice if you try to individuate. Why?

The vibrations of the Universe and the Masters have also now risen to such a level of unification that there is a complete homogenous aspect of energies which now permeate planet Earth. Your personal energies have also extended outward now into a level of beautiful flow and vibration. The best fit for you is the Oneness, and if you attempt to go backward and hold on to that which you always did, you will be pushing a square peg into a round hole. You will still connect, you will still feel the vibration, but your own flow will be slightly impure. Be aware of this and joyously embrace the fact that you are all now fully connected at all times. Less and less will you be permitted to watch this form of a channeling. It has been done, time and again, to support you through this transfer process. But the more you see it externally, the more you will demand the separation within Self, and that is now not to be.

Right now you have witnessed Sohrab going from deep trance into a level where he is almost seeming casual, and yet you are aware of the connection. This level of connection is still permitted in group meetings to help you access this level of energies in Self, as you will all hold it and you can now wield it, at will, joyously. You don't need the prayers, the mantras, the candles, the group chanting...all unnecessary. Do it if you wish, but it will push you backwards.

BLESSINGS AND JOY FROM ENERGIES OF THIS GROUP.

Each one of you is represented in Sohrab right now, in equal measure. Sohrab is not at the fore, you are all vibrating within him. What you see, is you and you and you. (Sohrab pointing to some of the group members). You are to see how beautiful you look in connection, look here. This is YOU.
