The Ancients

Trance Channeling begins

Greetings from The Ancients.

For countless millennia, we too had physical bodies, thought processes and an evolutionary cycle like yours; but approximately 100 million years ago we chose to evolve into beings of pure anti-matter. Being anti-matter, we have no limitations. Our wisdom, knowledge and 'technical' expertise are beyond all others in your Universe.

We have never before made direct contact with the peoples of Earth; this experience is new to you and to us, and is a great celestial experiment. We are not here to answer questions or debate issues, or even to disseminate knowledge. We are here to forge a connection between your Beingness and ours, so that you may now progress at a rapid rate.

You (referring to two group members) know us, only 2 here know us. You will not know us consciously, but reach deep into your cellular memory and a chord will be struck. Let us begin the process of exchange.

[Sohrab-- making the sign of Infinity.]

IT IS DONE.....37 levels of your DNA have been activated.

37..... Not all of these will show manifested aspects of activation in your lifetime, but they have been activated. Some for this lifetime, some for your future growth and development.

Sohrab shifts energy to the Omakron Collective

The Omakron: The energy sustained today was indeed an unusual one for Planet Earth and has been the first of its kind ever experienced, by the people of your world. It says much for each person sitting here in this room. What does it say about you? That you are special? But then, everyone is special. No, it says that your level of openness to Universal contact is so full, so warm, and so welcoming, on a very, very deep level, that this event was made possible.

We will speak to you now of the magnificent friend who just touched you with his energy, and you may question us, if you wish.

These beings, 'The Ancients', are revered throughout all Universes, simply because they are the ancients. Their levels of knowledge, wisdom, power and advancement of Self is so so magnificent, these are truly the Beings closest to what you would call 'Universal Consciousness' or the 'Godhead'. Do not judge them by the appearance in his physical body. He was unable to contain even a micro-fraction of their light, their power, their luminosity, and their magnificence. Through him, they appeared almost dour. Not at all.

This infinitesimal union, in a single visit, has activated the entire peoples of Earth. You are truly blessed, as a group, to experience this activation; indeed you are blessed to be alive in this moment in time. We welcome now any questions you have about the ancients.

Group Member: In what age in their Earth time did they choose to become anti-matter?

The Omakron: They spoke of that earlier. The transference was not instantaneous, but about 100 million years ago (in your Earth time) the shift actually occurred for them. They inhabited a 'planet' of sorts, and shifted simultaneously into DIFFERENT LEVELS of anti-matter.

They experienced what you would consider a worldwide cataclysm, yet there was no suffering, no pain, and no trauma. Their planet underwent instantaneous inner combustion, and there was only joy that they experienced in this transference, as they all wanted it completely and consciously.

Group Member: Did any choose not to undergo this experience?

The Omakron: None at all, but there were those who chose different levels of the shift, some chose a very basic level of the shift and others chose to escalate their consciousness into deep, deep anti-matter.

Group Member: ...(inaudible) ...are there many more on Earth.....what are.....?

The Omakron: (laughing) Let us speak of what is likely to manifest during your lifetime, here and now. Of the 37 strands that have now been activated, approximately 30 will remain dormant for your future lifetimes, but not dormant as you know the word dormancy. Even though they will not manifest directly in your lifetime, the inner vibration will begin to germinate now.

Group Member: Will it make us powerful?

The Omakron: Very powerful...let us speak of the 7 that are extremely likely to manifest in your current lifetime. Understand that not all of you will manifest even these 7, but many will.

- 1) There will be now radical shifts in your consciousness. When we say consciousness, we are referring to your own traumas, confusion, pain, inter-relationships and the situations you inhabit or draw to Self. You will suddenly find and this will be the first step and therefore you will find such a shift that you will laugh, laugh joyously at how absurd it was, to get caught up or to misinterpret aspects that you have, over so many years. This is but the first level and this will occur for all.
- 2) Second aspect that is likely to occur for most people in this room, is a huge escalation of intuitive & psychic powers. You will find great, great sensitivity to others' emotions, feelings, or attitudes. You will be able to read between the lines; when you witness a person in pain, you will be able to read the subtext; when you are faced with an angry situation you will be able to sense the other's pain; you will sense the trauma or the expansion of a friend across the globe, without any direct intimation from them.

You will become more and more sensitive to your environment, your own homes, plants, animals, trees, and to your environment. You will be sensitive to color and vibration, much more than you are right now. You will be sensitive to the moods with those with whom you work, you will be sensitive to the moods and desires of your neighborhood, your city, your world... open to this.

Step 1 & 2 are imminent for all of you. Not all of you will do this simultaneously: just as the ancients chose different levels, so will you, and your timeframes may differ, but the changes will take place.

- 3) And this actually has begun in most of you, changes in the internal body structure. Organs, as you know, are changing shape and position; new vibrations are being released by you from within; aspects that you didn't know existed within the body will now start to manifest. You will find a new sensitivity and power in your own physical structure. Some will simply experience a new inner radiance, without knowing from which part it is emitting. Bring this into your consciousness & walk joyously in your own new light.

The other steps are not so clearly defined. They are blurring one into the other, but we will describe them as a whole. Wisdom, Knowledge, Intelligence, communication, vibration, all these aspects are now being stirred up within you. Your old conditioning has to be thrown out. None of you will now be able to survive with the conditioning of the past, which does not fit with you. Some of it you will choose to keep or extend some old conditioning, but most of it, most of it will be thrown out. How?

You will all now face internal and external stimuli that will bring this to the fore. Let us take a very simple practical Earth example. Those humans who are radically racist, will be surrounded by peoples of other races, not only externally, but they will find them flowing into their families & lives; some good, some bad, all with positive opportunities for growth, and through this, they will have to re-examine their rigid structure of racism.

Is this not happening right now in the USA? Racism and anti-feminism, both being examined so powerfully by the region of Middle America. In general, where they are rather fixed in their views.

The entire Money market situation, is helping humanity to access its perspectives of money, abundance, balance of power, distribution, sharing, oneness, etc ,etc.

Everything, everything around you is conspiring to help you to examine these aspects of Self.

The new DNA is also going to vibrate the physical body structure from the deepest cellular level, to bring to the surface cellular memories that do not belong to this lifetime at all, but are trapped within you; ones which you wish to release. Hence many of you having confused dreams: some peaceful, some traumatic, some simply hazy. Others who do not remember their dreams often awaken with a sense of fatigue.

This is the new DNA, dredging up from the core center of the cell, past memories. All of this does not have to be processed consciously; hence it comes up and is released, sometimes in the dream state and sometimes in the conscious state.

We also wish to talk very briefly of the 7th level which only a few will manifest in this physical lifetime: ‘Pure Telepathy’. Yes, there are some sitting in this room right now, who, before the end of their physical lifetime, will become practicing telepaths. Along with telepathy will come the ability to manipulate physical objects with the power of the mind. Some of you will also work towards that. Exciting, isn't it?

Group Member: If time is not linear, but simultaneous, surely this activation is taking place all at once, and fully?

The Omakron: Yes, dear friend, it IS simultaneous; but since you exist in a 3rd dimension form, where time is linear, its effect will not be felt so consciously by you during this lifetime. However if you choose to transcend linear existence, you will access all of it NOW!

Group Member: How does one transcend?

The Omakron: Speak to her (referring to the group member) about this. This will require several sessions of explanation; but we will briefly touch upon it today. Transcending an aspect like this, that is firmly rooted in your belief structure and in your cellular structure, is not easy for 3rd dimensional beings of Earth, but if you could shift that consciousness and truly BELIEVE it is possible, then it is possible! It would occur, would take one micro-second. How is that he (Sohrab) is able to channel. He BELIEVES he can!

If you truly believed that when you fall down, you would never hurt yourself or experience pain, you wouldn't!

If you believed every time you drank 'contaminated' water that nothing could ever happen to you, as you are part of that contaminated water and it is part of your Beingness, you would never fall sick! But these are deep-rooted beliefs, which have been instilled in you, not only in this lifetime, but over many lifetimes. They have become a part of your cellular structure and cell memory. To change that requires focus and belief in your own power.

Group Member: inaudible.....

The Omakron: When you speak of certain Universes, yes. But these, in turn, have birthed so many more Universes, some parallel, some concurrent, some simultaneous. Each one has its own genetic codes of DNA (sacred geometry), its own moral codes, its own set of Universal Laws, its own set of consciousness.

As above, so below. Just as your Chakric system is beginning to merge one into the other, so are Universal mergers beginning to take place now. This does not mean that they will all return to their 'starting point'. Through their own sets of experience, they are collectively creating a new Godhead. Even the Godhead is being reborn.

Group Member: inaudible:.....it is truly Divine....

Group Member: 'Reverence'....

The Omakron: Can you explain this?

Group Member: 'Reverence' it is not out of any belief system to about tapping into your invisible connection, with the Source. Every tree is connected to the Earth, similarly every planet is connected to its Universe. Similarly every Universe is connected to Source with an Invisible root and the way to that root is 'Reverence' It is a very human term...inaudible' and then.....

The Omakron: ..and every human child is connected to the Source with a cord as well.
As Above, So Below.

‘Reverence’ has been misinterpreted by humans over centuries. Reverence has been misinterpreted as offering your Power to a Beingness you consider superior to self. But that is not reverence at all.

Reverence actually has very little to do with your human concepts of the world. Reverence is an inner sense of awe and appreciation of your own Beingness. And if you cannot appreciate your Beingness, you cannot appreciate the Source, as the Source and the Beingness are truly ONE, extensions of each other.

You have always seen or considered that the Source created you. It is time for you to understand that you are constantly creating the Source. Does this mean that the concept of Godhead does not exist? Of Course it does: call it Universal Consciousness, call it God, Celestial Power, call it what you wish. As you grow, change, develop and mutate, you are feeding back into the Source new experiences and that is what causes the Source to grow. If you did not exist, the Source could not exist.

You are creating the God. With your power, ‘reverence’ and experience, you are offering to the Godhead the opportunity to grow as well.

It is so interdependent, one is not above the other: the two work simultaneously, in perfect balance, therefore ‘Reverence’ is the appreciation of self: being wonderstruck by yourself, being awestruck by yourself, celebrating You and thereby celebrating what God can be.
