The God Particle The Large Haydron Collider The Crystalline Beds below the Bermuda Triangle

A discussion took place prior to the meeting about the new Large Haydron Collider (LHC) scientific experiment that had just taken place. Some of the points discussed are noted below:

'D' – It is an underground circular tube, 27 kilometers long, in which scientists will put in an atom, a proton or a neutron. They will subject these to different kinds of light and energies, and observe the results.

'N' – The Proton has already been passed through this; it is hit by a light source which is almost 99.99% the speed of light. And then when it is hit by this light, it will explode and create other dimensions.

'D' – After which they are also going to now see what is called the 'Higgs Boson.' The 'Higgs Boson' is also called 'God's Particle'. Now 'God's Particle' has not being observed up to now; it is when electromagnetic waves touches an atom, which is almost 'not seeable' and it converts it into mass, so it is called 'God's Particle', because it is CREATION. Many people are upset about this, as they feel that scientists are trying to take on 'the role of God'. They worry that this will be the end of Earth.

'N' – That's what happened in Atlantis.

'D' – The second biggest thing that has happened is that, on March 19th, a star exploded in the far reaches of the universe, the Gamma Rays of that star explosion was received directly to Earth, and we do not yet understand the repercussions of this.

Sohrab – I assume this is the new cosmic light they are talking about -- the new occult energies? And through this process, we will discover how a black hole is formed?

'D': Exactly! This experiment will also validate the "String Theory". Through this process of the creation of Mass, scientists hope to be able to discover newer and newer dimensions.]

-----End of Discussion-----

Trance Channeling begins

Cosmic Brotherhood: – We are amused: when this scientific discussion took place, so many minds closed down and said, ‘Not another science lecture!’ and yet it is important that you understand what has taken place and what is taking place; not only from the scientific perspective, but from the perspective of your personal growth and development.

Let us first remind you of a prior experiment that took place, in which a particle was injected into the same tube and it completely puzzled scientists when the particle arrived back at the starting point EVEN BEFORE it was sent out; bending all your rules of time, space and dimensionality.

What has taken place scientifically is of vital significance to the Earth’s growth and development. But the energies unleashed by this experiment WERE ALREADY UNLEASHED BEFORE THE EXPERIMENT TOOK PLACE IN THE PHYSICAL. The physical act simply followed suit, and brought it into your consciousness.

So what has happened? Why did this take place?

To refresh your memory: You were told many months ago of a ‘five-stage program’ that Earth is undergoing for her growth and development. You were told of the new black hole that was emitting ‘bullet-like energies’ that were affecting all on planet Earth. It was also explained to you that this ‘five-stage program’ was a COSMIC EXPERIMENT, drawn collectively by all in your Solar System, with no definite outcome, other than a guaranteed increase in your levels of growth and vibration.

The energy generated is now at the disposal of Earth and her beingnesses to use as they wish, and these dovetails with the aspect of the shedding of the Blue Print, where you now create, moment to moment, with this new vast power.

Let us first look at nuclear power: The generation of nuclear power was not ‘bad’ or ‘good’, it just WAS. But it was YOUR choice to use this power to in a manner that would enhance your life (electricity and food for all, medical advancement, transportation, education etc) or to destroy yourselves with an Atomic Bomb.

A SIMILAR ENERGY HAS NOW BEEN UNLEASHED, EXCEPT THAT IT IS APPROXIMATELY ONE THOUSAND TIMES AS POWERFUL AS NUCLEAR POWER. AND IT WILL GROW EXPONENTIALLY.

What has actually happened? The consciousness of Mother Earth Herself and of all her inhabitants HAVE DECLARED TO SELF AND TO THE UNIVERSE that you are now ready, willing and able to work at and work with a very high level of tangible energies.

These energies (released prior to the experiment) are now floating around Planet Earth, and are vibrating everything at a completely new frequency. You will find, over the next 3 or 4 years, this power at work, through you, for every aspect of your life. What is this energy like?

What do you sense? [Addressing the question to 'S']. Just connect with this energy and describe it any way you wish.

'S': – I see it as effervescent. I see quantities of light, moving and vibrating. But nothing seems clear or tangible.

'D': - It's liquid light. And it's the beginning of a new wave: we are moving into other dimensions.

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Absolutely!

'D': - That March 19th explosion bathed us in new energies as well...we are about to 'quantum leap'.

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Yes. How this was first anchored on Earth? It was facilitated by an event that you have all condemned: 9/11.

You are already aware that that event was contracted by all those who were involved with it in any form. It also awoke the consciousness of the peoples of earth to terrorism. But at the same time, it energetically 'shook up' earth to a degree where she could now receive these new energies. This was one of the most 'positive' aspects of the event.

The new energies that are now floating around Planet Earth are pure consciousness (liquid light). They will not give you a specific colour, vibration or texture. They are elusive and are constantly changing. Yet they will affect every single aspect of your lives. Let us examine some of these now:

They will work upon THE BRAIN, causing it to vibrate at a higher frequency. New pathways and new neural networks will be formed, expanding your consciousness. As the physical brain begins to 'open', you will find yourself flooded with concepts you never before acknowledged or even knew existed. These will deal with every aspect of your lives.

The new energies will move through the brain to the THIRD EYE area, which now encompasses every part of your body, and does not exclusively reside in the center of the forehead. This will lead you to be far more 'aware' of self and of others. You will find yourself needing to 'speak your truth'. You will find it difficult to return to the old ways of suppressing your truth and evading inter-personal issues.

‘D’: – Is that why I have lost my voice?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Yes, you are going through a major transformation.

It will then flow down, not just into the heart chakra, but INTO THE TORSO, affecting every single organ within you. Many doctors will now find erratic pulse rates among their patients. And if any of you now find the pulse moving erratically, have no fear: it is a temporary phenomenon while you get acclimatized to these new energies.

You will also find, because of the changes in the torso, you will have periods where you feel feverish but have not temperature; where you feel cold for no apparent reason; or where you start perspiring profusely, once again for no apparent reason.

The lungs in particular are worked upon with these energies. Many of you will find once again, if you examine self, that your rhythm of breathing will start to change. You will find yourself taking deeper breaths from time to time, and at other times breathing extremely shallowly. You are being prepared for a future time, when you will breathe not only through the lungs, but equally through the pores of the skin (absorbing liquid light).

The energies will now flow into the GENITALS/FEMININE AREAS, vibrating the sexual and reproductive systems at a new frequency. This may cause a temporary increase or decrease in your sex drive.

Wonderfully ‘higher-level children’ can now make their appearance on earth, through these upgraded wombs. The upgraded etheric womb (in men and women alike) will now permit a new level of birthing of self. Each one of you will now start re-birthing self, giving rise to new and improved systems of beliefs, patterns, rhythms, thoughts and creativity.

The energy will then flow into THE LEGS, permitting self to lead self into new spaces that are needed for your growth and development. Yes, you may be guided into actual physical spaces that are needed by you for self.

On a broader scale, these energies are going to provoke upgrades in every single Earthly aspect that requires it. You have already witnesses them sweeping through your financial market, through your governments, through your legal system.

They are sweeping through your emotional quotient...there is not one person in this room who is not feeling ‘vulnerable’ right now. They are working on you to release deeply buried cellular memories that you wish to eradicate.

Let us help you understand this with an example: suppose you suddenly feel 'raped', even though you have not undergone any such experience in this lifetime, just know that you are dredging up these buried aspects from your cellular memories...embrace them and let them go.

Some of you are experiencing aspects of self that you don't understand: you as a murderer, you as a merciless warrior, you as a nasty human being, or you as a magnificent saint..... Don't dismiss any of this as the ramblings of the mind: they are to be explored, embraced, acknowledged and assimilated. Enjoy every aspect that self examines. Enjoy it fully!

'D': – And can all this be forgotten?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – It cannot be forgotten, but it can be assimilated into your energetic structure, after which it simply becomes an essence of who you are.

Let us help you understand this with a hypothetical example:

Let us assume that on one certain night, you have a very vigorous and very violent nightmare about having being assaulted, it is simply the consciousness, with these new energies, bringing this up for you to examine. Even if you have had no experience of this in your current lifetime, it is part of the cellular residue which you are carrying, which you have now chosen to assimilate.

Assimilate it instantly: acknowledge it as part of who you are, and allow it to dissolve into your beingness. Embrace it and expand into it. That is all.

Some of these glimpses will come as dreams, others as daydreams, and yet others as thoughts. Now just enjoy them.

These new energies are also working upon every aspect of PLANET EARTH: her minerals, her water, her oil, her topography. New energies must now replace old, blocked ones. A request to all light workers: when you are working with the planet, do not attempt to stop these natural shifts and movements, but instead, using your power, facilitate them in the smoothest possible manner.

'N':– Can I ask a question? Was this the event we were told about, two or three meetings back?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Yes. Many of you have likened these events to the downfall of Atlantis. Let us help you understand this better.

You are aware of the very high levels of crystalline power that the Atlanteans harnessed and manipulated. After a while, this had an adverse effect on their brains. Some experienced mental imbalances, others brain seizures. Many lost logical thought processes. Many short-circuited with this 'energetic intoxication'.

In this moment of the now, you are different from the Atlanteans as earth energies are at a very different level than they were then, and you are more ready to handle this kind of power. You are also currently at the center of the Universe, so the unleashing of this energy is benefiting not only planet earth, but the entire Universe.

However, if certain groups of people permit themselves to use this energy and get 'intoxicated', they too will self-destruct.

'N': – But aren't we being helped by the universal friends not to self-destruct?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Of course, of course! Why do you think they have been speaking to you for so many years now, introducing you step by step to your own power and abilities?

'N': – Didn't the Atlanteans have universal friends who helped them?

Cosmic Brotherhood: - Of course they did! But they grew irresponsible, refused to listen to caution, overfed on the energies; and moved from balance to imbalance; from expansion to arrogance.

They were constantly being offered guidance, but they chose to ignore this, and then critical mass tilted towards utter superiority. With this overdose of crystalline energy, they became part crystal themselves, and eventually returned in a flash to pure energy.

'N': – Were some of us there at that time?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Most of you were.

'N': – And we destroyed ourselves?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – And you destroyed yourselves. And you are working in the same manner now, with a wonderful group of friends, to use energies (as you have been doing over many lifetimes) in a more balanced and vibrant manner. Why do you think you are listening to this lecture today?

'N': – I thought as much.

'D': – I have two questions.

Cosmic Brotherhood: – She never has one, always two! (All laugh)

'D': – Well, one is: does this crystal still exist on Earth?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Yes, it does.

'D': – Where?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – First of all, it is not just a single crystal, it is a bed of crystalline forms and it exists exactly as it was in those days. However, it is exactly in the same physical form but its energetic component has naturally upgraded over the years, it is lying deep buried under the ocean floor, and it will not be discovered till Earth is responsible enough to harness and use those energies for the good of all and therefore it will remain hidden for a while longer.

Group Member:– Is that the Bermuda Triangle?

Cosmic Brotherhood: –Yes. However, it may interest you to know that though the epicenter of this crystalline bed is in the Bermuda Triangle, there are subsidiaries around the globe, as these crystalline beingnesses have birthed new aspects of self.

How, you ask. They don't birth in your physical manner, giving rise to new crystals. However, their energies increase to a point where a particular crystalline bed cannot hold the vibration and a portion of their vibration is then transferred to other crystalline forms that exist. There is a very large 'baby' in the oceans where the Tsunami occurred.

'D': – Between Japan and Russian?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Absolutely! There are other 'babies' off the coast of South America ;under the Himalayan Mountains; between Australia and New Zealand; and another very strong crystalline family in the South Pole.

'D': – May I ask my second question? Since 11/11, which was the portal of 9/11 2001, the second would be 12/12: are we looking at a catastrophe or a smooth transition?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – The next portal is one of pure liquid light. We will explain this. You generally visualize a portal as an archway. This one will be more like an energetic cosmic wormhole, containing sheets and sheets of liquid light (higher consciousness). Every single human being will enter this, but where they exit will depend on their level of energetic growth. It will be divine perfection.

'D': – So we may have 144 dimensions of Earth?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – And therefore, those who choose to live in three dimensions will continue to do so, those who choose to live in five dimensions will continue to do so, and those who choose to live in twelve will continue to do so. Yet all will co-exist on the same planet, in the same reality.

Group Member:— In the same reality?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Yes, in the same reality, because you are changing universal laws now.

‘D’: – So I could be in your reality in totality?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Indeed!! So, if two beingnesses are in different ‘states of liquid light’, they can still merge with one another in physical form, but that person who is in level three, will not be able to access the other two levels of the person who is in level five. But the person in level five will be able to acknowledge and vibrate with every aspect of the person in level three.

‘N’: – It’s already happening with me.

Cosmic Brotherhood: – It is already taking place, dear friend! Do you not have friends who totally deny their feelings and emotions, and who ridicule your growth and knowledge? Yet you co-exist with them.

If we were to put you all on a giant vibrating trampoline, some would bounce higher, some would bounce only a little and yet others would resist the trampoline and topple over.

Those who align with the new energies will feel nothing but expansion and exhilaration, and those who resist will keep falling over, and have to pick themselves up again and again.

‘Sj’:— May I ask a question? How do you utilize these energies to create the reality that we desire?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – By believing it.

‘Sj’: – Intent?

Cosmic Brotherhood: - By believing it! What is intent? You can intend something for the rest of your life, but you have to visualize it and you have to do the physical work to manifest it. Manifestation is a combination of action and visualization, you cannot have one without the other, and so if you believe it, you must be it.

What reality do you wish to create right now? Let us use you as an example.

‘Sj’: – If I can imagine a reality in which there is no pain and suffering and no third dimension, third density suffering, how can I draw that reality towards me?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – First you examine your aspects of pain and suffering and rid yourself of them, by embracing them, not by cutting them off, not by severing them, not by denying them, but by embracing them.

Ask yourself: where am I in pain? Begin to embrace it. If you are greatly disturbed by an ‘unsuccessful’ relationship, experience it fully. Cry, scream, speak it out, discuss it, examine it, and assimilate it. Look at the bigger picture. Understand why you have created it. Take responsibility for it. Enjoy it!

As you affect the change in self, you will affect a change in all those in your immediate vicinity: this will trigger off, in them, the desire to do the same thing, they will affect all those in their vicinity, and the so the network grows bigger and bigger till it vibrates around the Earth. You wish to change externally, change internally.

Group Member:– Most of us are doing it unconsciously. At some level it is just happening.

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Of course! because human consciousness is not separate.

Right now you are linked with all the people in this room. You have all become a harmonious energetic family. So you are linked to everything she is experiencing, and he is experiencing. Through this process, you assimilate more and more aspects of self.

Cosmic Brotherhood:– Many light workers, being highly sensitive to energies, are feeling overwhelmed and saturated with the new levels of power flooding planet Earth right now. Many are short-circuiting.

It is the perfect time for those friends to rest a while, and to re-assess their own priorities. They are invited to check their egos, to examine how they are receiving ‘their strokes’, to examine whether they need validation from others, and to look inward.

Post November, many will find a shift in their work. They need to be prepared for that.

‘Dr.Y’: – What you are saying is so surprising. Since last week, I have just started giving appointments post November, and I didn’t know why! I have just stopped giving appointments for this month and next month. I have told people I am not available.

Cosmic Brotherhood: – This doesn’t mean that all lightworkers will stop all sessions, not at all; but they cannot conduct successful sessions if they do not look at self first.

Friends, we are speaking to ALL OF YOU. Even if you do not hold official 'sessions', you constantly interact with your family, your friends, your work colleagues, spreading light.

Use the month of September: work with the new occult energies, work with the new energies unleashed by this experiment, flow with it, and expand, expand, expand. If you try to limit yourself this month, you will bring on physical discomfort, aches and pains.

'R': – The energy that is with her (Nsurgis) is not a very happy energy, why is this energy attaching itself to her?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – That is a personal connection between her (Nsurgis) and the energy. Simply work with her to increase her inner vibration, so that she does not permit these 'accidental' attachments. Do not in any way harm the entity or attempt to exorcise him. Only work with bringing her into energetic expansion and balance, so that, in the future, she may embrace them if she so chooses. Right now it is not being done at her will.

'Sj': – Is the moon an artificial satellite? Is it supposed to be where it is right now, or was it brought in by something else?

Cosmic Brotherhood: – We must explain this. Has the moon always existed around Planet Earth? NO. Is the moon an artificial satellite? YES, it once was.

Eons ago, when earth was in her developmental phase (before any kind of life forms existed on her), a group of highly advanced Universal Friends brought with them an exploratory craft, a beacon, made of semi-organic matter. This was used by them to assimilate energies from around the Universe.

Earth responded to this beacon and an energetic contact with it. The Universal Friends acknowledged this, and released it into the earth's keeping, and your Moon was birthed.

Its very core still functions like it used to...much Universal knowledge is actually accessed by and filtered through the Moon, before it is passed onto Planet Earth. It is a living being in its own way, very different to yours. The Moon and the Earth are like partners, lovers; the Yin-Yang balance.

'Gy': – We were connected to solar circuitry and when lunar circuitry was added to this, there was a change which brought us more into the 3D.

Cosmic Brotherhood: – Yes, you were once purely solar, but to be able to evolve into a race of men and women, masculine and feminine, the lunar energies merged with the solar energies and attached themselves to Planet Earth, that facilitated this.

When we say 'a physical merger is now taking place in every human being', it is in energetic terms. The physical body will still retain separation of the sexes, but as you have already observed, more and more human beings have begun to look and behave androgynous: Unisex clothing, hairstyles, features, and body types; exploration of alternative sexuality.

As the left and right brain begin to merge, creativity must occur simultaneously with action. All must merge to become a greater whole: Mathematics and Spirituality, Science and Spirituality, the Arts and Business. Both sides of the brain will eventually work as one, creating and initiating at the same time.

Humankind is at an exciting stage of evolution!

BLESSINGS, JOY, LOVE AND LIGHT
