Those Aspects of Sohrab that are:

THE SAI BABA,

THE SATYA SAI BABA,

THE JESUS,

THE MEHER BABA,

THE BUDDH, AND

THE KUTHUMI

Channeled by Sohrab

DNA of the Energy Body Belief in Your Power
New Energies entering the Body

Trance Channeling begins

[The Om was hummed in a very low and almost inaudible tone, allowing it to vibrate strongly within the body]

: Take a moment and check your body. What has happened within it, with the experience of this slightly altered sound? (Sohrab questions some of the sitters individually)

Group Member: I feel very calm.

Group Member: Peace...Quietness.....stillness

Group Member: Feeling vibration...inside me

Group Member:..inner sense....

Group Member: Organs are vibrating...

Group Member:.....(inaudible)

Group Member: Uncomfortable....

: Good! She was honest and said 'uncomfortable'; you will understand this as the meeting progresses. ...Yours? (Questioning a sitter right at the back)

Group Member: It was tingling...and ...very light....

🌅: How did it affect your Hara chakra....? Pay attention to that during the course of the meeting. Yours...??? (Another Group Member)

Group Member: Aligned totally.....

🌅: Yours, energy master (Another Group Member)...

Group Member: (inaudible) it was joining with my hara...

🌅: We like to put her on the spot....yours...

Group Member: I was covered with green light and my whole body was orange in color.

🌅: And all of this took place in a few moments. . Had we permitted you to continue for about 10 to 15 minutes, you would have been so energetically expanded, you would have literally 'flown upto the ceiling'. Try this, on your own, at home.

This level of low, deep inner chanting will cure your ailments, and will bring you into 'perfect energetic_alignment.' Do not take our word for it, prove it to yourselves.

Welcome! We are extremely pleased; the group intuitively worked in perfect union with Self. There was not one, newcomer or old-timer, who was out of sync with the energies of the collective. You are truly learning the paradoxical joy of being an individual and a collective, all at once.

Let us begin today, by speaking of the 2nd Wave of energies that are now entering Planet Earth during the year 2009. For those of you who were not present at the previous meeting, we recommend that you familiarize yourselves with the first wave.

Level 2: .A new and very unfamiliar energy to you, even more unfamiliar than the first.
THE ENERGIES OF YOUR OWN UPGRADED SELF.

And let us assure you that you will fight and resist these energies to a greater degree than you did the first wave, because most of you refuse to accept Who You Really Are.

If, for example, we were to point to a Group Member and say to her that on an extremely high energetic level, her stream is pure science, she would laugh at us, and say, "how can this be possible?" and yet her energetic stream is Pure Science. She may not have chosen to experience or to exercise that aspect in this incarnation, as she wishes to work with other aspects of Self, but that does not take away from her purest stream.

We will point to one more now, and we know she will laugh! YOU (referring to a Group Member) have a Pure Mathematical stream.....she is already laughing....pure, high level mathematics...she will not accept that, and yet that is her stream. So you see, each of you has a high level stream and not just one, but many aspects that you will not be able to acknowledge.

Before we move further, we ask you to take a moment here: close your eyes and ask Self to reveal to you a visual of your own Higher Being as it was last year. Now before you do this, understand that your own Higher Beingness is pure energy, but Beingness will give you a visual to help you understand Self.....proceed.....

Visualize yourself as Self demonstrates. It can be a magnificent male/female form....it can be a magnificent expansion of light and energy ....it may even interpret itself as what you term an extra-terrestrial or pure light...allow Self to reveal your form, as it was in 2008.....

Examine it in every detail....Is there clothing? Is there a size, a shape, a form? What is its vibration?.....Get rid of the embarrassment that is coming up in waves. Acknowledge what is being shown.....Very well.....you may now return, we will explain why this has been done, later in the meeting.

As we said earlier, the new energies that are now flooding you are the upgraded, recreated energies of Self. What exactly does this mean?

Most of you received a visual and an experience of the energies of who you were. What is taking place is a complete upgrade of the DNA of your highest Beingness. Now this sounds like an absolute paradox: how can your energy body have DNA?

Your physical DNA is only a reflection of the DNA that you really hold in pure energy form. Except that energetic DNA does not have a physical manifestation. What does that DNA comprise of? Would anyone like to take a guess?

Group Member: Many more strands...a reality of supposedly the future...(inaudible)...time...

: The DNA in your highest Beingness functions in this manner, but it is actually comprised of 3 aspects:

1. Light
2. Sound and vibration (together)
3. The third aspect is less definable, but really refers to your ability to harness strands from your own past, present and future, and assimilate them at a higher degree of vibration.

We are aware that you are confused, and we will explain each aspect as simply as possible:

LIGHT, LIQUID LIGHT, PURE CONSCIOUSNESS: What you experience as light on Earth is but a fraction of what true light is; it is only a small by-product of pure light and pure light is complete and total consciousness.

The light that you experience in an average 3rd dimensional body once again is comprised of different aspects of Pure light:

- a) Actual rays: when you shine a light upon your hands, you will see its effect, it is the actual ray of the light.
- b) A level of energetic vibration: you will feel the heat of a bulb or a flame upon your hand.
- c) The unique and inherent energies that are passed on to the 3rd dimensional body. For example, you can sense the difference when you are bathed in the light of a natural bulb, an infra-red light, and sunlight.
- d) You also receive a level of wisdom and knowledge. The vibration within the light awakens your cells, opening you up to the wisdom and knowledge that already exists around you.

To use a simple earth example: If you want to increase your knowledge about a particular subject, you go onto your computer, do a search, thereby accessing the vast amounts of information that is stored in cyberspace. Upgraded light in your energetic DNA leads you to do the same with Universal Knowledge.

At the higher level, when light is absorbed by your vastness, the vastness responds to the light instantaneously, without the resistance of the physical body and the physical mind, and so 'instantaneous illumination' of Self takes place. It is not the light that illuminates you; it is the light energy that facilitates your illumination of Self.

Let us explain this in a very practical manner. When you see an actor upon the stage, standing in a spotlight, what is really happening? The actor is being illuminated, in pure physical terms, by the light. Due to the darkness around and the single spotlight upon that solitary actor, the entire audience is focused upon that actor.

The instant he receives that 'energetic attention and light', he is facilitated by your focus and attention, to shine brighter. His performance is instantly raised to a higher level. If that same actor was performing to an empty auditorium, he would not shine brightly. You, with your focus and attention, have facilitated him to shine brighter; it works exactly the same way in your vastness.

The Vastness, the Beingness, the Higher Soul is now receiving illumination from around the Universe, it is being bathed in new light, light that it has never experienced before and this light is provoking your Beingness, to reflect from within, aspects even your

Vastness did not know it had, so your own vastness is increasing in consciousness and your quotient of liquid light is expanding. Is this much clear?

Added to this now is SOUND AND VIBRATION and we take these together:

A physical cosmic shift is currently taking place in your Universe, one which is just being recognized by your Earth scientists, and this is releasing new rhythms and vibrations, which you are receiving.

Far, far away, there are seven suns (very much like your sun), which are in the process of exploding in a particular sequence, and these are naturally releasing vast amounts of energy. (For those of you who work with numerology, go ahead and study the significance of the number 7, as it applies to 2009.)

You are being indirectly affected by these new vibrations. . Now you will ask, is the vibration increasing the light in you Beingness OR is the light in your Beingness increasing the vibrations.....BOTH.....it is a chain reaction. Each one pushes the other to new levels.

This sound vibration is changing the 'energetic DNA' in your Beingness. New strands are being created in your own Higher Soul, along with an explosion of consciousness. This increased level of consciousness permits more strands to be created, and so on.

This process facilitates your processes of assimilating unresolved aspects of self. Your own higher consciousness is examining your every aspect of your present, your past, and your future, as well as your alternate realities, and says to Self, "Let's hurry up and examine what aspects of self I have not yet assimilated. Do I need to work on Intolerance? Victimhood? Injustice? Etc etc etc"

The higher beingness then instantly sends down rays to those various aspects of incarnated selves, permitting these issues to come to the fore, and offering an accelerated ability to those aspects of incarnated selves to assimilate them.

This is what is really happening right now. And that is why you are resisting your own Higher Beingness even more than you are the new Angelic Strands.

Now understand better what we have told you earlier this year. You have been told that new energies are carrying you 'down the rapids', that you must live in the moment, that you must make energetic choices, moment to moment, and commit to them fully. You have too, because the Higher Self is now directing into this incarnated Self, unresolved aspects of itself that it wishes to assimilate very, very rapidly.

Now here is some good news! This year, if you truly commit to the processes of assimilation of unresolved aspects of self, you can do it very quickly. Some aspects will only take you a few minutes, others a few days, and others longer. But what you resist will persist! And the 'rapids' will make the ride very bumpy for you, till you are forced to deal with it. It's YOUR CHOICE.

Group Member: I want to know if you are talking of this reality. There are other parts of you, maybe 143 other parts in different dimensions, does this higher Self brings all this together?

🌅: Eventually it will...but right now, we urge you to only concern yourself with your current incarnation. Of course your Higher Beingness has allocated various tasks of resolution to all other parts of you. Each part must only focus on his or her own tasks. Why worry about the others?

Group Member: I want you to define Consciousness...because this is about consciousness....

🌅: Let us help you understand consciousness in very practical Earth terms.

When a child is born, for a brief period of time he is, in effect, pure consciousness. That little child is in full connect with his highest Beingness, with the Masters, his guides and friends, and the previous families he had. At the same time, he is acclimatizing to his new Earth family, in complete joy. This little baby, who you see as so helpless, is in effect, pure consciousness. Why?

He is assimilating a host of 'new' experiences: sight, sound, touch, taste, and smell. The warmth of his mother's arms. Nourishment in the form of milk. A new family. A new world. A different existence.

And yet, this is perhaps one-hundredth of what he is actually experiencing. He is also experiencing every single one of these aspects as he has lived them before. He is also experiencing the aspect of being in Pure Spirit.

But the child has chosen an earthly incarnation, and to do that successfully, he has to slowly let go of his intimate ties with the spirit realm, and with his other incarnations. The small physical body hurts him, confines him, annoys him and restricts him.

A lot of the time, when a baby cries, he is saying, "This is so confining! I am not used to this! I want the freedom I am used to! Why am I 'stuck' in this physical body?"

But he has to acclimatize. And to do this, he must begin to draw down the 'veils of forgetfulness', and anchor his energies in this physical body. HE COULDN'T have remained in pure consciousness and simultaneously exist in the third dimension. Slowly the earthly brain takes over, and conditioning seeps in. He is now separating from pure consciousness.

We are aware this seems so futile to you. You will say, “Why separate in the first place, why not stay in that form of expanded consciousness?”.

Group Member: For experience....

🌅: For experience. For growth.

Sometimes it is necessary to wear blinkers! A horse, when given blinkers to wear, is not distracted by unnecessary sights and sounds around him, and is therefore able to concentrate on the road ahead of him.

Imagine, if you had, on earth, full knowledge of all your past incarnations and experiences! You would never be able to focus on the specific tasks you have chosen to work with, in the present.

Group Member: Does that expand the other consciousness further still....?..

🌅: Of course! And all of you are now graduate students, who are working on a very advanced course: how to bridge the gap between the Spirit and the Physical Realms, and yet remain on Earth.

So what is consciousness? It is a state of non-judgmental, non-critical, observation and awareness. IT IS JUST BEING. In every possible realm. Simultaneously. Everywhere and Nowhere.

Group Member: Is this why I am experiencing the ecstasy of Spirit and the agony of 3D? I am feeling like that...neither here nor there...torn between the two, and yet unable to unify them.

🌅: You are correct...just let it happen...experience it all.

So what is really going on in the Higher Soul? We've explained the technical aspect of what is taking place, but were you to see your Higher Soul as clearly as you see each other, what would you see?

You would see and experience, in Self, new colors, new vibration, new textures, a new level of expansion, a new sense of Self and the most important, you would truly KNOW that you have no limits.

This is mental concept to everyone in this room. There is not one person who truly experiences that, there is not one person, but at least you have begun to mentally understand this and you are teaching yourselves to live it through the experience of pushing your own boundaries, for example what you (the Group Member who asked the question) just explained....

Group Member: ...ecstasy of the vastness, and the Spirit and the expansion....

☀: and also the demand you made of the new energies and how they brought you into a new level of alignment. Each little victory spurs you on further to push your boundaries and believe in Self. Why does he (Sohrab) sit here and channel? Because he believes he can. Why don't you sit here and channel, because you don't believe you can. It is as simple as that. There is no other difference.

Group Member:....(inaudible)...change our reality....

☀: Precisely, and to change your reality, you cannot be bound by an old blueprint. You must live in the moment.

Group Member:...do we have a new blueprint or we have no blueprint...??

Group Member: which blueprint is changing?

☀: We are not going into the blueprint; we have been into it many times before. Let us just reiterate: you are now just creating, moment to moment.

Let us liken the blueprint to a house that you live in. You have lived in the same house all your life. Now you have decided to break down the walls, to build a new house, and to constantly re-decorate it, as you go along. You still need a dwelling. But you now have the power to change its appearance, style and décor, at will.

To get back to the topic at hand: Your vastness is expanding, changing, mutating and recreating itself very rapidly. This entire 'vastness' cannot be fitted into this physical body, but a large portion of it can. How?

YOU HAVE TO BELIEVE IT. YOU HAVE TO BELIEVE IN YOURSELF. IN YOUR POWER.

That's the secret. You have to acknowledge it, you have to believe it and you have to live it.

You cannot sit and draw it, as energy strands, from the Higher Self to Self. NO. That will not work. You can only acknowledge it and believe it. He (Sohrab) believes he can channel, that is why he is sitting in a room with 60 people in front of him. Did he resist this at first? Of course, for years. Now he has other areas of resistance, which you may or may not have. FLOW WITH YOURSELF.

Take a moment here, close your eyes and now ask Self to reveal another visual of Self, as you as you are, at this instant of the now. (Pause)

There were a few among you who did not get a visual of self, either time. We ask you to question yourself why you are so scared to see WHO YOU REALLY ARE?

Who would like to share the visuals they received when doing this exercise at the beginning of the meeting, and then again just now?

Group Member: The 1st time around I saw myself carrying a lot of burdens on my back and now I saw myself as an angel of light, with a star here, and huge, expanded wings of light.

☀️: (To the group) The burdened image she saw was NOT that of her higher beingness. That is always expanded. It was an image of her energetic burdens, which, from her perspective, were so vast they appeared to her as engulfing the entire beingness. NOW she has begun to see herself as she really is. It is still incomplete. Allow it to reveal itself to you over several days. Start believing that this is WHO YOU ARE NOW.

Group Member: 1st visual: an angel with lots of light at the back and the 2nd: only light.

☀️: Beautiful...beautiful....we will come back to you....

Group Member: 1st as a white horse charging ahead....2nd could not see anything....

☀️: You couldn't see anything, OR you could not describe what you saw? We beg to differ, we will come back to you...

Group Member: 1st time a 5 pointed star, and the 2nd time I saw different colors...cannot describe Shapes...made up of millions of stars....

☀️: anyone else?

Group Member: An orb the 1st time and an angel the 2nd time....

Group Member: 1st time a Banyan tree and the top of (inaudible) and 2nd there was light....

Group Member: Saw myself in a black hole....cannot understand...and a gold hole...

☀️: Remember we had spoken of the black hole within the white hole....

Group Member: 1st time an angel with a white gown and the 2nd time I saw a violet light, and an old church. I was like a fairy...

Group Member: (completely inaudible)...attached but detached....

Group Member: (inaudible)...and the 2nd time in a cage.....

👤: in a cage? How did that feel?

Group Member: Wanted to break the cage...very limited...

Group Member: 1st time I saw no actual figure and a peachy colored light and the 2nd...(?) and lemony yellow light....

Group Member: 1st got a word 'baboon'....and 2nd time I saw fire...red- orange...

👤: What does 'baboon' mean to you....?

Group Member: (inaudible)...aping others?

👤: This has nothing to do with the physical structure of a baboon. But your observation of 'aping' others is correct: you sought to learn from other, to grow energetically in 'leaps and bounds'.

You sought guidance, you sought a Master, and you sought the company of others, from whom you could learn and grow. You have now grown so much that you are beginning to acknowledge your own light, power, and vibrancy. 'Ape' was the only word you needed to take from the baboon image.

Group Member: From the baboon I got she is foolish not to see her own Self....

👤: Please say this again...'not to see her own Self'

Group Member: 1st time absolutely nothing...2nd time was a question mark and the arc of the question mark goes into the horse shoe....and the dot below is 'shoonya' .....

👤: Your 'nothingness' was not the inability to acknowledge yourself. It was the blank canvas....Beautiful!

Group Member: 1st time I saw a mountain peak covered with stone...2nd time a fire raging, really raging...

👤: Wonderful! We will speak to the group of your images, dear friend.

The barren mountain top was, in fact, a wonderful visual for you. There was an acceptance, an inherent acceptance of your loftiness, your ability to reach the stars, your ability to stand firm, no matter what. Nothing can shake a mountain. But the visual was barren, empty, and unable to be energetically productive: life's experiences had laid you bare.

The new visual for the both of you is the same. The raging fire is the most beautiful visual you could possibly have got for Self. (This does not apply to everyone in the room, it applies to them). It signifies your complete surrender to the new, your desire to expunge all that you were, to burn it to the ground and to rise like the phoenix from the ashes.

Understand that your Higher Beingness has shown you where you really are today. Go with it, go with it in your own way, whether it is to open out to new ideas and possibilities, to attend a meeting, to listen, to share information, to exchange your knowledge with others, to be the best person you can be, to have faith in your power and your Self, whatever it is you wish, that is the new aspect of you that is coming to the fore. Let it emerge. The phoenix is about to rise from the ashes.

We cannot speak of each person individually, but we need to point out a trend here. As we said when we began, of course your physical higher soul does not have an actual form or shape, but your consciousness will give you an indication of how you feel about your Beingness at any moment in time for e.g. at a time when you are deeply resistant to who you are, you may see the form of a disgusting alien, in other words you feel 'alienated' from Who You Really Are.

The Angelic form that has been a repeated theme in this room, is you pointing out to yourself your vibrancy, your light, your purity, your ability to rise above and look at the bigger picture, your ability to transcend time and space, your ability to create miracles for Self and others, your ability to be 'an angel' in every form.

Another trend that you will have noticed is that often, in the 2nd visualization, people did not receive an actual form, but viewed Self as pure light, and pure energy. This is simply because, at this moment in time, you don't need a form, you are content seeing yourself in pure energy without putting a form to it, to translate those energies to this 3rd dimensional form.

Now this does not mean that those who received a form the 2nd time around are lagging behind, not at all, they received a form for a very specific reason and they need to question what the energy of that form was telling them in this moment in time.

For those of you, who received an either a blank canvas or a question mark or undefined, expanded energies, know that you are so open to Self, and to the new creation of Self that you are working on.

The Black hole and the White hole are 2 aspects of yourself, you are already familiar with your own Kali Ma energies, facilitating the absorption of 'so-called' negativity. Now you have got to the point where you are able to absorb it, and transmute it through the white hole, which only reflects it back to the Universe in a new and upgraded form. It is also the perfect balance of matter and anti matter.

Group Member: Inaudible)

👉: Dear Friend, this is not a 'failure' on your part. Let us talk of this, as the answer applies to others in the room as well.

Your ultimate quest in this incarnation is the WHO AM I. You have no idea who you are and you are searching, as are many others in this room and on this planet, for a better knowledge and understanding of Self. The WHO AM I.

Most human beings are on this journey, but it is not necessarily the focus of their journey. In your case, it is.

Every time you listen to another's opinion of your thoughts, actions, beliefs, and behaviour, you take it in indiscriminately. So if someone says 'you are stupid', you begin to feel stupid. If someone says 'you are brilliant' you begin to say 'am I brilliant'.

Please do not take this as criticism; it is a structure that you have chosen for certain evolutionary purposes. You have worked at this for a long time, and have come into a sense of self to a much greater degree than before, but from time to time, you slip back into old patterns, where you need others to validate you, rather than finding validation from within.

We thank you for having had the courage to express this publicly: there are many in this room who share this issue, and needed to hear this.

Here is a little 'homework' you can do, if you so choose. Spend a few days asking Self to give you a daily visual of Who You Are Right Now. Do this in different ways: sometimes while meditating, sometimes while involved in a daily activity, or while sitting in a car.

Self WILL reveal to you how MAGNIFICENT you really are. You will probably doubt and resist your visuals, but persevere. You will begin to see YOU.

Group Member: If 2008 has...(inaudible)... 2009 create a new illusion, is it still 3rd density or...?

👉: (laughing)...At the beginning of this year you were all handed the proverbial blank canvas and like little children, you are now sitting cross legged in front of it with open pots of paint and brushes strewn around you, ready to have a lot of fun! But this canvas is a little different to an Earth canvas, as it has dimensionality added to it. So each time you dip your paint brush into a certain aspect of paint and make a stroke on this canvas, you are offering yourself an opportunity to follow that path.

Sometimes it will seem very random, sometimes it will seem impetuous, sometimes it will seem rash, sometimes it will seem foolish, but we tell you here and now, this year you are all going to be abstract painters. You cannot paint with form and color, with perfect lines, outlines and definitions, you cannot paint by squares and numbers, you have to sometimes dip your fingers into the paint and smear it around. Sometimes you have to pick up the pots of paint and throw it at the canvas. Live your life king-size! Risk! Dare! Venture out! Take the unexplored path!

Group Member: Suppose we don't want to paint? Do we yet expand?

🌅: If you don't paint, is your own Beingness will go into a state of complete and utter boredom. Not boredom as you know it, but a sense of stagnation and ennui will begin to creep in, which will lead to deeper and deeper levels of depression.

You have to paint. Why? Because YOU have enrolled in the Art Class! So have fun with it, and paint the most glorious abstract work of art, with dimension and texture, color, light and vibration. One paint box is pure experience, one paint box is inter-dimensionality, one color is risk, one color confusion, one color experience, one color circumstance, and so on.

Be the most daring, exciting, vibrant painter you can be. Do not try to emulate a Picasso, do not try to emulate a Raja Ravi Verma, find out Who You Are, so that your canvasses get the highest bidding at the next cosmic auction! (laughing)

Group Member: ...My daughter-in-law has being doing this for the last 2/3 years, exactly as you've said, literally...yet she never wants to put her name to her canvasses. Why?

🌅: We have spoken about this to her privately, we will only reveal those aspects that are not private.

Her daughter-in-law paints exactly as was just mentioned. Her connection with Self is in full flow when she 'outpours' onto her canvasses. She literally cannot stop. She uses, intuitively, the perfect combination of her own energies and the energies of the person who is going to buy her paintings, even when she consciously does not know who they are going to be.

So you will only buy a painting from her when you have energetically contracted to receive those energies in your home. With the correct energies, at the correct time.

There are several reasons why she refuses to sign her paintings. One is deep conditioning on her part of unworthiness and that is an aspect she has been urged to look at. She was given 'an easy way out' by a certain Master, in a certain session, where she was offered the option of creating and using a symbol, instead of her actual signature, but even this she resists.

If she continues to resist this year, she will find her path rocky. There will come a phase where her inspiration begins to constrict, where her paintings do not have the demand they have right now, and through that process she will begin to question Self and then make her future choices.

Do not warn her of this. It must come naturally.

Group Member: In one of Ellaeenah's channeling we were told as vision expands...there are certain energies given to us, that will enhance those expanded visions, later on a one on one session I was told that they were metallic sound like energies, is this what's been given to us.

🔸: Let us say this is a 'first cousin' energy. Very similar...

Group Member: When will those come?

🔸: When the time is right....No, you are not incorrect, these are closely linked with those...part of these spill over into that area, but not completely...

Group Member: Is the Who Am I quest similar/different from What Am I?

🔸: How you all love to play with words! This is a difficult one to answer, as even the statement Who Am I, is different for each individual. Each person's quest is slightly different. So in some cases, the Who Am I could include the What Am I or the Where Am I, but the overall umbrella statement is Who Am I, as it includes all these aspects within it.

Let us tell you, here and now, you will never find out Who You Are in this incarnation. Never. If you could touch every aspect of Who You Really Are, you would not be able to contain it in your physical bodies.

But your quest is to push your boundaries, and to experience as much of the Who Am I, in this physical form, as is possible. So once again, each person's journey is unique to them and there is no comparison with another's quest.

It may interest you to know that different Masters experienced different aspects of the Who Am I, when they were on planet Earth. This has been briefly spoken of before, but we will refresh your memories:

The Satya Sai Baba's quest for the Who Am I used two major aspects to explore it: corruption, and sexual energies. Now for those in this room who are pure devotees, this is not a blasphemous statement, it is a statement of pure light, as the Master himself did not see these aspects as negative. He saw them as magnificent tools for growth and expansion, and he focused upon these 2 in his personal quest for the Who Am I.

The Sai Baba, the one who is so revered, loved, and adored by most of you, explored the Who Am I predominantly through one human aspect: lack of Self Worth. Once again, you may say, a blasphemous statement, but what a learning tool he chose!

Our question to you is: do you have the courage he had, to hold the position and the energies he had on planet Earth, and still experience this, at the same time?

The Jesus' Who Am I came from his attempt to unite the 'split personality' within Self, what you would term 'schizophrenia.' His final union of the holy trinity (body, mind and soul) only came during his last few seconds on earth.

It takes great courage to be so powerful, to wield such a high level of energies, and to still explore the 'inadequacies' of Self. Do you have that?

We leave you now, in Joy, Love, Light and Expansion...
