Diwali Blessings from the Collective Energies

[The meeting took place on Dhanteras, the day before Diwali. Several group members had, prior to the meeting, discussed their recent shopping trips.]

Trance Channeling begins

🌈 - You spoke of shopping: here is our gift to you. Anyone and every one on this planet who celebrates this particular festival and has shopped or will shop in imbalance, will cause utter, total and complete energetic imbalances in all aspects of their lives: their wealth, their abundance, their home, their emotional lives, their spiritual lives, their areas of pleasure and recreation.... In all aspects of self.

All those who have shopped or will shop in joy, balance and abundance, will only generate those aspects for self.

Group Member:— Is this the balance between need and greed?

🌈 - Yes. However, everyone's need is not the same.

Group Member: — Yes, I agree you have to know yourself, and use your own discrimination.

Group Member: — And if we haven't shopped?

🌈 – (laughing) Have you not, indeed? You may not have shopped physically, but many in this room have shopped for sympathy. Shopped for compliments and flattery. Shopped for emotional strokes.

Others have shopped for personal growth. Shopped for knowledge and wisdom. Shopped for expansion.

So you had better take a good, hard look at the shopping you have done in the last five days, as this energy has been in full force for the last five physical days and will continue, at full force, for the next 21 days.

Be careful how you shop, what you buy, how you buy it, and how joyous you are when you both give and receive.

This is our gift to you!

Group Member: – Exactly what I wrote today. When I made today's list of the name – I only write the date every time, but today, I have written 'A Gift from Goddess Laxmi, to all of us' – on Dhanteras, you got a chance to do Rahu clearance, what better gift could you have got?

🌈 – Do you have questions for the Laxmi Energy?

Group Member: – Tell us about it, please?

🌈 – (laughing) Now, this question she just asked: did she shop in balance?

(All laugh)

Group Member: – Yes! In balance.

🌈 – Yes, indeed. You want to go on a 'shopping spree' with this question, not only for self, but also for the benefit of this collective group. You thought of self first (as it should be!) and of the group.

Group Member: – Thank you!

🌈 – You are correct when you say the Laxmi Energies go beyond wealth. The Laxmi Energies, first of all, do not 'belong' to Planet Earth. They certainly do not 'belong' to one community called the Hindus, they are highly, highly cosmic energies, and only certain strands of this cosmic collective have been absorbed and indeed drawn to Earth, over several centuries.

Every time a festival occurs on earth, a new set of strands, in an upgraded combination, are added to the core energies of that festival. This is based on the current collective consciousness of the Planet and her inhabitants. The core strands remain the same. In this case, the core strands deal with the acknowledgment and generation of abundance.

This year, the upgraded Laxmi energies include the gift of understanding cosmic unity: not living it, not preaching it, not even experiencing it, only understanding it...level one.

Look at yourselves: you have spent a lot of time attending meetings, reading, discussing interesting subjects with friends, examining self in detail, working to upgrade yourselves....all of this will be boosted by the Laxmi flow this year.

If you choose to merge with these energies, you will find a new sense of self emerging. You will understand and appreciate your own energies, vibrations, abilities, and abundance better. How can you begin to understand Cosmic Unity, if you are not united with self first?

We urge you, dear friends, whether or not you consciously celebrate this festival, to simply rejoice and merge with these energies. What do you have to do? Just acknowledge they are there for you and open to them: that is all.

The Laxmi energies this year will also stand no nonsense.

That is why we began with the 'shopping' example. If you physically shop, this year, out of a sense of obligation to friends or relatives, or to show the world how much you can afford, or to fill an emotional void in your lives, you will cause chaos in self.

The gifts will not be appreciated by others, you will find yourselves in financially hard times, and the inner sense of emptiness will simply increase.

But if you shift focus and do your shopping in joy and abundance, with a genuine desire to share your plentitude, in a budget that suits you, your personal abundance will only increase.

The new Laxmi energies, this year, are also working very strongly with the medical profession. Those who are either actively involved, or even indirectly involved with the medical profession, have the opportunity to grow very rapidly, if they so choose.

They can expand their consciousness, reach into their intuitive abilities to push their boundaries, come up with new and unique methods of treating the sick and ailing, access and apply new scientific knowledge, and work with a perfect blend of the spiritual and the practical.

However, the 'no-nonsense' aspect of the same energies will adversely affect those in the profession who choose to remain stuck, dull and trapped in outmoded practices. Particularly those who refuse to acknowledge the 'humanity' of their patients, but instead treat them like impersonal medical experiments.

These kinds of practitioners will find their client base diminishing rapidly, their finances depleting, their self-confidence being undermined, and the evident lack of faith of the world in them will force them to question self and their approach.

For all, resistance is futile! Learn to go with the flow!

This needs to be addressed for a few moments: what is resistance? The physical body, as you well know, constantly resists change. But you have a wonderful tool - the mind. This allows you the ability to comprehend, grow, assimilate knowledge, develop self, understand, shift focus and CHOOSE what you wish to do with self.

What use are your years of training, self-search and the quest for knowledge, if you do not demand of self why you have created these situations? If you do not learn from the self-created situations? The Laxmi energies are a great friend: they help you demand this of yourselves.

Now, although we have spoken of the medical profession, each one of you has the medical profession within you. This also refers to your own ability to work on self and on others; the ability you have to bring body, mind and soul into harmony; and indeed also refers to your relationship with your own physical body.

You have a direct 'medical' relationship with your own 'temple'. You can adjust, balance and align that magnificent living, breathing mechanism; you can learn to be responsible for the flow of oxygen, heat, light, vibration and energies that are your divine birthright.

Your 'medical profession' also refers to your personal ability to assess your needs and the needs of others. To counsel, to guide, to lend a sympathetic ear and a helping hand to others.

So don't dismiss this statement lightly. For those of you who do not take care of your personal physical structure this year - beware. This does not mean you have to diet yourself down to an improbable size, this does not mean you have to overtax yourself with vigorous exercise that does not please you, it only means you now must listen to the call of the body and respond accordingly.

This is the last time we are going to make this statement: it has been made time and again this year, and yet most of you choose to ignore it. Now beware. If you do not take on this responsibility, you will cause trauma in the physical body.

BLESSINGS FROM THE LAXMI COLLECTIVE.

[Sohrab continues channeling]

With your permission we will guide you to a brief, but potent, exercise. This is not a meditation: we do not want you to 'go into a zone'. In fact, we want you to be very present, very present with self. So please do not 'drift off'.

Take a moment and centre: just breathe naturally and normally and get into as comfortable a position as you can.

Let us take a look at the abundance of your own physical body.

Turn your attention to your eyes. Actively appreciate them. Their ability to see colour, light, texture, and interpret body language. Through them, your ability to enjoy a magnificent sunset, a soul-stirring book, and a hilarious film. They permit you to see the smile on a loved ones face and the frown on a strict teacher's brow.

Know that these eyes do not just see the physical. They help you interpret the unspoken, the subtle, the sub-text. These eyes are also part of the inner eye, the window of the psyche and the psychic. They help you look into the past. Into past existences. They contain subtle energies in their structure that permit you to dream; yet they permit you to see, with clarity, what you are, what you have been, and what you can be. Bless the wealth of your own eyes.

Turn your attention now to your palms, fingers, and fingertips.

Look at them. Touch them, caress them, and bless them. These help you touch, sense and understand who you are, and who others are. They can help you feed self and clothe self. They can discipline others, and arouse others. They can count your money! They can heal self and others.

They contain within them the vibration of many lifetimes: within these palms are the energies of all those you have caressed over lifetimes, of all those you have tended to over lifetimes, of all those you have fed over life times, of all those you have slapped over lifetimes. All contained within these palms.

Now turn your attention to your tailbone. Bless it, for its munificence in your life. The tailbone, in the physical human form, is a repository of billions and trillions of energetic neurons. It is from the tailbone that you receive messages, vibration, guidance, personality traits, inclinations, desires, expansion, knowledge, and wisdom. Bless and appreciate your tailbone.

Breathe and turn your attention to your navel. The navel is your 'personal black hole'; it is that which connects you to every aspect of the cosmos. It is in the navel that you contain identical energies to external black holes and, as you well know, every black hole in the universe which absorbs is surrounded by a corresponding white hole which reflects outwards. So, when a black hole absorbs knowledge or wisdom, it gets merged with who you are, your personal processes, your personal growth, and it gets reflected back into the universe through the surrounding white hole. Bless the navel for being this magnificent conduit for you.

Friends, you may take this exercise further on your own. Scan your bodies, work upon any part, any organ, and find out for self what its energetic function is. Explore the wealth, the abundance, the Laxmi, within.

BLESSINGS, JOY, LOVE AND LIGHT FROM THE KRYON.

BLESSINGS, JOY, LOVE AND LIGHT FROM THE CHRIST OFFICE.

BLESSINGS, VIBRATIONS, AND EXPANSION FROM THE RA.

YOU ARE EMBRACED IN THE LIGHT OF THE MEHER BABA.

THE KRISHNA CONSCIOUSNESS BLESSES YOU.

THE ASHTAAR COLLECTIVE GREETES YOU.

(To a group member) Stand up...come forward....stand at the center, facing the group, bless them with the energies of Mother Earth.

Group Member: – I'll happily do it.

🌈— Now, equally happily, you will ALSO bless them with your own energies - DO NOT HESITATE!

Group Member: – (facing the group) We've already received blessings in abundance today from so many Master energies and I add to that: BLESSINGS from Gaya and from Myself. BE IN JOY AND IN ABUNDANCE ALWAYS.

🌈— Well done!! - SAI KA PRANAM!!

The Sai Energies join with the Laxmi Energies at this particular time in this particular festival. The Sai add their cosmic wisdom to the Laxmi abundance. However, in a desire to help you break old patterns, if you attempt, during this festival, to access the Sai Energies by holding in your mind the Earthly image you are all familiar with, you will not receive them. If you can go beyond the Earthly image you have of the Sai, and can access His cosmic wisdom and exuberance, then you will receive them.

Now each of you sitting where you are will wholeheartedly welcome and bless this group. You will not get up from where you are, but you will energetically embrace every member of this group, knowing that you are worth it.

If you are not worth it, do not do it. Now into this collective pool of energies, you will place anyone you wish to embrace and enlighten. Yes, you may certainly place within it your entire planet.

AND SO IT IS, AND SO IT IS, AND SO IT IS.

BLESSINGS!!
