THE BEHRAM YEZAD,
ARCHANGEL MICHAEL THE HANUMAN
ASPECTS OF THE OSHO
Channeled by Sohrab

Using the Energies of the Behram Yezad & Earth Impulses and Personality Shifts & Nations and their Collective Energies

[Prior to the meeting, a Group Member shares with the group the miraculous escape her son recently had from a fatal car accident. Sohrab then goes into a trance, and beckons the Group Member and her friend to come to him]

Trance Channeling begins

GREETINGS FROM THE BEHRAM YEZAD! Let us share our radiance with this entire room....join in the energies & spread them to all. (Both Group Members raise their hands, as shown, and work with the group. One of them begins sobbing uncontrollably)

☀️: And who do you think pulled him out of the car? At his own request? (Zenobia crying...Sohrab patting her on her back)...Open the heart....(patting the Group Member.....both of them sobbing).....Now spread the light...now spread the light.....to all....

Group Member: [crying] I thanked everybody....i didn't thank Behram Yezad...

☀️: Hahahahahaha....(laughing loud).....Blessings.....you (to Jenny) know us...as The Archangel Michael.....the same....

Group Member: Are you Hanuman as well?

☀️: [nods] (To the Group Member) Share this with him. He is under our protection....as are you....it was the Behram Yezad energies, directed by the Behram Yezad through you, that brought him back. This was accomplished by the fullness of your own energies.

Tell him to work with our energies joyously, not religiously: to enjoy the Behram Yezad flowing through him. To use the energies as a celebration of life. He must use them in every aspect of this existence, especially during 'musti'. (Laughing)

[To the concerned Group Member] USE THE POWER! You hold it....you must use it! Share this with others, offer it, work with it, bless others with it, heal others with it, nurture all with it....it is time to start! How long are we going to keep knocking at your door?? ENJOY the energies! They are to be freely used, not hoarded.
(To both Group Members) Please discuss this: you both hold a very high frequency of the Behram Yezad energies. If you talk to each other about this, you will better understand them, and yourselves.

Draw upon these energies for the cleansing of your homes....draw these [To another Group Member]...draw these (Group Member)

Let us bless the child..... (To a Group Member who is pregnant) COME FORWARD!

[To the first two Group Members] We require your services once again. We cannot touch the child directly.

[One of them is asked to place her hands on Geetika's lower back. The other on Geetika's pregnant stomach. Sohrab places his hands between the shoulder blades of the two Group Members. An energy circuit is formed.]

[Pause] It is done!

[Addressing the group] You may now use the collective energies generated here for all those whom you wish to bless today: you may heal them, offer them love and light, or offer them containment. Mention their names out loud.

Now invite these friends' energies to enter this space. Begin to raise your personal vibrations: visualize them expanding outward, bright golden light, merging with the energies of the Behram Yezad. Embrace the magnificent souls whom you have invited here today.

[The group does so, and chants OM]

You will now turn your attention to your own body. Draw the Behram Yezad energies into any part or parts that you intuit require energizing.....Now command that your entire lymphatic system be energizedcommand that your meridians be opened & aligned, so that these energies flow freely & expand.....now draw them into any area in the body that is either diseased or in discomfort.....blast these areas with the Behram Yezad energies.....now turn your attention to any discordant situation that you are involved with & fill the situation with these energies...fill your homes with these energies....fill your families with these energies.....now take these energies, consciously, into the brain, the pituitary and pineal glands, in the 3rd eye area.....Use these energies now to enliven or enlighten any object, jewelry or stone that you wish, whether it is in this room or at home.....now spread these energies smoothly throughout your country.....spread them to the core centre of Mother Gaia. It is done. And so it is. So it is. So it is.

BLESSINGS, JOY, LOVE & LIGHT FROM THE BEHRAM YEZAD, THE ARCHANGEL MICHAEL, &THE HANUMAN.

🔥 You must both (the first two Group Members) now work 'hands on'. Sometimes publicly, sometimes personally: not just with human beings, but with animals, nature, minerals, homes, & so on. You contain the Behram Yezad energies. You have the responsibility to use them for Self & for all around you. No more hoarding!

Welcome friends.....this is an exciting month for you. Earth is in a transitional phase & you are all on 'internal holiday'. Certain events have taken place upto the month of May; this is a period of rest, recuperation & restructure, before you take the course of your personal lives & collective lives on a new journey, starting June.

Take an inner holiday. It does not matter if whether you are officially on vacation or not, it does not matter if you are sitting at home, at work or a beach; take an 'inner' holiday.

Consider yourself on inner vacation. Enjoy it; find new ways to relax into it. Expand your horizons & above all..... BREATHE....not just physically but please be aware of the 'inner breath.' JUST RELAX.

New course changes will take place in your lives starting June; some of you will make dramatic changes, others minor course corrections, but nothing is going to be as it was in April.

Group Member: (?) April was awful....so is it now...switch (?)

🔥: It is not a question of April being 'awful' & June being 'wonderful'It is about course correction & about how you choose, as this child did, to change an event or series of events in your life.

There is a solar phenomenon taking place right now. The Sun is changing the frequency of its core vibration. Energetic impulses are thereby being generated and emitted in all directions.

Some of these impulses will cause flaming comets and other celestial objects to move around the Universe. Others will simply be released in the form of pure energetic impulses or waves.

Earth Impulses causing personality shifts

These waves are now hitting planet Earth in a rhythmic manner, but at an accelerated pace. This naturally affects the core center of earth. This has already been noted by your scientists, but they are not sure how or why this is happening.

With an infusion of new solar energies, vast shifts are now being added to those already taking place at Earth's core center. To the existent earth movements, earth impulses are now being added, which emanate outwards, and naturally affect the energetic impulses in your bodies as well.

Now this means that you are not only changing the frequency of the vibrations of your cells, but also the impulses within it. This is likely to cause interesting shifts in personality.

Now this does not mean you are all going to become 'Jekyll & Hyde', not at all; but you will find, if you observe self closely over the next 2 or 3 months, new desires, shifts & interesting changes taking place.

Someone who is perennially messy may suddenly shift and become very neat. Certain foods, for example, which you previously enjoyed, may suddenly become distasteful to self. Other such behavioral patterns, desires and belief structures are likely to shift.

You will find a 'new you' emerging: ENJOY IT! You are all actors on the stage of life, exploring yet another version of self. In doing this, you are releasing old energies trapped within the cellular structure, and allowing for the new version to emerge.

Group Member: Every time I take a nap or after a deep sleep, I feel I emerge a different person...

: When you wake up, you are, at that moment, very much 'in tune' with the new frequencies and impulses reverberating in your cellular structure. But then, as your daily routine begins, you 'slow down' to a certain familiar degree.

In effect, you are all constantly going through these 'growth loops', but each time the loop returns to a point further along the line than its inception. Rather like a chain stitch.

We have been speaking of impulses: let us explain this more clearly. An impulse comes about from a rhythmic frequency. Imagine a pot beginning to boil. The boiling action is the frequency of the water. But the bubbles that burst from the surface are the impulses being released, as a result of the boiling water.

These impulses are the most deep-rooted aspect of your cellular structure: they could be buried memories or experiences from lifetimes ago, which have no apparent relevance to your current life & are yet being released through this process.

Group Member: So we just have to go with the flow....

: Exactly: a boiling pot cannot 'hold back' steam. You have to let it arise & emanate outwards.

Let us illustrate this with an example. A person may have been intensely creative over lifetimes; but has chosen to work, this time around, in a practical, business-like manner, for growth purposes. He may suddenly find an unfamiliar creative side emerging, which is intensely puzzling. Rather than resist it, he needs instead to simply add the 'new' creative flavour to his business-like approach to life.

Those of you who are extremely resistant to science or mathematics may find this changing...go with the flow!

Nations and their energy structure

Group Member: Sohrab spoke briefly of the economy before the meeting began, and discussed the PIIGS situation....could you please elaborate on this?

: We have spoken last time of the energetic rift opening up, over Africa. Europe is particularly resistant to this shift of energies, at this moment in time. This comes from impulses being 'held back' over generations.

Two things are currently happening in Europe, to deliberately jolt their cellular rigidity: Volcanic activity, and another mini-recession.

Europeans, though very international in sensibility, have a cellular rigidity which differs to that of the Americans, and the Far East. Theirs comes from centuries of 'breeding': family status, appearance, decorum, presentation of self, and beliefs, all of which rule supreme. Their collective ideology, which is based on lineage, position in society, their artistic and cultural history/superiority and aristocracy, defines their 'worthiness'.

These concepts are now being smashed. This does not mean that Europe is going to collapse: it is not. But it is being vigorously shaken up. They are being urged to look beyond facades, and touch their humanity.

Group Member: Many of us haven't been well in April: I certainly wasn't. I believe there was a release taking place. Were we resisting this, or were our bodies simply adjusting to the release?

☀️: In some cases there was resistance, and in others simply adjustment. Dear friend, you are not a good example of 'the norm'! You know this. You were releasing and simultaneously undergoing a 'transfusion' of new extra-terrestrial energies. Your cells went into trauma, as they were resisting this infusion.

Group Member: And yet, I feel a new 'balance' within self. This has happened over the last week or so. Is this because I have accepted the energies?

☀️: Ask the group to check your energies right now: are they any different to what they knew of you a month ago?

Group Member: (to the group) I am all yours!

Group Member: A softer person....more open to others....

Group Member: Shining...effervescent...vibrating....energies are new...how they are going to be expressed.....(?)...express in June onwards... very very new.....

Group Member: Peace emanating from within....

Group Member: Thank you....

☀️: Can't you see her three extra arms? (All laugh)

Group Member: Come what may, you will be able to handle everything in the future....

☀️: We were not joking about '3 extra arms': but they are not physical.

Group Member: The fall that my mother had: was that a release of some kind?

☀️; Yes! She required 'energetic shattering'. Her structure has shifted, and now she is attempting to reconstruct self. She is having difficulty with this: she needs to find a new way to do this.

Group Member: As opposed to the European continent, how will it manifest in the Americas? Canada? India?

🔥: The new impulses in the financial market have now been initiated through Europe. Europe is currently sending out energy tentacles to the financial markets around the world.

America is already reeling from the prior crash: they are, in general, more cautious now & have developed the ability to look inward. Their spendthrift culture has been shattered. They are learning to be more observant of their personal expenditure and finances, and are learning to live in a more balanced manner, without either hoarding, or excessively extending their credit limits.

There are still areas of great imbalance within America, in terms of financial attitudes; these are being reviewed right now on a higher conscious level & the energies that the Obama & the Osama are offering America are invaluable for this reviewal. You can expect, over the course of this coming year, a few jolts in the American marketplace: a couple of highly explosive & very attractive offers arising for investment, possibly even the discovery of new minerals, that will offer them the opportunity, once again, for abundance.

At the same time, the Illuminati will, once again, attempt to strangle free enterprise. However, it is unlikely that the Illuminati will be successful at this attempt, as the overall pioneering Spirit of America is likely to triumph.

Do not forget that they are pioneers at core! The energies of the Declaration of Independence, their ability to face hardship valiantly and to triumph through self-endeavor, will serve them well.

India is still in turmoil. This country is a mixture of polar opposites. Enterprise, endeavor and sheer brain power on one hand; and greed, corruption and separation on the other.

You have been told that India's root issue is Separation: till this is reviewed and addressed on a wider level, it is unlikely that India will 'take off' in the manner you wish.

There are, for example, going to be new, pioneering inventions and discoveries in the fields of science and technology. But till you start to view yourselves as a collective, and take responsibility for all your citizens, without ignoring the starving, illiterate populace, you cannot truly enter your second golden age.

Group Member: Can this only be only achieved through 'a crash'? Or can this happen without that?

🔥: Absolutely: a crash is never 'necessary', unless the energies are totally blocked.

India, in general, does not have totally blocked energies. But they are scattered, due to energetic irresponsibility.

Group Member: (inaudible) England...government....balance...?

👉: England, as you have observed over centuries, has also been very elitist. She has drawn to herself this vast influx of immigrants to learn tolerance and homogeneity. She also needed to learn 'to feel'. To experience 'unity'.

So, in general, with the opening of the energetic rift over Africa (which we spoke of last meeting), Europe is examining 'appearances'; America is 'looking inward', and India is attempting to 'streamline her energies'.

You also need to know that the countries are working on this now...they may use the energies of the rift to work on other issues in the future.

Canada is temporarily 'resting', but she has energies that continually 'fountain outward', spreading their fragrance throughout planet Earth. She offers the world integrity, foresight, and unity. She has a deep respect for self and for her inhabitants.

Group Member: Have the greed levels changed in the human collective consciousness?

👉: They still tend to fluctuate, dear friend. The graph is a seesaw: you expand, pull yourselves back, and expand again. But the variations are less than they were before.

Group Member: (inaudible)...change in the religious flavour...bigotry...growth ...can we survive without religion?

👉: That is a question only humanity can answer. Is it possible? It would make for a very healthy and expansive society indeed. Could you? Your call.

But humanity's rigid concepts of religion are already being challenged and shifted. The new energetic impulses are already bringing bigotry and extremism to the surface for reviewal.

Many are undergoing extremely violent experiences in this area: they are shifting the old frequencies that relate to prior life habits and patterns; aspects that may well relate to their participation in events like the French revolution or the Spanish Inquisition. That is why there currently seems to be an 'irrational rise' in religious-based violence.

Group Member: I read today of a plane crash in which all, save a child, died. Did he make a choice to survive, in the same that our Group Members's son did?

👉: Of course he did, and, as a matter of interest, it was a 'last minute' choice that he made. All on the aircraft who died had chosen to experience a rigorous death-experience for differing growth reasons. The child shifted his choice at the last minute, as he self-assessed that he wasn't completely ready to assimilate the experience. It is likely that he will choose another violent ending at a later date.

Group Member: So many children seem to be dying violently in China every week...why is this?

🌅: There can never be a simple answer to a question like this, dear friend. At one level, the souls have all chosen this form of exit for personal growth reasons.

Some have come to complete experiences on earth for only a brief period. Some have chosen to jolt their blocked energies in this manner. Others have chosen this at the last minute, as it is deemed appropriate to them at that instant in time.

Generally speaking China, over time, has chosen to disregard the inner child. They have ignored the potency, the vitality, the very existence of this aspect of self. This needs to be examined and reviewed. They need to revisit aspects of self that give them joy, youth, vitality, the ability to laugh, the ability to express, to play, and to FEEL. They need to break free of facades: those that are self-imposed, and those imposed by a regimented society.

Group Member:: Are souls like Jesus, Mohammed, and other religious heads affected/bothered by the heinous various acts carried out, in their names, and in the name of their religion? Do they receive an energetic transfer from this?

🌅: There is no Master or energetic beingness that wishes to be misrepresented or misinterpreted. They have offered their truths to every beingness in the Universe as a guideline; and they do experience an 'energetic sadness' when they observe retardation instead of growth. But they are expanded enough to understand that from this bigotry and violence can come growth.

Group Member: Is it true that prophet Mohammed is on Earth to rectify what is going on in Islam?

🌅: Haven't all of you observed, in these meetings alone, the number of times the Mohammed energies have recently been present, and addressed you personally?

These energies are extremely potent right now: they are highly cosmic, multi-dimensional energies, and are indeed flooding planet Earth right now.

Those who choose to hold 80% or more of these in their personal structures could be deemed 'incarnations' of the prophet. Many, many hold this level. Many do not even belong to this official religion on earth, and yet contain this intensity of these energies. You do. Yet you do not proclaim yourself to be the incarnation of the Mohammed.

There are many such Mohammeds and St. Germaines and Behram Yezads alive and well on earth!

This is not the era for a single Jesus or Mohammed or Buddha to stand up and address the world; it is the time for ALL OF YOU to acknowledge your combination energies, your power and your divinity.

All of you contain those levels of energies: it is simply you who do not recognize or acknowledge the Master that you are.
