The Shiv Energies Working with the Shiv Light

[The verdict on the Ayodhya issue was to be announced that day. The group was taken through a special meditation for it.]

Trance channeling begins

■ You will all imagine the energetic city of Ayodhya around you....infuse this with pure golden light, so that every building, every monument, every object begins to vibrate with this light.....

Now, visualize yourselves as Golden beings, walking the streets of the golden city of Ayodhya. Light workers, each and every one of you; and as you walk through the streets, you are spreading your light joyously, without expectation, without any desire for gratitude, appreciation or acknowledgment; but just because you desire to do so....

Increase the intensity of your light, till it becomes blinding....dazzling...

Now direct the golden light that you are generating to the situation at hand, without attempting to influence the outcome in any way. Simply blast the situation with pure golden light.....

Visualize the situation 'coming to a boil'....but 'a boil' of golden light....

Now flood you city of Bombay with this golden light, from top to bottom....bring it to a boil as well....

Now flood your homes with the light, and everyone and everything in your homes...

Now flood any other spaces that you choose, such as your offices, subsidiary homes, the homes of friends and loved ones.....

Now visualize the energies of the Golden Ayodhya descending upon the current Ayodhya, so that the two merge completely: the ancient and the modern, reverberating in full union....

Now flood the ocean around your city with the same golden light, and bring them to a boil as well....

Lastly, turn your attention to the chakras directly above the crown chakra, and infuse these floating chakras with this golden light. Activate them. Activate as many as you intuit that are ready for this activation....

AND SO IT IS, AND SO IT IS, AND SO IT IS.

Now return to full consciousness, but do not lose this magnificent connection, as you are still required to work...

[To a member,] Child, lie down on the floor, directly above the steps. This will only take a few moments, after which you may return to your seat. You will open your energies to the group.

[To the group] Please work on this child, as directed.

The group is once again required to unite...experience your collective golden energy. Begin to throb with this magnificent light. Now forcibly fill this child's womb, hara, solar plexus and base chakra with your light....do not try to calm, soothe or heal her...BLAST her with this light, NOW....[pause]

Now chant 9 forceful OMs as you continue to work... [The group does so]

Now, if you wish to offer light or healing to any friends or others, including Planet Earth, you may internally chant their names as you blast them with your golden light.

Now direct this vibrant golden light into self....begin to expand joyously....

Allow yourselves to expand even further.....gently allowing the golden vibration within self to spread outward....float joyously in this expanded golden light....

AND SO IT IS, AND SO IT IS AND SO IT IS.

Gently, very gently, return to full consciousness.

Welcome, Golden Ones!

If you could only see yourselves through our eyes, you would understand what we mean. The light you are emitting right now is energetically blinding! If you could fully trust this for even a few milli-seconds, you would be able to transform self and the world, in an instant!

It may interest you to know that every single person sitting in this room today has been or will be (though there is no past or future) a leader of a large group of people; offering them guidance, direction and the benefit of his or her experience.

Some of you have even experienced leadership of a country; others have spear-headed major events that needed to take place. Some have influenced groups of young souls, and others have influenced streams of energy such as science, medicine and the arts.

Each one, sitting here, has been a maverick leader, a ground-breaker, and a path-finder. You may have no conscious recollection of this, but that does not matter. It is important for you to know this, at this moment in time, as you will be called upon in this current lifetime, to further guide or influence groups of people.

As we speak, we can feel a few energies seizing up in fear...no, nothing will take place in a manner that is not pleasing to you. But when the time is right, a certain group of people will require your guidance, and you will know it. At that time, simply do or say what comes naturally and intuitively to you. Do not shy away from it; but instead joyously embrace the opportunity, knowing that it is perfect for you.

For those of you who already work with vast client base, you may be called upon to work in a different manner, or with a different set of people. It may have nothing to do with your current stream of work.

You were all brought together today, not only to work for others, as you just did, but also to be infused personally with the golden light, to allow your future mission to unfold.

Each one of you has the right, the divine right, to harness and wield the Shiv Energies at will. Today you absorbed and disseminated the Shiv light flawlessly, and that earns you the right to use it permanently.

Some of you may continue to work with it in the traditional manner, by viewing the Shiv, as you know Him, from your personal Hindu perspective. Others who have no seeming connection with Shiv may utilize and use His light, purely from the energy perspective. Either is completely acceptable.

But we warn you: when you work with the Shiv Light, you cannot be tentative.

When you direct it outward, once it leaves your energetic sphere, you then cannot hold it back. You cannot ask it to flow gently, or to calm someone down; in fact you cannot give it any instructions at all, as it is highly sentient, and will work as it deems fit.

When you work with the Shiv energy, you have to be in a state of mindlessness, without desire, and without expectation. You have to trust in its pure consciousness. You have the right to open and close the floodgates, but not to control or direct the flow of energy. If you attempt to do so, it will backfire on you and not on the recipient; and you will be left in energetic disarray.

Joyously flood anyone, anything, any situation, and any event with the Shiv Light from now on: you are all keepers of this light.

Group Member: What do you mean by 'tentative'?

It is very common for a healer to decide, using his mind, that person 'A' only needs a gentle dose of the energy, as he is 'too weak' to take more; that person "B" needs to be blasted with the light, as she is resisting a shift; or that person "C" is so highly evolved that she does not need the energy at all.

If self 'gets the urge' to use the Shiv light on a certain person or situation, then direct it outward immediately, and mindlessly. Do not attempt to heal or cure or destroy: the energy will do so as required. Your only discretion, when using this energy, is when to open the floodgates, and when to close them. That is all.

If the energies need to calm down a situation, then they will; and if they need to stir up events, then they will. You cannot judge them, or self. Use them when urged by self to do so; that is all.

Now, do you recall, many sessions ago, that we spoke of an energy city existing concurrently with this current city? Many of you here were present at that meeting. We now joyously announce that that energy city has forged a full brother-sister energetic relationship with your city.

What does this mean? Energetically, both are now in union. Some of you, who are energetically alert, may experience 'daydreams' or flashes of this. You may actually glimpse a parallel city around you. You may look at an empty road but, for a second, see 'others' walking the street.

Open yourselves to this: the energy city is very powerful, and desires to aid the sister city with her growth and evolution. She (your city) desires now to rapidly release her debris and blocks.

Expect to now read and hear about newer and newer 'scandals', which will be brought to light, and aspects of greed and corruption to be made very public.

These will be provoked by the energies of the brother city; and as they arise, the brother city will help infuse the area or situation with the energies of courage and responsibility.

This is a good time for any of you to choose to fight injustice: if you have been putting off that court case or police complaint for a long time, this is the time to take the initiative. If you wish to clean out your 'energy home', shift things around, take action, take risks, separate with your husband or wife, unite with your husband or wife....this is the time to do it. If you wish to address issues you have continually buried, this is the time to do it. Use the Shiv Light!

Group Member: I have been feeling, like Ram did, that my 'exile of 14 years' is now over, and that I am about to start a new phase of my life. Can you tell me something about this?

Dear friend, we do not answer personal questions in a public meeting, unless they pertain to all in the room. However, you have been on an 'energetic voyage' and have worked hard at expanding your light, your boundaries and your vision. You have discarded many aspects of the 'old self', and are indeed moving rapidly into the 'new you'. Now enjoy the new vibration. Do not revert to the old patterns and structures. If you find this happening, question self on the spot, and make a course change. Now you are ready to work instantly, as the moment arises.

Group Member: How long with the Shiv Energies be around?

Dear one, the Shiv energies have always been and will always be. You have now collectively reached an energetic level where we are offering you the opportunity to wield them at a higher frequency than you did before. As you continue to evolve, you will keep getting higher levels of Shiv Energy with which to work, if you so choose. But they always have, and always will, flow through all of you.

Group Member: Can we use them to solve personal issues?

You can use them for anything and everything. But do not fix outcomes. If, for example, your child is about to appear for an examination, do not attempt to direct the energy to 'help him get a better score'. Just direct them, that is all.

Group Member: Will this brother energy city take care of our city?

Not at all! 'Taking care' implies dependency. The brother city has come to support your city through her processes. He will offer guidance, energetic support and the embrace of love, but no element of dependency will be fostered.

Your city already has a dependency issue. And when a city or space had this issue, it follows that many of its inhabitants also have that. The brother city will help your city (and you) learn to energetically empower self.

Group Member: Would you also say that people who feel alienated from the Source start to get over-dependent, even psychotic?

■ We cannot generalize, but many do. (Laughing) Why not change the energy, the meaning of the word 'alienation'? Now shift it to mean "experiencing a joyous rapport with Aliens".

But the alienation that you speak of implies a severing of personal energies from Divine energies: this is rarely chosen from purposes of growth.

A person may choose to sever their connection with certain energies, for personal growth, but the moment he does do so, he will instantly open up another energetic channel to support himself through this process.

For example, is a person wishes to grow through 'a tyrannical father'; he will simultaneously open up a channel with, say, a loving school-teacher. A balance is always offered to self, by self.

Group Member: Have the five forces come together? The Lost tribes, the Pandavas and the Kauravas, Ram and Ravan, and so on?

■ This is an energetically a very potent time for unification. Many, many 'forces' are now uniting, in newer and newer combinations, for the current growth of humanity. These new unions contain merged elements of creating, preservation and destruction: that is precisely what is being revealed to you today.

You now cannot view the Shiv energy as a single one: it contains a unification of the Sai, the Ashtaar, the Meher, the Jesus and Everything that Is and Is Not.

The little talk given by him (Sohrab) at the beginning of the meeting was deliberately provoked. (Sohrab has spoken to the group of the simultaneous existence of different aspects of self in the Now.) Most of you are now working with at least five aspects of self, from different existences, in the Now. The number 5 is currently very potent.

Group Member: So does that mean we are working with 5 aspects of the inner child as well?

■ (Laughing) Indeed! The inner 'family' grows more and more extensive as well, and there are now lots of 'family squabbles' and also moments of 'family unity'!

So, for those of you, who think that your work with your inner child is over, think again! Go back, revisit your newly merged inner child, and discover self anew.
