Santa Clauz

A new energy portal

Trance Channeling begins

■ Did Santa Claus really exist?

The concept of a Santa Claus, or the equivalent thereof, has existed in many societies, and in many eras.

There was, for example, a similar figure in the Atlantean era: a great energy master who was able to harness crystalline energy, combine them with the rays of the sun, and offer society the use of anti-gravity vehicles. This 'gift' to society was considered, at that time, unparalleled.

There was a similar figure closer to home: an energy master from Mohenjo-Daro; a magnificent architect, town-planner, mathematician, and physicist, who combined his unique talents to offer the city its first waste- disposal system...an equally precious and invaluable gift to society.

An ancient Egyptian "Santa Claus" was a great astronomer who devised the original combination of the angles and degrees required to create the pyramids that you know today. His calculations offered society the ability to 'regenerate'.

These specific calculations have been lost over time; when you re-discover them, you will be able to use this magnificent structure in many different ways. They were able to use this structure to cure diseased people, regenerate damaged organs and tissue and, in come cases, reverse the aging process.

The Universal concept of the Santa Claus is based on the desire to give joyously to all, without strings attached. The desire to give and to share with others, from the fullness of self.

A true giver cannot do so, unless he is full from within. Please remember this when you play the Santa Claus. You do this all the time, when you offer a friend counsel, advice, a sympathetic ear, the gift of healing, a loving hug or indeed a physical gift.

Please ensure that when you do, this comes from a space of fullness, and not one of need; otherwise you set up an energetic cycle of lack between self and the recipient, which you term 'karma'.

Questions about the Santa Claus, before we move further?

Group Member: What is his connection with St. Nicholas?

🌅 He is simply the current view of Santa Claus: he did work from the fullness of self. He embodied the collective energies of all Santa Clauses in existence, as you do, when you play the same role, and give of yourself from the fullness of Self.

Study the image of the Santa Claus: his large size is simply a representation of his fullness; the colour red that he wears symbolizes his power and his exuberance; the white trimming on his clothes represents purity and focus of purpose; and the ringing of the bell on his cap (and the sleigh bells) is a declaration of the God within Self. In different societies, he is said to live in either the North Pole or the South Pole: these are spaces of great energetic resonance for earth, and represent her chakric extremities.

Suggestion: I would just advise everyone to see a beautiful movie called "The Polar Express": though it is intended for children, it is really for everyone.

Dear friends, the period between this Christmas and New Year is one of great energetic intensity. During this period, Earth is going to release a plethora of unified, ancient energies from deep within self; each with an upgraded twist.

For example, ancient Egyptian energies of wisdom and knowledge are surfacing; certain aspects of the ancient Atlantean crystalline beds are re-activating; Inca and Mesopotamian energies are also re-surfacing; and so on. The individuation is unimportant; you are required to focus upon the collective.

These energies are joining forces and releasing starting Christmas day: they will emanate directly from the core centre of Planet Earth, and it will be released through conduits all around the planet, simultaneously. The predominant conduits will be powerful mountain ranges, but other minor conduits will be rifts and other sensitive areas around Planet Earth. Once again, the individuated locations are unimportant; focus instead on the unified energy grid that they are creating.

By the night of the 25th, this new grid will be in place and fully active. This grid will offer Earth and all her inhabitants the opportunity to 'leap forward' energetically, as any choice of pace. Now you know about this, consciously choose to use it. The others who do not know of it consciously will still experience an 'inner rush', a 'quickening' of self.

These energies will bring to the surface old, trapped issues, which have previously been ignored. It will serve those in particular who have a core issue of “Don’t Feel”; offering them the opportunity to bring to the surface this issue of lifetimes.

For those of you who are perhaps more ‘in flow’ with what is taking place around and within self, we suggest you ride this cushion of vibration as if you were riding a magic carpet.

Literally visualize yourself floating upon this grid, this vortex, and allow yourself to bring up whatever needs to be examined at this moment in time. You may find a single issue surfacing, or several. Either way, please do not resist them. If you do, you will find yourself tumbling head over heels. These energies are so potent; it is like putting your finger into a plug socket.

Please also do not expect to be traumatized: some will experience a new sense of wonderment and an appreciation of the magnificence of self. Just flow with whatever surfaces.

This is a brief but potent window of opportunity; so do not miss out on it. These energies will of course continue throughout 2011, but their main thrust will be felt between Christmas and the New Year.

Each and every one of you sitting here today needed to hear this: play with these energies, enjoy them, and ride on the magic carpet of your own magnificence. Fearlessly and joyously face Who You Are.

You may share this information with those whom you intuit will benefit from it.

Questions?

Group Member: In other words, is it is a gift?

 In other words, it is a gift. The Santa Claus within self is offering this gift to self. There are always energy shifts and changes that take place, moment to moment, dear friends, but this particular grid is unique. Its magnitude matches the evolution of Planet Earth, and offers her and all her kingdoms the opportunity to leap forward at an accelerated pace. You have drawn to self the opportunity for complete transformation: physical, mental, emotional and spiritual. What a magnificent gift the Santa Claus of Self has offered you!

Group Member: Is this in some way connected with the Rainbow energies that are going to be experienced by us next year?

Indeed this is! When you speak of a rainbow, you imply a unified merger of all colours known to man. This grid is a union between a variety of frequencies and vibrations, offering you the opportunity to move into a new sense of self.

Group Member: Will these energies be coming in from the 25th to the 31st, or just on the 25th?

These energies are 'brewing' right now. The grid will be in place and fully functional by the end of the 25th. The vibration of the grid will be at its peak frequency between the 25th and the 31st. After that, the work will continue throughout 2011, but at a steadier and gentler frequency. We are simply offering you the opportunity to 'ride the wave'.

Group Member: Is it considered 'ascension'?

Indeed, dear friend. Every single energetic upgrade experienced by planet Earth and her inhabitants is a further step towards ascension.

Now, simultaneously, a Universal Portal of great magnitude is opening up; one so large that that the whole of planet Earth is going to move through it. The new grid that we have just spoken of is simply Earth's way of generating enough 'energetic rocket power' to propel her, and all her inhabitants, through it.

This multi-dimensional portal will offer Earth the opportunity to get in touch with all her alternative selves. Therefore, after she enters it, all of you will be able to seamlessly tap into other aspects of self that are in existence but that have hitherto been a mystery to you.

This doesn't mean every human being will be flooded with information, but you will have the opportunity to examine any aspect of a concurrent self that you choose. And by the way, this does not only apply to the human race, but to all of earth's kingdoms. It is likely that the other kingdoms will avail of this at an accelerated rate: they do not 'resist change' as you do.

Animals, for example, will do this seamlessly. They will suddenly find themselves connected with all aspects of self. Notice the change in your pets at home after the 1st: you will find a great leap in their consciousness.

The mineral kingdom will move the quickest: it already vibrates, as you well know, at the highest frequency of all the earthly kingdoms. With this leap in consciousness, they are totally recreating self: now each mineral will start working as a collective.

An amethyst, for example, will now retain her old properties and also take on the properties of various other minerals. In some cases, physical appearance may also change. Very few minerals will remain as they were all this time.

They will begin this multi-tasking, having taken on multi-dimensional aspects of self, immediately; please do not be fooled by their appearance. Work with them in their new avatar. This shift will be complete by the end of December 31st.

Please do pass on this information to all who work with crystals, either directly or indirectly.

Similarly, the Atlantean crystalline bed, which is also recreating self, will begin to generate a new, unified pulse starting January 1st, which will be experienced by all on Earth. But we will speak of that, in detail, later.

Group Member: How do we 'tap into the energy' of the grid?

 We now cannot offer you a 'standard procedure' to follow: each person has reached a level of personal energies that are so high, and so unique, that he will have to touch his power, and discover his own way of doing so.

Some may do this in meditation, others will simply use 'intent', yet others will physically experience the 'magic carpet': it is upto you to find what works for you, and to trust that you are connected with the flow around you.

This brings us to a point that was being discussed prior to this meeting (pointing to a sitter): the difference between 'belief' and 'knowing'.

A belief is generally a structure you have been taught, and one that you live by. You imbibe this structure from your parents, friends, school, or society. You can also bring a belief forward in your cellular structure, from a past unassimilated experience. In other words, if your unassimilated strand is that of victimhood, you might incarnate with a cellular belief that 'all women are subservient'.

You convert belief into knowledge through experience. You work with your beliefs, undergo experiences and reach a certain inner knowingness. This is rarely completed in a lifetime: each time you journey further towards this inner knowledge, replacing one belief structure for another, more rarified one; till you finally arrive at a deep inner certainty. A knowingness of Who You Are.

Consciousness is beyond belief and beyond knowingness, it just is. Because consciousness does not differentiate between good or bad, what's right or wrong, 'what fits with me' and 'what does not fit with me': it embraces all and just IS.

Now, to return to our discussion about the new portal: There is no singular Master energy guiding Earth through this portal, but a unified conglomeration of all consciousness. This naturally includes your energies, planet Earth's energies, and the energies of all possible Masters you have heard of, and many that you haven't.

Are you now beginning to comprehend the magnificence of the era in which you live? Use this magnificent 'soup' energy, dear friends: use it joyously and consciously, every moment of the day.

A suggestion to all of you who are currently celebrating the Christmas season, whether in church or at home: view this year's celebration as a Universal one. Of course the Christ office will guide this festival, but do not discount the other Universal energies that abound as well. See it in its magnificent oneness of all!

Group Member: Where is the portal?

■ The portal has no physical space or form, dear friend. It is comprised of various energies being drawn towards planet Earth; they are simply 'approaching her' from different directions, and different dimensions; swirling around her and within her, and taking her where she desires to go.

Let us leave you today in JOY, LOVE, LIGHT AND in the CELEBRATION OF WHO YOU ARE.

Let today's celebration (referring to the Christmas party following the meeting) be one of the Celebration of Who you Are. With each mouthful, declare "I am God".

BLESSINGS FROM THE UNIVERSAL LOGOS.
