

28th April 2011
THE SATYA SAI
Channeled by Sohrab

The Passing Away of the Satya Sai Baba

[Please note: He had passed over 5 days prior to this channeling]

Trance Channeling begins..

Greetings from the one you call The Satya Sai.

Today you will understand what I was speaking about in the last session, when you asked, "Are you going to exit Earth or not?"

I haven't, and yet I am not in my physical body any more. Instead of shredding the physical body and returning, as is the norm, through a tunnel of light and back into the ether, I chose instead to scatter my energies, willfully and of choice, around planet earth, intermingling with every single human being, animal, plant, mineral, and so on.

There is now a tiny, energetic 'grain of me' in each and every one of you. This had to be requested of you, as no one has the right to invade another's space: yet not a single aspect refused me admittance.

I have chosen to merge my consciousness with every aspect on planet earth for a very specific reason, which I will now explain.

Every time I have incarnated, I have always been in touch with my extended energies. I have always been aware of the physical, of its experiences and its lessons; and at the same time, conversant with my extended energies.

Through this current process of intermingling with all aspects of planet Earth, I am offering them all the opportunity, using my energetic seed, to do the same for self.

Through this implant, you now have this ability; and in energetic exchange, you offer me your experiences, wisdom, knowledge, expansion and vastness, for my personal growth and evolution. Through this beautiful energy exchange, we both benefit.

So, in effect, I am 'still on earth', and in many ways I am still in physical embodiment: yours. In fact, I am now experiencing the union of the physical and the spirit realm to an even greater degree than before.

I am now a collective: a collective based on you. You and you and you (pointing to various people in the room) and I are now 'We'! It is impossible to put into words the joy I am experiencing through this merger!

All those who have chosen to move into spirit form, shedding their earthly bodies, during the last three weeks, are a very active part of my energy structure. They have chosen to use my energies to 'ride upon', to make their passage perfect for self.

All major world events that have taken place during this time; have used my energies to facilitate their occurrence as well.

Though my energies have been invited to merge with all, some will use them immediately; others at a later date; and yet others in a future lifetime. All is as it should be, so please do not judge another for his choice.

Come: (indicating Sarj) stand up here, speak out your truth, and share with the world what you have to say. Do not be afraid of others' opinions or being ridiculed; it is time now to activate your throat chakra and speak fearlessly – no more hiding – you are ready – blessing from Sai --- he has blessed you personally, and in public, for personal reasons, not for acknowledgement; so that you, in your weaker moments, will remember this and derive strength from it. This is said to you, in front of all these witnesses. Go in peace.

(Sarj now shared with the group a personal reason why this had just taken place)

Questions?

Group Member: I noticed that, when you passed on, a lot of people celebrated the event joyously. I was so amazed at that. I also notice that now a lot of ordinary people use words like 'energy'. Have your energies created all of this? How do I touch this in my beingness?

My energy 'implant' in humankind has acted as an 'energetic vitamin injection.' It is upto you to store these energies, or to use them. Many are working with this at a higher conscious level; others at a conscious level.

It may interest you to know that most of those who are joyously using my energetic boost right now, are those who were my most severe critics on Earth. They reviled me and ridiculed me. Yet it is my joy to share this with them; even more so than it is with you. Not because I want to say "I told you so!", but because, through this, they will begin to understand who I was, and why they were resisting that aspect within self.

It is now time to refresh your memory about my earthly experiences. Thought I have spoken of this before, many here were not in attendance.

Each incarnated Master has a parallel mission: an Earth mission, and a personal growth mission as well.

My personal growth mission was to touch my power and to examine my imbalances of power, through the mediums of money and sex. I do not say this in any shame, I declare this joyously and proudly, as these are two aspects I chose, as teachers for self.

Every one of you has a set of 'teacher circumstances' that you learnt from; these were my choices. They were not thrust upon me, they were not my weaknesses: they were my choices of teachers.

I enrolled in the 'school' that offered me the teacher of money and the teacher of sex; and yes, from your perspective, many times I went out of balance in these two areas, attempting to raise my energies through them or through the manipulation of them.

Using these two aspects, I would reach an 'energy crescendo' which was artificial. I would then crash, and would then attempt to raise my vibrations once more through an imbalance of money and sex, and once again I would crash.

But each time I followed this path of a trough and a crest, I would grow in stature: each time I fell, I would not fall as far as I had the previous time, and each time I rose up, I rose up further than I ever have before. (Here Sohrab visually draws, in the air, a 'rise and fall' graph).

What does this remind you of? The cardiogram! It is the heartbeat of experience; and at the point where all is assimilated and embraced, you begin to flatline: then there is no more need for the physical experience, and you shed the body. Instant transmutation.

I share this with all of you, quite deliberately, as there is not one in this room who is not ashamed of aspects of self.

Use my energies to help you overcome your shame. Cosmic shame is very prevalent on Planet Earth: it is the collective shame you carry forward through lifetimes. Although it is a great teacher; it is, in itself, one of the most useless aspects to carry around endlessly.

Start to assimilate it and free yourselves from shame. Start to transmute the shame into an understanding and an assimilation of the experience that you have chosen. It is just a 'study course', and one that you should be proud of.

Now, you have asked how you can best use my energies: Just know that they are there. The energetic merger has already taken place; the 'sugar has already sweetened the tea'; so it is flowing through you. Just know that.

Now, do not use this as an excuse to once again 'give away your power' to me. We are one. We are merged. Do not view these energies from any religious perspective; experience them as pure energy.

Now once again I need to remind you of some information that was given to you years ago; where it was said that a new 'sheath of consciousness' had been installed around planet Earth; between the Ionosphere and the Exosphere.

This is a band of liquid light; pure consciousness. It is your divine right to 'tap into it' for your intellectual, physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual evolution. It is like a massive computer bank; yours to use at will.

Connect with it at all times; use it! It may interest you to know that he (Sohrab) now uses this for all his channelings. Does this mean that the Masters' energies are not speaking? Of course they are; but you are being urged to use this zone, as it combines your power with all power in existence.

The only block you face is your lack of faith in self. If you declare "I can't do it", then you slam the door shut. But the intent of "I can" acts as the key to the combination.

Group Member: Why do you call it 'cosmic shame'?

There is a form of what you call "shame" prevalent in every part of the Universe: in every society and in every beingness. It may not be shame as you know it, but it comprises of aspects of the I AM NOT.

For example, the average human experiences, during his lifetime, between 75% to 90% of the I AM NOT, and only 10% to 25% of the I AM. Another Universal being may only experience 10% of the I AM NOT, but he still does experience that, and is moving towards total assimilation of self.

You are so facile with shame: you create instant shame in your looks, your family, your background, your educational qualifications, your position in society, and so on. In fact, you are very powerful with shame!

Now another Universal being may not be able to extend this shame into so many areas of his life; but he still may experience the I AM NOT by, perhaps, comparing his Universal knowledge with another, more advanced being.

So why does cosmic shame exist? It must! Without it, you would all be so smug and content with your existence, that you would not be provoked to search and grow.

That is why we say it is a great teacher; it is meant to spur you onto personal expansion. But on earth, you tend to use it as a form of self-paralysis: you freeze self with shame. That defeats the purpose of this learning tool.

Group Member: Why have you chosen to give us this merger with yourself? To provoke us to move into the 5th dimension?

It was a growth choice, made by the collective consciousness of Planet Earth. It is no coincidence that I made the transition on Easter Sunday. I rode the energies of death and re-birth.

Look back on that particular day. You will find that there was a moment in time that you felt a sudden 'rush': that was when you accepted my energetic merger. Each one did it at his or her own 'perfect time'. My energies were joyously encircling the planet, till every drop of them was absorbed. Nothing was wasted.

So I actually have to thank all of you for my smooth passage: it was an exquisite experience.

Group Member: During your lifetime on earth, you were known for your powers to manifest ash and other objects from your palms. Why did you do this? Were you able to reach between dimensions?

When I was in balance, I was able to manipulate energy and molecules: it came very easily to me. When I was out of balance, I did this out of ego, or to prove a point.

It is not the act that is important, but the energy behind the act. And let me declare that, in or out of balance, it was a joyous experience: all is perfect.

Group Member: This aspect of conversion: was it converting energy to matter?

I never saw it as energy vs matter. I perceived it as aspects of differing vibrations; and I had the ability to align my energies with many different vibrations.

I even had the ability to 'walk through a wall'. How? I would simply focus upon the vibration of the bricks, align my energies with them, and move through them. I could hold a burning object in my hands and not get burnt. I would simply increase the vibrations of my palms to match those of the fire.

You can learn to do this too: try her exercise (Pratima had offered the group a small manifestation exercise, prior to the meeting)

Group Member: I remember seeing you, years ago, turning water into oil. I was a child then, and I remember speaking out aloud, asking you to turn the entire lake into oil, so that India's oil problems could be solved! And just a few days ago I was speaking to my husband, saying that we all have limits: I realize now that we actually don't! Thank you for pointing that out!

Dear friend, it is through such comments that you learn and grow; so take a moment and thank yourself for the comment you made to your husband! Without that, and other such comments, you would not be who you are today.

Dear friends, I do not wish to be revered as a Master or as an external source of energy anymore. I urge you to start releasing your earthly image of me. You may use it as a trigger if you wish, but then let it go, and simply experience the internal merger that has already taken place. Experience it as a joyous amalgamation of Universal energies: yours and mine. We are not together.

BLESSINGS, JOY, LOVE AND LIGHT FROM THE UNIFIED ENERGIES OF THE SAI AND THE YOU.
