THE GANESH ENERGIES
THE TRANSMUTATION OF THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS

Trance Channeling begins

 We spoke, last week, of the new Ganesh Energies and of the 'energetic wormholes' that are now being accessed by you, to assimilate varying aspects of self.

Now, on this first and glorious day of the Ganesh festivities, let us speak of how these energies are going to work for you at a very earthly level; and how, if you so choose, you can use the energies to your benefit.

Each one has, within self, a series of energetic compartments, which are necessary for your day-to-day functioning, your growth and your evolution. You have, for example, one for love, another for relationships, a third for business and finance, and so on. Each one deals with an aspect of your daily life. You have, within self, thousands of such compartments.

Now you may wonder why we are using the word 'compartment', when you know very well that all energies flow freely throughout the physical body: of course they do, yet these are general areas in which they are housed, and from which the energies originate.

Some may correspond to chakric points: the 'love compartment' is likely to be housed in the heart area, and the 'business compartment' is likely to be situated near the brain; but these do vary from person to person, and from time to time.

Now some of these compartments are relatively open, and flow free with energies; and others are not. If you have, for example, had difficulties with receiving and expressing love over lifetimes, this compartment is likely to be blocked, and it begins to atrophy. With a constriction of energies in this area, you are likely to experience both emotional and physical discomfort in the area that corresponds to the compartment. This often leads to diseases as well.

This year, the Ganesh Energies are going to enter the physical structure of every single human being on planet Earth and start to blast open the blocked areas. This is going to happen, as a series of energetic blasts, over a 12-day period.

Where you are already 'flowing', you will only experience enhancement of the area. If you are already flowing with love, you will experience it at a new and expanded level, and feel wonderful. But if you are blocked in that area, your concepts of lack of receiving and giving love will only intensify, till you turn your attention to that area and start to consciously release it, by working on it. You will be literally forced to review all love issues in your life.

All of this will be initiated over this 12-day period, but it will naturally continue far beyond it.

Now let us remind you of a prior session, in which we spoke about the concept of 'sin'. We asked you to perceive it as a sign "SIGN", being given by Self to self, and when you remove the 'G', which is the Godliness aspect, it becomes a SIN.

In other words, there is no 'absolute' sin. One man's sin is another man's perfection. You only 'sin' when you don't listen to what self is guiding you to do.

This is being re-visited, as during the current Ganesh period, the 7 Deadly Sins are being brought up for evaluation and transmutation. Not eradication, but transmutation.

Give us one of the sins:

Greed.

Greed – Is a desire to hoard, to accumulate any aspect of life, be it food, money, possessions or people, which comes from complete lack. A greedy person is one who has no sense of abundance.

This is being transmuted into a declaration to self and to the Universe that you are fully abundant in all areas, and that it is your divine right to be healthy, wealthy and emotionally fulfilled.

Both actions could be viewed as greed, but they are not. It is not the action that is important, but the energy behind the action. The first is a sin; the second, a sign.

In the second case, the person is declaring to the Universe: "I am absolutely ready, in the fullness of Self, to welcome abundance and enjoy it in my life. It is my divine right to be physically, emotionally and spiritually rich!"

So, if you are currently 'sinfully' greedy, this aspect will be flushed out for reviewal. You will have the opportunity to transmute it into abundance.

Welcome all forms of wealth into your lives, but don't attempt to hoard them. Allow wealth to joyously flow in and out, like your breath. On a practical level, for example, secure your future; but don't hoard for the future.

Let us take another sin.

Sloth.

Sloth – This is the most prevalent, worldwide. Laziness is a symptom, not a root cause. Laziness is paralysis caused by fear. You don't believe that you are worth it, that you can do it, that you deserve it: therefore you don't attempt it.

The opportunity is to move into a space of self-worth. To truly believe that you are deserving of the opportunity at hand.

Can you speak to us of guilt and lust?

 We have spoken of Guilt, at great length, in the past. Guilt is simply an alarm clock: it tells you that you are coming to the edge of a boundary of your own creation. All of you live within a set of rules, a set of morals, a set of ideals, a set of beliefs that you have set up; and the guilt very correctly arises, urging you to either remain within the boundary, or to extend the boundary itself.

However, when you cross the boundary without extending it, you then get 'plagued by guilt', as the alarm clock keeps ringing non-stop.

Let us understand this with an example. Many women in your country are raised with the belief system that physical relations with a man, before marriage, are not acceptable. Now, when this kind of adolescent girl gets intimate with a boyfriend, she experiences guilt.

The guilt is meant to draw her attention to this boundary, and to offer her the opportunity to review it. If she wishes to remain within it, she should not go any further. But if she wishes to change it, she should; and then proceed, guilt-free.

Guilt offers you the opportunity to review your codes, ethics and boundaries; and to decide whether they are yours in the first place; and if so, what you wish to do with them.

So why wasn't it considered a sin?

It was the Church's most valuable tool, along with shame, to keep people in check, and to force them to conform to the dictates of those in charge. It was a perfect tool of control.

However, on a personal level, both guilt and shame are very valuable attributes. If you were totally free of them, you would, in a fit of anger, stab your opponent without thought or remorse. Also, without them, you would never be urged to question self, and therefore you would not grow.

Lust is generally associated with an excessive, uninhibited sexual appetite; but what it really refers to is 'energetic hunger'.

This kind of energetic hunger, in balance, is desirable and laudable. You are meant to search, grow, and constantly work with higher and higher energies, at an increasing pace. Through your search for more knowledge and wisdom, we sincerely hope that you will continue to be 'lustful'!

But in imbalance, an overdose of these energies can increase the imbalanced ego, and can urge you towards greed and arrogance. The current Ganesh energies, therefore, offer you the opportunity to continue to be 'lustful', but in perfect harmony with self.

Adultery?

Adultery simply means 'being unfaithful to self'. Unfaithful to who you are. Unfaithful to the very clear instructions and urgings that you give yourself. The Ganesh energies offer you the opportunity to start listening to self.

Dear friends, many will exit the planet during this 12-days period. Some may even bring forward their exit points, to coincide with the rush of energies they will receive, if they use this period. If they do, they can transmute personal energies at an accelerated pace.

Those of you who are still on planet Earth are choosing to 'die from within' and be 'reborn', while retaining the physical form. You are also working on reviewing personal issues, and transmuting them at a very rapid pace.

The work will continue far beyond this period, but we do urge you to at least start it before the Ganesh festivities are over.

How will Mother Earth use these energies?

Mother Gaia is using them in a very similar manner. Though she works on multiple levels, she is predominantly using them for Self.

She is in the process of reviewing her natural body (not her inhabitants, but herself). She is re-examining her soil, water, oil, and other such compositional elements; and is using the Ganesh energies to shift at a subterranean level. Many of these shifts are deep, physical ones, which you may not even feel at the surface initially.

She is actually changing compositional aspects of self: this is highly complex and she has chosen to do it in reverence to Self. She understands and embraces her magnificence and her divinity.

From her perspective, some of her 'compartments' are the various races that she contains: she will also permit the Ganesh energies to shift these, according to her plan. There are likely to be shifts in the tectonic plates in the near future, along with various eruptions and explosions. Do not hold these back; facilitate them.

She is also working with aspects of Self, in conjunction with universal entities: other planets, stars, and societies. In short, she is using the Ganesh energies to their fullest potential.

How is the collective consciousness of the human race using these energies?

 We regret to say there is still major resistance. This 12-day period is very crucial to the evolution of your planet and all her inhabitants.

This should be considered a divine period: one in which opportunities for introspection, shifts, and realignment are being offered to all, at an intensified rate.

Just look around you: many who have not done sufficient work on self are being severely jolted right now. Their long-suppressed issues are arising with great force. These are now hard to ignore, or to brush aside.

Use this time period wisely. Remember, the path of the Rainbow Warrior is an individual one: groups will, of course, continue to band together for strength, companionship and support; but the focus has to be within self. It is time for self-evaluation by self alone.

JOY, LOVE, LIGHT AND THE BLESSINGS OF THE GANESH COLLECTIVE.

(Sohrab changes energies)

Greetings from the Ashtaar Command!

We are very present right now: see us, feel us and experience us. Many of our ships and our members are currently circling your Planet.

Dear friends, please use this month for Self!

No matter what your 'schedule' is for the month; please pay attention to the needs and urgings of Self. Self will guide your very clearly, and with great precision, if only you listen.

Remember that the veils between realms are very thin right now; experience your visiting friends and your loved ones on a daily basis. Talk to them. Listen to them. Laugh, play and have an inner holiday. Experience the joy of Self!

BLESSINGS, JOY, LOVE AND LIGHT FROM THE BROTHER JOSEPH; FROM THE MOTHER MARY AND FROM THE CHRIST OFFICE.

BLESSINGS FROM THE GUARDIAN SPIRIT OF THE GROUP: Yes, I am an entity, much like an Archangel. I am comprised of strands of your energies; therefore I am truly you, and you are me. Blessings!
