THE ENERGIES OF 21.12
INTER-DIMENSIONAL TRAVELLERS AND MESSENGERS
THE NEW CRYSTALLINE GRID

Trance Channelling begins

 Today you need to be very aware of your own energies.

First, connect with the primary layer within and around you. Acknowledge your mood: don't attempt to change it; simply acknowledge it. (Pause)

Now go to the next layer, that which is beyond earthly emotions. Simply observe this layer. You will experience shades of light and differing vibrations. Discover this layer. (Pause)

Now go even beyond this layer, to pure expansion. You may choose to give this colour and texture, but it will be extremely expanded. Enjoy it. (Pause)

From here, reach out and touch Planet Earth's new grid. Merge with the entire grid. (Pause) Several in this room are feeling unable or unworthy to do this: you are capable and worthy, dear friends. Just choose to do it. (Pause)

Now, implant your energies and your essence into this grid. Simply intend it so, and it is done. Understand that in this process, you are implanting your extended essence, from several realms, dimensions and lifetimes, into the grid. (Pause)

Amen, Amen, Amen.

Today we give you yet another title. You may recall that, in the past, you were inducted into a group called "Warriors of the Light". Today, you have also become "Inter-dimensional travellers and messengers".

We will, week by week, introduce you newer and different aspects of the current energies. You will be taught how to use them and how to flow with them: they are magnificent and unique.

Let us begin by speaking of the new crystalline grid. You are accustomed to thinking of crystals as you know them on Earth. However, the crystalline aspects of Earth are very different to those of Universal Crystals.

Earth is indeed releasing energies into the grid from newly-birthered crystals, which are emerging from below the Atlantean crystalline beds, deep under the ocean. But simultaneously, the grid is also attracting new crystalline energies from the far reaches of the Universe.

Most of these Universal crystals are not in physical form at all, yet they are extremely complex and potent energies, that constantly re-create self, moment to moment. These could be considered 'shape-shifters': their composition is ever-evolving. Therefore, both crystalline forces are being woven into Planet Earth's new grid.

What does the grid look like?

 You perceive a grid as a mesh. You may choose to use this visual, if it serves you; but this is inaccurate. This grid is comprised of layer upon layer of ever-changing and ever-recreating consciousness.

One single thought of an individual creates a ripple, a pattern in the grid; and another single thought of another individual does likewise: these two then join to form a new pattern. Your belief systems, actions and personal energies do the same. Now imagine the trillions upon trillions of individuals influencing the grid. And this grid is also being influenced by all the kingdoms of Earth. And by the new crystalline energies, as earlier outlined.

You also need to re-think your concept of 'alignment'. In general, you perceive alignment laterally: for example, the sun, moon and earth in one single line. Alignment is actually far more complex than this. It is the process of multiple points, in differing directions, timelines, and even dimensions, all forming a complex sacred geometrical symbol of perfection.

The Universe has currently re-aligned itself, placing planet Earth at its energetic centre. Please note that we do not say 'physical centre'; but 'energetic centre'.

This moment in linear time, 21.12, is therefore of vital importance to the entire Universe, which is upgrading through its focal point: Planet Earth. She is therefore the brain centre of the celestial computer; instructions are being relayed and processed through Her.

You have no conscious concept of the multitude of energies that are passing through each one of you right now. You are, at a higher level, working with many of them; 'aligning' them to suit your personal and collective evolutionary processes.

You are energetic prisms; absorbing, reflecting and refracting myriad energies. You are experimenting with celestial colour, texture, vibrations and frequencies.

Are you saying that we are the current energetic centre of the Milky Way, or the entire Universe?

 The entire Universe: All that is and is not.

And through this process, you are currently accessing energies that you have never before experienced, or even planned on experiencing. You are multi-dimensional kaleidoscopes; filled with ever-changing patterns, rhythms, colours and frequencies. Even though you are not conscious of this, you are constantly leaping back and forth between differing realities and aspects of self. If you choose to add your consciousness to this process, you can take it to a new and exciting level.

Tomorrow (21.12.12) we urge you to remain meditative in action. Explore self and the Universe as fully as you desire. Use your 'imagination' wildly and with abandon. Choose to experience and explore a multitude of 'selves' in different dimensions and realities. Explore the 'king' and the 'beggar'; the 'saint' and the 'villain'. Embrace it all, and acknowledge it as a divine, multi-faceted aspect of the self. We also urge you to also explore any past childhood trauma: touch upon it and infuse it with the light you hold in the current moment.

Use the energies of the day to 'clean the slate' and to 'refresh the computer'. If you choose to wallow in any particular emotion, be aware that you are imprinting it for long-term future use. If, for example, you choose to remain in anger or depression, you will simply perpetuate it for future years. Why not choose joy and expansion instead?

These imprints will be entered and stored in the new grid of Planet Earth: yours is the choice; and yours is the power. Code your future selves as you so desire.

21.12 will also be a day of energetic and spirit visitations: for those of you who are clairvoyant or clairaudient, please remain as open as possible. All visitors are to be welcomed by you: your own higher energies will select the appropriate connections for the day.

Anyone at all can choose to 'talk to their loved ones' in the spirit realm: reach out and 'chat'. Share with them all that you desire. Trust that you are being heard. We also urge you to listen to and receive messages.

Can we also talk to the collective consciousness of Humanity, or mother Gaia?

 Indeed you can, and you should. You will be heard, and you will receive that which is appropriate for self.

On 21.12, PLEASE find at least one moment in which to say to self I LOVE ME, and mean it! Fake it several times if you wish; but come to that one moment when you really, truly mean it.

What will happen when we do this truthfully?

 In that moment, you will be 'tying together' every single part of your simultaneous and concurrent aspects. All merge and forge a 'through-line' through this incarnated aspect, imprinting the vastness of self in the new grid. You become a hub of the extended you. In that moment, you experience true union and magnificence.

How would that affect my frequencies and vibration?

 You are creating a multi-frequency grid of infinite complexity, which will fully activate on 4.1.13. Each receptor in this grid will have the capacity to process millions of other frequencies.

After 4.1, when your personal grid is fully activated, you will slowly start learning how to combine these frequencies in a manner unique and beneficial for self. The skilful use of this could offer you the opportunity to do almost anything you so desire: to levitate, to touch-heal, to increase your intellectual capabilities, and so on. You will, in effect, be able to activate vast portions of the unused brain. But the key that unlocks this will be complete and total belief in self.

You are moving into an era of the true living Master. It is now time to see yourselves as the Master, completely and totally, on par with all those great beings whom you so love and respect. You now have to be at the level when you and all external Masters merge; where there is no difference between all and the self.

With the three rapid upgrades (12.12, 21.12 and 1.4), it will be time for each and every one of you to have complete faith in the self. You will have to acknowledge that you create everything in your existence for a reason, and to learn to touch that reason and to move beyond it very rapidly.

Belief in self and compassion can take your lives in any direction that you so desire: you can now truly create miracles in your lives on a daily basis.

We now know a bit about our upgrades during this time period, but what of the Masters? How are all of you upgrading?

 In our power, in our power we have chosen to offer humanity the opportunity to recreate us as it desire. You can choose to see us as you like, and we will be just that.

If you choose to see the Masters, or the Universe, as cruel and punishing; then that is the role we will play in your lives. If you choose to imbue us with supreme power, and continue to feel powerless, then that is what will be. But if you see us as magnificent co-creators, then we shall joyously work together to re-create the Universe.

THY WILL BE DONE.

You are in the embrace of 1001 Master energies today.

BLESSINGS
