THE ENERGIES OF BAL THACKERAY SPEAK

THE ENERGIES OF MARTIN LUTHER KING SPEAK

THE ENERGIES OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI SPEAK

Trace Chanelling begin..

Without attempting to guess my identity, please read my energies.

(Various Group members do so)

- Joyful
- Expanded
- Loving
- Exuberant
- All-embracing
- The energy of flight
- Humorous
- Mysterious

You have a lot of wisdom and guidance to offer others

- Artistic
- Child-like
- Human-ness
- Non-judgmental
- An old soul

You are all correct, and as you can see, I have no problem receiving these compliments (all laugh)

(Pointing at L) Yes, we are old friends.

Now get ready to tear your hair out...these are the higher soul energies of the Bal Thackeray.

(All laugh; and one group member moans "Oh No!")

Oh Yes, indeed! The higher soul energies; not the incarnated aspect. For the benefit of the newcomers in the room, these energies, at source, are pure Islam...Universal Brotherhood.

The incarnated self had a mission: to first experience (and generate) complete discord, to pit one group against another, the play power games to the fullest, and to incite one group to rise up against another.

After this, the earthly self desired to 'awaken', make a 180-degree turn-about, and begin to unite various groups of people, thereby touching Universal Brotherhood.

This was not achieved by the incarnated self. The higher soul attempted to prod and jolt the incarnated aspect, which did not respond, due to being trapped in its inner conflict. Hence the return of this aspect to the spirit realm, to re-group and review the process.

Yes, it is very likely that this aspect will re-incarnate in your very country some years in the future, to try a different approach. This is being discussed, and options like a future natural birth vs. a 'walk-in' situation are being considered.

Isn't there a chance that you may go off-track again?

Yes, there is; hence the consideration of the 'walk-in' scenario, which is more likely to succeed. These kinds of points are being debated in the spirit realm.

Let me change now to speaking in the 'first-person'. If I come back, I will write in a clause into my contract. This clause is much like a binding clause you would use in a legal contract. I am considering writing into my possible upcoming script that if I go off-track again, I will self-destruct in some way: perhaps through self-sabotage, being voted out of office, an illness or an emotional jolt.

Suicide?

Possibly even that. Dear friends, let me share with you my current energies. I am in a space of tremendous light and expansion. I am not suffering, nor am I in trauma. I am in a space of expanded reviewal of the self. I am in a Universal conference with many great souls, including those who have been world leaders in the past. These energies freely share with me their experiences and their life-courses. Some were successful in completing their missions; others were not.

Are the energies of Osama part of this conference?

Indeed they are, and they have been very helpful in guiding me.

What was your earthly conflict?

There were several areas of conflict. My primary one was falling into the trap of becoming a power-hungry megalomaniac. This was partly caused by my Atlantean aspects: I have often been a leader, statesman, energy worker, scientist, and artist in that civilization.

Due to an overdose of its crystalline force, I slowly began to mis-manage and misuse energies. Power and energy became an addiction to me.

I also fell into the trap of desiring to control others out of a lack of inner authority. Though this may not have been noticeable to you while I was my incarnated self, I never really felt worthwhile or fulfilled.

I was full of paradoxes. For example, I encouraged everyone to flatter me and agree to my demands; yet I despised them for this. What I desired, I also hated.

While on earth, I was not actually as bigoted as I appeared to be; my choices for deliberately inciting one community against another were for self-serving purposes. But they also had a public purpose: why did all of you not stop me? Why did you not awaken and rise up, united? That was your lesson.

Many could not because of the fear of repercussions.

And are you going to live in fear for the rest of your lives? Or are you going to face your fears, like a tiger? If you do not face your fears, they will only increase. You need to touch your power and stand up in the face of adversity. Only by doing so will there be unity and harmony. This strangle-hold will only tighten on the city and the country if you do not awaken soon.

What would you have done?

Probably intensify what I already did. I now understand that, although I was meant to awaken and shift, I actually offered the country a great service. I was simply playing the role of the harsh teacher.

Is Raj going to function like you did?

Yes. He is likely to increase the pressure on all of you, as he does not have the innate compassion and artistry that I had.

Will he be stopped?

It is up to you to change things around, or simply accept them as they are. Dear friends, you must now understand that harsh teachers, and harsh lessons, are sometimes necessary to jolt humanity out of its customary indolence and lethargy. It is only when you face your fears and still move ahead, that you truly touch your power, courage and magnificence.

The Bal, as a united entity, has tremendous leadership qualities. Many of our incarnatory experiences have been as political leaders, leaders of men into battle, scientific path breakers, and the like. Leadership comes easy to us; and each incarnated aspect is learning to find a balance in power. Some aspects are experiencing powerlessness, others an abuse of power, and every shade in between. It is our united quest to balance this out.

Power is not a 'dirty word'; it is a soul's divine right. It is the quest of all to touch and acknowledge their own magnificence.

Do not view me as a 'lost soul', but instead, see me as a soul completely dedicated to the search for evolution and expansion.

BLESSINGS

(Sohrab shifts energies)

Without attempting to guess my identity, simply experience my energies.

(The group does so)

- Feminine
- Gentle
- Wise
- Softness
- Sporty

Blessings from the energies of the Martin Luther King.

Again, you are correct. These energies do contain creative, feminine power.

He also was a sports person.

So you have been proven right.

The Martin Luther King's expanded energies wish to share with you their current mission. The Martin Luther has chosen not to incarnate in a singular manner; but to instead energetically influence anyone who chooses to ally with these energies. You could say that there now exist hundreds of thousands of Martin Luther Kings; each furthering education and awareness.

Our energies flow freely through the ether, putting out a 'signature call'. Those who are attracted to this tune, and have the same objective in sight, may unite with us, temporarily or permanently. The choice is theirs.

The Martin Luther offers you his embrace. He wishes you to know that this group, individually and collectively, has always united with his energies to further their education and awareness.

BLESSINGS.

Dear friends, a simple reminder: the energies of February and March have begun. This is a period of great energetic speed. The roller-coaster ride has begun. Things will appear to be coming at you simultaneously, from all directions.

You will have to keep pace with this, and work at lightning speed. Decisions and shifts will have to be made 'in the moment'. Face each challenge, and each joyous moment, with equal fervour.

Run wildly through the playground of life. Laugh, and play the game with wild abandon. Challenge yourselves, excite yourselves, and occasionally shock yourselves.

Do not allow the self to move into a space of long-term lethargy, depression or inertia. Be active in mind, body and spirit. Take momentary breathers, and then continue the race. And above all, have fun!

Blessings of the united energies of the Sohrab, the St. Germain, and the Meher Baba.
