

27th February 2014

Sohrab's Channeling

MAHA SHIVARATRI: A UNIVERSAL ENERGETIC FESTIVAL

CONNECTING WITH THOSE IN THE SPIRIT REALM

THE SECOND COMING OF THE MASTERS

MERGING WITH THE MASTERS AT A CONSCIOUS LEVEL

BECOMING THE WALKING, TALKING, LIVING MASTER

Blessings!

On this day of Maha Shivaratri, the veils between the spirit and earthly realms are extremely rarified, and will continue to be so for the next 24 to 48 hours. You would be advised to use this rarification productively.

Take some time with yourselves, perhaps this evening or tomorrow morning, and connect with anyone you desire in the spirit realm. You could choose to connect with a departed friend, an ancestor, Masters and guides, or an unknown soul beneficial for your current growth and evolution.

This connection can be done in any manner that pleases you: deep meditation, the dream state, the daydream state, or even in full consciousness, wherein you simply invite the energy to communicate with you, and sense it in the moment.

This would also be an ideal time to release old debris that you still hold. If, for example, you are still working out a painful issue with a relative who has already passed over, this would be the ideal time to have a celestial therapy session. Speak out loudly and boldly, expressing how you still feel.

Shout out aloud, scream, cry, and express yourselves. Do not think you are creating more karma with this person. On the contrary, through this process you are distangling the energetic knots that you have both created in the past.

At the same time, if there is a soul with whom you are deeply connected, please use this time to freely express your love, joy, gratitude and acknowledgment for all they have given you in the past.

Beyond this, please dialogue with your own higher soul. Discuss issues, ask questions, demand answers, experience who you really are, and understand why there is still separation between the two of you. Choose to do it, and it will be so.

This would also be an ideal time, should you choose to do so, to communicate with the extended consciousness of Planet Earth herself and all her kingdoms.

You can also communicate with the higher souls of those who are still in human form on earth; whom you desire to reach. Let us say, for example, you are in emotional tangles with a loved one. Use this time to have a chat with his higher soul. Say what you must, and ask the soul to listen to you, and listen to the soul! It must be a two-way process.

No matter whom you contact during this 48-hour period, this must be a 'give and take' process.

Beyond this, this is an ideal time to talk to the higher soul of your home, your neighbourhood, your city, and your country. Find out what is 'really going on'. Discover how you fit into this region or territory. Ask what you need to do for it, and find out what it is doing for you. Why have you chosen to incarnate here? Discover the self through this process.

Dear friends, do not waste this energetic period. Use it fully, joyously, productively, efficiently and expansively. Be in a 48-hour active meditative state. Take time out for the self. Give yourself the opportunity to communicate, study, grow and evolve. Even if you have active social plans, keep them; but find the time to work for the self.

Questions?

Can this 48-hour period be extended by us? There are too many souls to communicate with, and too much to resolve, in such a short time!

It can, and will, be extended; but to a point. We have always told you that time is not linear. By that logic, should you choose to connect with this time period a month down the line, you would simply tap into this energetic period instantly.

However, in this case, there is a ‘timely’ energetic opening which we urge you to take. Once you hook onto this energetic window, you can then extend it at will.

Those who are not present here today and perhaps read this information at a later date may still work with these energies, but they will miss out on the energetic thrust that is being offered to you, here and now.

A further aspect of communication that may benefit you would be a very active discussion, during this 48-hour window, with your own physical body. Sit with the self, and really delve into physical issues that you may have: aches and pains, trauma, mental and emotional trauma and the like. Visit all the bodies: physical, mental, emotional and spiritual; but focus on the physical.

Dialogue with your body to a greater degree that you have ever before done.

Most of you, being lightworkers and healers, have done so many times in the past. Take it ten times further during this period. Delve deep. Demand more and more and more information and revelations. Demand answers.

Can we demand self-healing?

You must first demand to acknowledge and assimilate the relevant core issues, before healing can begin. Be aware that these issues may have no bearing on what you have studied and read. The reason for a backache, for example, could have unique and individual issues hidden behind it. Don’t be satisfied with a superficial answer...dig deeper and deeper.

Why is this period so important this year? The Maha Shivaratri has become, for the first time, a Universal festival. It is being energetically celebrated throughout the Universe, by every single society and region. It is, of course, not viewed or celebrated in an Earthly manner; but its energies are now being acknowledged, experienced and respected Universe-wide.

Can you even begin to imagine the magnitude of this statement? If, on planet Earth, a small explosive can create a blast that affects an entire region; imagine what can happen when there is an energetic union forged between every part of the Universe, using this force.

If you were able to look up into the sky right now and see energies with the naked eye, you would witness the equivalent of celestial fireworks. These are energetic explosions of Universal Union. As energies are acknowledged and ‘celebrated’, bit by bit, throughout the Universe, these fireworks will only increase; till there is a vast celestial display of colour, sound, light, frequency, vibration and magnificence. Pure creation.

Many of you are now energetically able to connect with Universal forces. Go outside this evening, look at the sky with the inner eye, and experience this for yourselves.

These Universal fireworks are also exploding in the Universe within the Self. Therefore, over the next 48 hours, many people will shift extremely drastically. There will also be many earth exits. But for the most part, there will be internal upheavals, personality shifts, emotional changes, and changes of awareness, alertness and understanding. Old, blocked issues may suddenly open up. Issues that you have suppressed will erupt outwards. Lots and lots of magnificent changes.

This new Shiv energy (and we use this term for your reference) is actually pure Universal energy. This is facilitating a process that we will call the second coming of every possible Master in existence.

In the past, Masters would take on a single form, and incarnate in one specific location. In this era, it is going to work differently. The Jesus, the Buddha and the Mohammed, for example, are going to be incarnating in thousands of individuated bodies, by simply infiltrating existing humans with a predominance of their essence, at the request of the higher soul. This will never be a forced entry; it will be ‘by invitation only’.

You are all aware that your energy structures contain a perfect merger of your unique essence, along with that of hundreds of thousands of energies with which you have interacted over lifetimes.

During the second coming, if the higher soul chooses to experience an intensive merger with the Jesus, it will then absorb into every aspect of itself a Jesus strand. This person will then merge the Jesus energy into his Buddha strands, his Mohammed strands, his Sai strands, and so on. In short, the DNA of your higher soul will be upgraded with this Jesus infusion.

According to the dictates of the higher soul, this process can take place instantly; or slowly, over several years. But this kind of infusion, if selected and activated, will most definitely change who you are.

Dear friends, please remember that though we are using the Jesus as an example; you could choose any Master with whom to merge to this degree. You might even choose one with whom you may not be consciously familiar, or able to name, in your earthly form.

Now, if a person has chosen this merger to accomplish a specific public mission, the infusion will take place, his personality will change to a certain degree, and the unified Master/Human energies will then begin emanating outwards, facilitating, for example, his rise to political position of eminence, or super-stardom, or great technical or scientific advancement...taking him to a position in which he can now affect vast groups of people.

Equally important are people who choose this union to affect a small group of people, or one family. This is in no way a 'lesser' choice. They will work in exactly the same way, affecting their select group.

If one person affects even a small group of people, his unified energies provoke the individuals to go into their higher souls, and perhaps choose a similar kind of merger for the self. This way, a magnificent chain-reaction is set in motion, and the circle keeps getting wider and wider.

Dear friends, we now offer you the opportunity to do the same at a conscious level. This is not currently being offered to the whole of the human race; but it is being offered to those who are dedicated to self-growth, self-awareness, self-exploration, self-discovery...in short, lightworkers.

Spread this information freely: only those who are meant to receive it, will get it. If you choose, at a conscious level, to activate this kind of merger, then do so with responsibility.

You have already been given three sessions detailing the energy of various Masters, and their particular energetic thrust for 2014. Why not refer to this before activating one of them consciously? Simultaneously, check it with your intuition.

However, if you have a personal favourite, joyously choose him or her. Remember that at the conscious level, this merger can only be with one Master energy.

How exactly do we do this?

Sit for seven consecutive days, at any time of the day or night. It does not have to be the same each day. But do not allow more than 24 hours to elapse before you sit again. Call upon the energies of your choice, and demand an infusion. This will take you only a couple of minutes.

Once you complete the seven-day commitment, you are then bound, by energetic contract, to work with these energies for the self, and for others, 24 hours a day. You will feel, experience, and understand them. You will be able to tune into the changes within the self. And you will love the change.

But you will also find those old crutches of the past falling away. If, for example, a past crutch has been gossip, that has to start fading away. You may find a natural distaste for it; or you may find yourself so overwhelmed by others gossiping about you, that you feel impelled to move away from it entirely.

A conscious infusion may or may not be the same as that of the higher soul. Your higher soul may have chosen a merger with the Mohammed; whereas you may select the St. Germain. These are not contrary choices; each will enhance the other. You will be able to view self, and the world, through ‘two sets of eyes’.

Enjoy this magnificent opportunity that has now been earned by the human race. There have, of course, been such mergers in the past; but the level and the degree of this conscious choice far exceeds anything that has been humanly possible before.

Be warned that through this conscious merger, you may find all your relationships changing: relationships between the self and family members, friends, work, habits, patterns, passions and so on. This does not mean that you will lose them all; but you will find yourselves getting more and more detached. Your love quotient will increase; but you will find yourselves able to view people and situations from a more detached, balanced, and distanced perspective.

Remember that should you choose to undergo this 7-day merger, and then attempt to replay your old, lower-vibrational patterns, habits and thought processes, they will ‘explode in your face’.

However, the magnificence of the experience will far outweigh any of the cautionary advice we have given. Take a leap of faith. Do it!

We can read your thoughts now. So many in this room are saying, “How can I possibly decide whom to choose? There are so many!” (Laughter)

Take your time! Weigh the options. See what pulls you the most energetically. What excites you. Then choose. The 7-day period can start any time you choose. Should you accidentally miss out on a day, just start the process again.

Another question we can sense is: for how long do I need to sit each day?

You will be guided on a daily basis by the self. On one day, you may feel a few minutes are sufficient. On another day, you will feel urged to sit for a longer period.

How do we do this?

Just sit down, welcome the selected energy into your physical structure, and command it to merge with you, so that you become the walking, talking, living, breathing Master you desire.

Do we have to initiate this merger at a conscious level?

Not at all! The choice is yours entirely.

How do we know what we have selected at a higher conscious level?

Follow the same 7-day procedure, and demand it be revealed to you. In most cases, this information will come in, bit by bit. You will be first urged to experience the energy before it reveals itself to you. You will feel one aspect of it, experience another facet of it, and finally it will build upto a crescendo, and you will know who it is. Enjoy the process.

Dear friends, please do not think ‘in the box’. Many of you have already selected, at a higher conscious level, a merger with Universal Masters and Collectives which have no earthly names. Therefore do not be confused if you do not get a name, or an image, of a known Master. This may be a magnificent Master, who is certainly not to be dismissed at the conscious level. Trust your own higher soul choice implicitly.

Aren't all the higher soul entities fully merged, and therefore the same unified energy?

At a higher soul level, particularly at a level of extreme rarification, all are one. But they still hold an imprint of the self in an individuated form, which is necessary for you at an Earthly level.

Why?

On earth, your energies are relatively dense. They still need a ‘hook’ or a definition to attach to these rarified beings. The average human still uses the image of the Jesus, or the Sai, to connect to them. It is harder to feel as connected to a wisp of pure energy. However, if you are completely confident of bypassing any need for a ‘form’, then you may do so.

The Masters, though they are all one, often introduce into their own energies an element of separation so that they can carry out specific tasks with various groups of people.

On earth, when you think of Jesus, you think of love, compassion, forgiveness, nurture and acceptance, and you then activate these aspects within the self and your life. Trying to do the same by connecting with an abstract blur of light and vibration may not be possible for most. The name, label and visual give you a structure within which to work.

On Earth, the Jesus works with these aspects in the forefront; but as the Ashtaar Commander Lord Sannanda, though he also contains these aspects, those he brings to the forefront are leadership, command, justice, focus, and ‘warrior of the light’.

Were most on earth asked to connect with the Jesus in this form, they might not do so as fully; whereas when they do so by a more familiar, comfortable route, they then access these energies as well.

May we do both together? Connect with the higher soul and earthly choices simultaneously?

Most definitely.

May I do this while I am pregnant?

Yes indeed. You may even connect for your unborn child and find out what he or she has chosen as well!

How would I connect with an abstract energy? I am drawn to colour.

You would ask for the Universal Master Energy of Colour. It is a collective that has a relative definition appropriate for you. This naturally also includes the energies of frequency, vibration and sound.

Can I also choose to connect with the culmination of all my various existences?

Most certainly. But in general, during this period, you will be selecting a specific Master, named or unnamed. The 'culmination of all your various existences' is the most expansive aspect of the higher soul. You will be inviting a Master energy into this realm.

After we finish the 7-day period, may we repeat the process with another Master energy?

Not as yet. That information will be given to you later, depending on how successfully the Human race works with this new experiment.

What of those who are ready to do this, but do not get this information as directly as we are receiving it?

Those who are ready will receive this information in some form or another. They will begin to experience a new inner union with the self.

Not all will undertake this venture. As mentioned earlier, some will take this on for public service, others to work for small groups, yet others for the self and for their immediate family, some for a new interaction between the self and Planet Earth, and some will not choose it at all.

Those who do not choose this union are going to be predominantly of two types. The first group will comprise of those whose energies are not ready for this level of merger; they have the divine right to say ‘not yet’.

The second group will be tremendous, magnificent earthly Masters, who will deliberately deny themselves this opportunity. They will hold a negative polarity so that Planet Earth and all her inhabitants can do this, smoothly and effectively. Their energies will act like a counter-balance to yours, so that you can ‘take off’.

What if I make a wrong choice?

You cannot! Every Master energy is magnificent, and will give you the perfect experience.

Surely the teacher chooses the student? Now we seem to be letting the student choose the Master. Surely this will not help me serve the Divine Plan? For example, I may choose the loving Jesus, but those around me may not be ready for love; they may need another energy from me.

This process of becoming the walking, talking Master does not exclude you from accessing other Master energies. On the contrary, it takes you to an energetic level wherein you can access all other energies, at will, at an even higher frequency.

At the conscious level, should you choose the Jesus, and then find that a level of destruction is needed in a certain situation, through your love quotient you will be able to instantly access that aspect of the higher self that is the destroyer, and wield that energy smoothly and effectively. The Jesus in you may choose to access the Kali energy at that point in time.

Do you serve two levels, the divine plan and the earthly plan? Yes, most definitely. You will be able to do so more effectively. With these energies, you cannot not serve both!

And yes, you as students must now select your Master! Such is your power and your choice.

Take your time, dear friends. Play with these concepts. Receive clarity. Then choose.

YOU ARE BLESSED, EMBRACED, LOVED, NURTURED, INSPIRED AND ACTIVATED BY THE SHIV COLLECTIVE.

HONOUR YOURSELVES.

*****

