THE WALKING JESUS

(Sohrab shares with the group) I usually sit in my room for a few quiet moments before the channeling, center myself, and ask for an indication of what is to come for the day. Today I got nothing. And this often happens.

This always makes me nervous, as I know I have to face the group for a whole hour, and wonder if I will be able to generate a meeting. This sounds absurd, as I have done so for all these years, but I still do get nervous! I feel like I am being thrown to the wolves.

G: Why not 'thrown to the Angels'??

(Everyone laughs) I stand corrected! You are absolutely right! Thank you for that.

(The group chant OM, and the meeting begins)

Greetings!

A group of Masters present wish to share with you tidbits of information, advice, guidance and love. Before we begin, open yourselves up and sense the merged energies in this room. They are light, vibrant, expansive and loving. Experience the joy for yourselves. (Pause)

Breathe in these energies. Fill your cells with them. Allow them to flow through all your extended energies. Let them be 'a breath of fresh air'. (Pause)

GREETINGS FROM THE MEHER (Baba)!

Come on! Use the inner eye! See me in him! Don't look at this ugly face...see me! You can...come on! (Pause) No, he has a beautiful face. We joke.

Three words to hold onto during this energetic period...perhaps a month or two. Three words: Trust, faith and hope.

What did he begin by saying? He was nervous because he 'did not know what was going to come'. Had he trusted in the self, he would have sensed and experienced the presence of the Meher in his room; but he cut himself off from his own natural flow, out of nervousness, a sense of inadequacy and the fear of ‘not being able to perform’.

Trust is such an important word. Not blind trust; but going deep within the self, and knowing, not doubting, knowing Who You Are. And when you know this, you trust the self implicitly, and you trust that all that is taking place around you is for your growth and benefit.

Trust brings with it self-awareness, self-acknowledgment and self-appreciation. Then you begin to understand what ‘the game of life’ is all about. And you begin to play it joyously.

Faith! Have faith in yourself. Not blind faith in some external Master or Supreme Being; but faith in yourself. You have faith that after this meeting, your legs will carry you across to the tea table, and that your hands will effortlessly lift the cup to your lips! And because you have this faith, they do. If you doubted this ability, you would be spilling the tea all over the floor. Why not have the same faith in yourself, your magnificence, your endeavor, your growth, and the ability to create your future life in any way you desire?

Hope sounds hopeless...but it is not. It does not imply ‘living in an imaginary future’. True hope is generated by inner expansion, wherein you take your vibrations to heightened levels. This makes space for the creation and manifestation of that which you desire.

Play with trust, faith and hope. Be the supreme juggler, tossing these up in the air in intricate patterns. Play with these concepts. Discover, over the next few months, where you don’t trust, where you don’t have faith, and where you feel hopeless. Shift the energies around, take a few risks and toss these up in the air. Watch them soar. Have fun.

April and May will be months of great energetic expansion, lightness and new, high-vibrational frequencies. If you find yourselves feeling very bogged down or overwhelmed during these months, tap into these frequencies. You are possibly resisting them sub-consciously.

Paradoxically, you may also find the need to take more physical rest. The body may feel heavy and sleepy; if it does, do not mistake this for resistance to the energies. On the contrary, the more you rest, the more the body will open up and absorb these vibrations and frequencies. Through rest, you will be shedding old energies, and making space for the newer ones. Rest is extremely important.

Rest does not necessarily mean sleep. You can rest even in the middle of a business meeting. Simply command the body to be balanced, restful, still and open to absorbing the new energies, even when you are negotiating a business deal. Rest is created in an inner space.

Of course, if you have the luxury of taking physical rest during the day, please do so.

The Meher contracts to work with any human being who desires to play with Trust, Faith and Hope during this upcoming period. You don't even have to call upon him; he will just be there for you.

(Pointing to a group member) Do not worship the Meher; invite him into your life as a friend. Ask for his advice and guidance. Have a bit of a laugh with him. Take him to a party with you. Have fun! Have fun! Have fun!

Any questions for the Meher?

Aren't trust, faith and hope intertwined?

Yes indeed! All are three points of an energetic triangle. Body, mind and spirit. The Holy Trinity. And all three lead to only one aspect: fullness. (Pause)

Doesn't anyone else want to talk to the Meher? Even his special friends in this room?

Trust and Faith seem to be very much 'in the present', whereas hope leads to expansion.

Well said. Hope, in its fullness, is an energetic outcome that has already been created by you. Trust and faith help you step into it.

(Pointing to Su) My friend, what do you have to say for yourself??

Thank you for everything, Baba.

(Laughing) Aren't you bored of working with my energies for so many years now?

No!!!

Of course not. Bless you.

(Another group member) You are my favourite!

Naturally! Because I am the handsomest of the lot. (Laughter)

I wish we could learn to love the way you do.

You have to learn to love much more than I could, while I was on Earth. I made many mistakes; I was by no means perfect. But through these mistakes, I grew and evolved. I do not apologize for even one of them, as they were a vital part of my growth. I now celebrate my mistakes. Celebrate yours! And by the way, I could be quite a 'harami'!

We love you anyway.

Thank you! All girls love a bad boy. (Laughter)

When do I stop trying, and 'leave it all to you'?

Aah! A good question. You never stop trying! You never leave it all to me! Have trust and faith in the self, and continue to hope. Then invite me to walk the path with you. You never leave it all to me.

In the past, the Meher often made statements like “empty your troubles into my sack, and I will carry them for you”. This statement was appropriate for that energetic time and space. At that time, the human race had to learn to have trust and faith in a higher power; and through that process, touch their own power. It was a time in which the Masters hand-held you through your processes.

Now you have reached a level of energetic evolution where you cannot anymore ask another to shoulder your problems for you. You have grown up. But you can still ask the Master for guidance, advice and to ‘walk with you’. You now have to acknowledge your equal potency to the Master. And if you are equally powerful, why would you ask another to solve it for you?

Never stop trying. But please continue to ask us to be your friends and companions. Dear friend, you are a good soul. Have a little more self-confidence! You have so much to offer. Trust yourself.

Yes... my mighty friend in the back! Speak!

Thank you. Baba, what connection did you have with Maha Avatar Babaji? Though I consider you as my Guru, I find myself deeply drawn to Maha Avatar Babaji. So now I have two loves. (Laughter)

I like having both male and female admirers! And I love you too!

As you well know, there is no competition in the spirit realm. You are free to love many of us. Enjoy multiple partners! The more, the merrier!

The Meher, after passing into the spirit realm, chose to enhance his own structure with different energies of various Masters. He drew several strands from the Maha Avatar Babaji with deep respect, acknowledging His magnificence, expansion, wisdom, bounty and love.

Today, the Meher and the Maha Avatar Babaji have merged energetically. They do retain a degree of separation for the benefit of those who choose to connect with them; but in truth, they are one.

Next to my photo of Meher Baba, I have a blank photo frame. I have been looking for a picture of the Maha Avatar Babaji, but couldn't find one. Now I understand...I don't need it, the energy is one.

Yes, it is one. Now put your photograph there. Do you have the courage to do that?

Tomorrow!

Blessings!

GREETINGS FROM THE ASHTAAR COMMAND.

Our universal energies will be felt by you, very strongly, over the next few months. More and more UFO sightings will be reported. More and more skeptics will deny our existence. But you know.

You don't need to see us in the sky to know we exist. We love you, we are here to aid you in your evolutionary processes; we are most certainly not here to 'conquer you'!

It is extremely important, over the next few months, that you lightworkers reach out and share with the consciousness of the human race that we are friends. Please do this.

An unfortunately setback has taken place in the collective unconsciousness, one which was not anticipated. A pocket of fear has suddenly arisen in it; resisting us, doubting us, fearing us, and anticipating worldwide annihilation.

We have, over the last few years, been introducing onto planet Earth so many radical inventions, discoveries, cures, and opportunities for growth and evolution; and because the collective unconsciousness still resists us, lots of these have been suppressed, instead of being freely shared with humanity.

We have already given Earth scientists the answers to low-cost fuel and ways to electrify the entire planet. We have also given you the cure for cancer and AIDS. All of this is being suppressed by Governments and Pharmaceutical giants, as this will take away their power, and will not benefit them financially.

What of the Illuminati? Do they really exist?

Indeed they do, and currently they are energetically very strong. They are very aware of our existence. They fear loss of power and control. Their rigidity is increasing. And so they tighten their stranglehold on Governments, to serve their own ends.

Can't you help remove them?

Understand, dear Friends, that we could remove them with a metaphorical 'snap of our fingers', but we are not permitted to interfere with the natural evolutionary processes of Planet Earth. We have the power to do so, but with strength comes responsibility.

Choices must be made. Earth beings have to awaken. The consciousness must evolve naturally. This is a very critical period: April, May and June. A critical period for the higher consciousness of Planet Earth.

Lightworkers must unite, and put into play all that they have learned. You must lead the collective consciousness into a new space of expansion.

Dear friends, we could make appearances now, worldwide. If we did, this would cause such mass panic that we would set your consciousness back fifty years. We are not permitted to do that.

Use your energies, power and awareness. Do not just focus upon the pharmaceutical industry or an errant Government; work for the collective consciousness of Planet Earth. Help it open up and evolve.

Yes (Pointing to Y) the Ozone layer is in danger. There have been new pollutants released into the atmosphere recently. These are toxic gasses and nuclear energies that you are not aware of. There are three top-secret sites, in which various people are working towards creating new weapons of mass destruction. When will you awaken?

These three sites, worldwide, are having problems. Dangerous gases and harmful energies are being released into the atmosphere by accident; along with new, uncontrollable viruses.

The depletion of the Ozone layer has now reached critical levels. As lightworkers, you must work energetically as well as physically. Speak out. Start net campaigns. Awaken the people.

Energetically you are now so powerful that even one single person, working with love, focus, intent, and dedication, makes a difference to the collective consciousness. Please do!

We thank you. We are with you, even if you do not see us with the naked eye. Know we are with you.

What of the missing plane?

Political chicanery.

Blessings!

(Sohrab shifts energies)

THE SAI (BABA) GREETES YOU.

The Sai, during this energetic period, takes on the role of a warrior of the light. A role you are unaccustomed to associating with the Sai; but this is what he now chooses.

The Sai harnesses Universal energies to work for Planet Earth. He joins forces with the Kali for the next few months, to help unearth that which must now be brought to the surface.

Observe, over the next few months, scams and corruption being brought to your attention; and the decimation of certain groups, societies and areas that need to be vigorously cleansed. This will be facilitated by the united Sai and Kali.

Add your light, intent and magnificence to our mission of light.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

THE OSHO COLLECTIVE GREETES YOU.

(Addressing A) Blessings, dear friend!

You may recall that we spoke of our earlier mission, which was to offer you our energies as a mirror; one in which you could see all aspects of the self very clearly. Aspects which you would, in all likelihood, desire to amend, alter or reconstruct during this year.

The Osho collective now adds a new energetic twist to this process. We offer you an occult connection to a degree that you have never before experienced. You can, should you chose to align with our collective, take yourselves to new levels of psychic connection, channeling, communication and self-awareness.

The Osho collective blesses you.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

GREETINGS FROM THE CHRIST OFFICE.

This year, the Jesus contracts to walk among you. This does not mean that there will be a singular Jesus once again incarnated. There will now be hundreds of thousands of people, who, at a higher conscious level, draw in very high levels of the Jesus energies, and put aside their own energies temporarily to house the Walking Jesus.

These magnificent friends offer their structure, thoughts, words and deeds to the Christ Office, so that the quotient of love, compassion and divinity of the Human Race is uplifted.

At the end of the appropriate period, each will then return to his or her own normal structure.

We promise you that each one in this room will meet at least two such beings, who will be keepers of 99.99% Jesus energies for a period of at least one year. When you do, you will know it intuitively, as your own inner Jesus will begin to vibrate very strongly.

That person may not be consciously aware of who he is, but you will. In some cases, they must not know it, so that they can work intuitively, and without any interference from the ego. In a few cases, they will know it, but will keep it private.

(Indicating Jenny) Come here. (S places his palms on hers) You are to receive the touch of the Christ, and for one month you are to offer it to anyone at all. It is the direct touch of the Christ. In some cases, inform the recipient of it; in other cases, simply do so silently. But pass it on.

The Christ is with you, child. Blessings.

After this session is over, you may also offer the touch of the Christ to anyone in this room who desires it. Do not leave till all who desire it, receive it from you. You are our messenger. You are one who will hold 99.99% of our energies. This has not happened yet; but it will. Know this consciously. Blessings!

(Sohrab shifts energies)

We are not here to speak, only to bless. (Pause)

You are blessed by the energies of the MOTHER THERESA.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

Open and experience these unknown energies. They are lofty, joyous, vibrant and magnificent. They are seeking, searching and ever-recreating. (Pause)

These are the energies of the HIGHER SOUL OF THIS GROUP. They contain strands of all those who have been connected, are connected and will be, in the future, connected with this glorious group. This is You! Blessings.

As the meeting ended, Jenny shared with the group the fact that she had been busy at work today, but suddenly felt impelled to attend the session. She somehow got someone to sub for her, and booked a seat at the last minute. She joyfully (and tearfully) thanked the group and the Masters for facilitating this magnificent experience. She then offered the Jesus touch, one by one, to all those who desired it.
