THE GANDHI COLLECTIVE

UNIVERSAL ENERGIES CONTAINED BY ANCIENT INDIAN GODS AND GODDESSES

THE OPENING OF A NEW HUMAN-UNIVERSAL BAND-WIDTH

THE ENERGIES OF NARENDRA MODI

Greetings!

Since it is the day of Gandhi Jayanti, let us speak of the Mahatma yet again. You may recall that many years ago, we had share with you the Gandhi's strengths and weaknesses while in human embodiment. Though he did have a world mission, he also had many personal issues to work out for the self, such as bigotry and an excessive control issue.

Let us now examine the Gandhi energies as they are today. With spirit evolution, he has now fully assimilated all the residual, unresolved earthly issues of the past. Currently, the Gandhi energies are not human energies at all; nor are they the higher-soul energies of an individuated entity. They are now a collective.

This collective is of a very, very high frequency. Interestingly enough, even though we have termed it "The Gandhi Collective" for your understanding, it is not considered that at all. It is just a Universal Collective.

Even though he has chosen to create this collective, he has merged so fully with all the other magnificent energies, that each is on par with the other.

Could you please explain this?

If, for example, this was made up of 100 different energies; each would be exactly 1% of the collective, including the energies of the Gandhi. Of course, there are not just 100: this collective now contains billions of 'like-minded' energies, human and non-human, that desire to work Universe-wide, engendering equality, forgiveness, understanding, awareness, acceptance, tolerance, embrace, nurture, and so on.

Let us speak of a few of the frequencies that now belong to this collective. The higher frequencies of the Florence Nightingale have contributed to it love, compassion, caring, nurture and energetic 'nursing'.

Another vital contributor is the higher soul of the Hitler. (Smiling at the reaction in the room) We remind you that we speak of the high frequencies of this entity, and not of his earthly aspects with which you are familiar. He has contributed his qualities of unity, endeavor, focus, equal-opportunity, leadership and inspiration.

A third contributor is the Ashtaar Command, a universal group of care-givers who joyously offer all Planets, celestial bodies and societies, Universe-wide, the opportunity to raise their consciousness and evolve at a speedy rate.

So you can now see that this collective is comprised of 'the best' and highest frequencies of its components. And billions of such beings and entities are now a vital part of it. This collective now flows Universe-wide, and offers its frequencies to any society, planetary body or tract of evolving deep space that requires its energies.

It may also interest you to know that though the Gandhi, in human form, was highly energetically influenced by Universal beings and Universal energies. He had no conscious knowledge of this; but at a higher conscious level, he was in complete connect with the Ashtaar Command and other such beings, who aided him in his world mission.

Your ancient Indian Gods and Goddesses also had, within their structure, at least 50% or more Universal energies and Universal influences. Other civilizations' deities also worked with these energies, such as the ancient Roman and Egyptian figureheads. But the inflow of Universal energies has always been fed, worldwide, through your country.

Therefore, those in India who are lightworkers, healers and energy workers of any form, will be able to connect with Universal energies more fluidly and easily than their counterparts in other parts of the world. It is a part of your cultural ethos, energy structure, DNA, and cellular coding. And those ancient Universal energies also vibrate deep within the ground, beneath your country.

The highest quotient of Alien technology is also buried under India and its immediate neighbours. The Himalayas, for example, will begin to reveal its hidden caches when the time is right.

It is also your responsibility, as Indian lightworkers, to awaken the rest of the world to the existence of Universal beings. You must help others accept that these are friends, not invaders; friends who wish to encourage your growth and evolution.

You are programmed with Universal DNA. You are linked with any Universal friend or society with which you desire to interact. Use this knowledge and awareness to increase your connection.

Once again, we are saying this to you today because a new energetic band-width has opened up during this Diwali period. This will allow lightworkers, and other energetically-sensitive beings, to tune into Universal energies at an accelerated pace, if they so choose.

This band-width will only increase over time. Ride it. Use it.

Download information. Communicate with Universal friends. Tune into other societies; and other aspects of the self in different incarnations. Start living as a Universal Being in Human form.

Haven't we always had Universal DNA in our structures?

The evolution of the human race has accelerated over the past decade. Though you always had Universal DNA in your structure, for the most part it remained dormant. Most humans focused upon their current existence on Planet Earth.

Now, however, with your increased knowledge, wisdom, awareness and personal frequencies, you are able to understand that you are simultaneously incarnated throughout the Universe, in differing societies and forms. Earth is but one such choice.

When this knowledge moves from the brain into the physical structure, as you truly internalize it, it activates the dormant DNA, which in turn activates cell memory. Cell memory allows you to then connect more fluidly with other aspects of the self. And once again, your frequencies rise.

This makes you more psychic, intuitive, compassionate, empathetic and aware. You become less judgmental. You start seeing the 'bigger picture' more frequently than before. This leads to divine detachment.

At the same time, your pituitary and pineal glands are being excessively stimulated. This gives you the opportunity to work at a very accelerated pace. You will find your mental faculties increasing. You will be able to grasp concepts more easily and fully than before. That which just 'didn't make sense' to you earlier will become quite apparent. Your need to question, assimilate and grow will increase. Enjoy the process.

As a medium, I have been connected with Master energies for years. Now, from what you are saying, is my current connection with Universal beings, or with the Masters of old?

The current connection for anyone is a combination of the two. You cannot separate them anymore. In the past, for example, when you tapped into the Sai or the Mohammed, you connected with their lower frequencies. Those more specifically connected with Planet Earth. Now, you are learning to go deeper into their energy structure. At this rarified level, the energies are predominantly Universal.

I have a question about the Gods and Goddesses of ancient times. The forms that humans painted or sculpted: were these their actual forms, or our interpretation of them?

Again, it was a combination of the two. In that era, a physical form was of prime importance. It gave Man something tangible to focus upon. Even today, most need a sculpture or a picture of their deity to facilitate a connection.

These great energy beings actually appeared to the people of Planet Earth, molding their energies into a recognizable form. These were then further interpreted and painted or sculpted by various artists.

So were these their actual forms? Not really, because these beings were of pure energy and vibration. But yes, because they assumed them temporarily for the benefit of the human race.

Elements of their energies were focused upon, and then depicted through sculpture and art. Most ancient art depicts Gods and Goddesses as having very powerful, striking eyes. This was an interpretation of their high frequencies.

Similarly, most were given a head-dress of some form. This was the human interpretation of the energy emanations from their crown-chakra area. Some artists might portray this as a golden head-dress, and others as a halo.

A third area often highlighted in religious art is the third-eye. This was sometimes decorated with a bindi, or a serpent, a cross or an ankh. More than the obvious power emanating from this area, this was symbolic of multi-dimensionality.

These beings, with their latent power, offered humans a glimpse into different aspects of the Self. They saw them not just in one form, but as a series of inter-connected forms. Through this, the “Gods” demonstrated to the human race the multiple facets of the self, and how one could choose to be who one desired.

Why were the Gods always depicted with an excess of jewelry?

Jewelry symbolizes wealth. This was symbolic of their wealth of knowledge, wisdom, awareness, abundance, and also of their multi-hued facets.

Why did Gandhi always surround himself with women?

You are aware of his self-reported physical reasons for doing so. We will speak of his energetic reasons.

He kept tilting into masculine imbalance. This often led him into taking impulsive action; that which would be detrimental to the country and the world. The presence of women around him brought this into alignment. He was also urged by their energies to tap into gentleness and creativity.

YOU ARE BLESSED BY THE COLLECTIVE.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

We will now speak of your current political leader, once again from an energetic perspective, to help you help him, and keep him on track.

One of the greatest strengths of the Modi is his ability to harness and work with multiple energetic strands. If an average human can harness and work with, hypothetically, one hundred strands of energy at a time, the Modi can work with one thousand. In general, he can hold and wield approximately ten times more energy than the average person.

This ability is a double-edged sword. Used 'positively', he could choose to access (for self and for the benefit of all) multiple strands of Universal energies, work at ten times the pace of another leader, and benefit the country ten-fold. Similarly, he can multi-task ten times more than an average leader. And to answer an unvoiced question in this room, this 'multiple of ten' does apply to him specifically.

Used 'negatively', he could also harness ten times the amount of energies that would adversely affect the country and the self.

Dear friends, you are aware that we are non-judgmental. We simply use the words 'positive' and 'negative' to illustrate a point. But at a practical level, he has the energetic ability to take the country, at an accelerated pace, in either a progressive or a regressive direction.

Now, either choice would help India and her peoples evolve; but quite naturally, you would prefer an upward swing, where people grow through education, awareness and abundance.

He walks a tightrope, because energetically he is so 'open' that he often gets consumed by external energies. Though he certainly 'knows his own mind', he is often unaware that he is being energetically influenced by groups and individuals around him. Due to this, his frequencies will keep changing, depending on whom he is communicating with.

You, as lightworkers, can help keep him on-track, by sending your light and energies to his higher presence, and by continually urging him to work for the betterment, prosperity, awakening and advancement of your country.

You will observe, over time, that though he does affect some wonderful and beneficial changes for your country, there will be 'pockets' in which he goes awry. The moment you observe this happening, send him light, and urge him to work with Universal energetic strands that will be the most beneficial for the collective.

Is he self-serving?

Of course, dear friend. Which politician is truly altruistic? But these can be held in check, if you aid him.

When a political head is elected, this is generally done by the energies of the country collective. Once in office, he then begins to exercise his power, to take the country on a certain trajectory.

The Modi came in with this structure, but he is now opening up to allow the energies of the people to continue to influence him. The governance is really in your hands. His future decisions will be influenced by the collective desire. And please remember, if you don't bother to think about this, or energetically do something about it, it is the equivalent of 'not voting'. Your opinion goes unacknowledged and uncounted.

Keep abreast of his policies and choices. Use your power and energetic influence to bring India up, so that it truly becomes a global country, rather than an isolated one. Help raise the standard of living. Bring abundance and education to the masses. Blast those areas in which you feel he is going into contraction, so that you help open him out, and benefit your land.

So we are now living in a true democracy?

This 'true democracy' has come into energetic beingness for the first time in the history of your land. Now help it become a reality.

He does not seem to have much gentleness around him.

He works predominantly with his own energies. He does not need a wife or a partner to complete him. He is working, on a personal level, to complete himself.

Again, if a leader works this way and manages to achieve wholeness and completeness, he then takes the whole country in that direction. But if he fails in this endeavor, and creates internal lack and incompleteness, then once again he takes the country down that path. Any world figure always has a personal mission, and a public one. Yet they are always inter-twined.

Can't we work as a group for him right now?

Indeed you can. Center yourselves. Visualize the Modi as you know him. Urge his higher energies to direct him to bring abundance to the people of India. Start with that alone. (Pause)

And so it is, and so it is, and so it is.

Now, dear friends, let us request you to invite into this room a group of magnificent visiting healers. You have never before interacted with these entities. Welcome them. They are 'passing by' and are willing to work with the friends mentioned at the start of this meeting, and with all of you as well.

(Turning to G) No, they cannot be invited to work with the collective consciousness.

(G laughing) Yes, I was just thinking of that!

This is a specific group who are only here briefly. Invite them into this room. A team of 7 magnificent healers. They are not in any shape or form you would recognize. Just visualize them as light, and mentally request them to work for the self and for anyone else you desire. Open up your energies up and receive. (Pause)

End this work by hearing the sound of bells in your head. Let them ring out!

Thank you.

Many Masters and Guides are present here today. They will not individually identify themselves; but if you sense them, please give them your love and appreciation. (Pause)

YOU ARE BLESSED AND EMBRACED BY THE ENERGIES OF THE ASHTAAR COMMAND.
