CHRISTMAS 2014: UNITY THROUGH LOVE (Part 2)

VARIOUS MASTERS SHARE THEIR CONTRIBUTION TO THE ENERGIES OF CHRISTMAS 2014

Blessings!

THE UNIFIED ENERGIES OF THE MAHA AVATAR BABAJI AND THE HIGH LORD MITREYA GREET YOU.

Our contribution to the energies of Union will be to help you achieve breakthroughs in science, medicine and other areas of healing.

We are using this very fertile energetic period to implant, into the minds of the appropriate and receptive scientists, doctors, healers, just the right amount of medical impetus, offering them the opportunity to make breakthroughs.

We are not permitted to directly implant large quantities of knowledge and information, as this may not be appropriate for that person, or for the human race as a collective. But we are permitted to stimulate the cerebral cortex and other selective portions of the brain, so that individuals are urged to reach into their own expanded energies, and download the appropriate information.

We are using the upcoming three-week period to 'sow the seeds', which will then germinate in their own time.

This applies to anyone in these fields who desires to interact with our frequencies. None of this will be done at the conscious level. The higher consciousness has to demand these implants.

These seeds will bear fruit over the next three years. Some of these medical discoveries and cures will appear very quickly. Others will need time to be processed and assembled.

As always, our greatest foe in this process will be the pharmaceutical industry as a collective. This industry will do everything it can to suppress these breakthroughs, as many will be inexpensive, simple methods of curing diseases and stabilizing the human body.

Though a few of the ingredients will be synthetic, most of these ‘miracle cures’ will come from natural sources.

We request you to help us by working on a regular basis on the higher-soul frequencies of the Pharma industry as a collective. Urge it to open up and truly serve the needs of humanity, rather than suppress these cures for self-serving greed, control and the need for personal glory.

The second level of energy implants will be offered to you and others like you: Lightworkers, healers, and those who truly desire to offer service to humanity. Our implants will help you work more effectively with any healing technique you may be using, even if it one of your own creation.

This applies to healing in any form. Not just standard practices of healing, but also healing through the voice, healing with music, and healing with words and communication such as counseling and guidance. It also applies to the omnipotent healing touch of a mother, who nurtures her child.

All of you, and most of the Lightworkers worldwide, have already contracted to work with our energies. You have given us permission to affect the necessary implants in your brains, so that you can take your unique ways of healing to the next level.

Thank you!

Thank yourselves. You have chosen it.

A word of caution. In those moments when you go into self-doubt and ask yourselves questions like “Am I really effective as a healer?” or “Does my healing really make a difference?”, you are stemming the flow and dimming the implants that we are giving you.

Here, we cannot help you. It is truly up to you whether or not you dim the light, or work with the full flow of our unified energies.

These implants will be being placed in your brains over the next three weeks. Stay open, have faith in the self, deem yourself worthy, and you will receive them fully. If you go into repeated doubt, you will be ‘snuffing out the candles’.

Enjoy the upgrade.

There are already many breakthroughs, such as the use of Marijuana as a healing substance; but it is the Governments as well as the Pharma companies that are opposing this. So should we work for them as well?

Yes, in many cases they work together to stifle breakthroughs; but the energetic thrust comes from the Pharma companies. In most cases, Governments are self-serving; but being in energetic chaos, they do not pose much of a threat. The Pharma companies are far more focused in this opposition. Their greed makes them razor-sharp in energetic intent. So work for them specifically.

A few months ago, I saw a film called “A Fire in the Blood”, which described exactly what you are discussing. It was a documentary, and it spoke of the power of the US Pharma lobby. Drugs that they were supplying to Africa for the HIV virus were so highly priced, that most of the patients couldn’t afford them, and therefore died.

Then an Indian from CIPLA produced a generic drug that had the same curative effect, and cost about one tenth of the US-supplied one. The Pharma Lobby of the US threatened Africa, and told them that if they bought this alternative drug, then America would put an embargo on all their other sanctions.

We provoked the creation and release of this film.

What is healing, really?

Healing is a process whereby you first deem yourself worthy to receive and process energies to be in the perfect balance of body, mind and spirit. When you begin to experience this, you feel urged to share this perfection with others. As simple as that.

Blessings!

YOU ARE IN THE EMBRACE OF THE BUDDHA.

The Buddh contracts, during this period of unification, to working with the media. Wisdom through the spread of knowledge and awareness.

The worldwide media is currently divided into two broad groups. Those who truly wish to inform and educate, and those who wish to ‘cash in’ on sensationalism. The current tilt is in favour of sensationalism, as this sells better, and generates more income.

The Buddh is going to be working with both groups. He will help the first group touch deep inner wisdom and knowledge; so that these media men, reporters, filmmakers and authors touch and access aspects within the self they did not know they had. They will then draw upon feminine creativity and offer their newfound, expanded wisdom and knowledge to the world.

The Buddh will work with the latter group in an interesting way. He is not going to attempt to stem sensationalism, as the human race still responds to titillation. Instead, he is going to stimulate these media-men to offer deep and subtle messages through the medium of sensationalism and titillation. These will be subliminal messages that also get through.

So both aspects are going to grow; but grow with further responsibility.

Dear friends, the Buddh considers each and every one of you members of the Media; as you are purveyors of Spiritualism. You educate, you share, you counsel, you advise you guide and you inspire others.

Enjoy this, and use it even more responsibly than you did in the past. All Lightworkers will be called upon, during 2015, to speak up and speak out. You must educate and enlighten at least ten times more than you did in the past.

Here we do not mean ten times more in terms of hours; but with ten times the intensity, focus and dedication.

With this comes great responsibility. You must intuit, in each situation, and with each person or group, how much to say, how to phrase it, and how best to reach them. You walk a fine line here: you must not ‘put people off’ by overloading them with information. This will be the tendency of most Lightworkers, as they are always very enthusiastic. Do not inundate seekers with your knowledge. Share only that information which provokes them to question you further. Then share a little more. Tempt them, rather than force-feeding them large chunks of indigestible energetic fodder.

So share with great intensity, but also with great intuition and responsibility. You are always welcome to call upon our energies in these moments. We will then work together to enlighten the world.

Dear Friends, it may interest you to know that the Buddha is always depicted as a very tranquil being. This core strand always has existed, and will always exist; but the current Buddhist energies are extremely vibrant and pro-active. They are not 'laid-back' at all.

The Walking Buddha moves freely among every kind of person, every situation and every aspect of society; sharing his balance, wisdom and knowledge with great intensity. He is extremely dynamic now.

You are in the embrace of the Buddha.

GREETINGS FROM ABRAHAM OF THE COSMOS

It has been many years since we have spoken through this child. We would like to introduce ourselves to you. Abraham of the Cosmos was indeed the Abraham chronicled in the Bible. But what is not commonly known is that he was an Extra-Terrestrial being, who assumed a human form.

In those days, the Abraham did not disclose this to the general public. He did what he needed to do in secret. His world mission was to direct and flood planet Earth with Universal Energies; those necessary for her current evolution. Yes, energies required for the earth years 2014 to 2017.

The Abraham is a multi-dimensional being. He had several simultaneous incarnations on Planet Earth, each in a different time-line. Yet each incarnation knew of the other.

The Abraham of the Cosmos is a Universal Master. One not widely known by name; but nonetheless, one who works closely with all Masters who govern Planet Earth. His current mission is to help them co-ordinate and align Earth with the necessary Universal energies that will take her from the 3rd to the 5th dimension.

Abraham of the Cosmos offers you, during this period of Union, the opportunity to explore and merge with any one aspect of your Universal incarnations.

Should you choose to do this, still the self and call upon Abraham's frequencies. Demand to be shown an appropriate incarnation, and then be open to the visual and the story that unfolds.

For most, it will come in the form of a daydream or a fantasy. Those who are comfortable with deep meditation will receive it in a different way. But do not deny the experience: enjoy it, explore it, and unite with that aspect of the self.

Only one aspect?

Yes, only one. Since we are going to take you in 'very deep'; it would be counter-productive to the self to try for more than one.

Do not 'try hard' to receive it; simply lay yourself open and let the connection unfold. And be ready to receive what you are shown.

Abraham is also referred to, in the Quran, as Ibrahim.

Yes, he is cited by different names in almost every religious text. Each refers to a different incarnated aspect of him.

Since we do not have a visual of him to go by, is there any particular energetic colour though which we can connect to him?

Abraham is an energetic chameleon. He can assume any shape, colour and vibration that suits your structure. So you may choose to create one, if it pleases you; but he is formless. He is pure energy.

Did Abraham Lincoln hold his energies? I intuitively feel this is so, because of the way he worded the declaration of Independence.

Yes. Abraham Lincoln was one of his simultaneous incarnations. He, too, knew of his own multi-dimensionality. Can you intuit a few of the others?

(The group makes several incorrect guesses. The Master shakes his head and then answers)

To name but a few: Leonardo da Vinci. Copernicus. Nostradamus.

BLESSINGS FROM ABRAHAM OF THE COSMOS.

Our energies will work towards uniting the Islamic community with all other world communities. This task, as you well know, is a daunting one. This cannot happen overnight. But our frequencies are working ceaselessly towards bringing this about.

We have chosen to dedicate our energies to this mission, and we will not stop till this has been achieved, no matter how long it takes...a decade or a millennium.

We have also contracted not to undergo any further personal growth till this goal is achieved. This is not penance; it is dedication.

We desire to bring about Universal Brotherhood; that which is the Soul purpose of the Mohammed.

BLESSINGS FROM THE HIGHER SOUL FREQUENCIES OF THE ONE YOU CALLED THE OSAMA BIN LADEN.

GREETINGS FROM THE GERMAIN!

Do not judge him, dear friends! (Murmurs of 'sorry' from the group)

He is a great soul. A great soul. As we shared with you earlier: the twin soul of the Obama. Two Master teachers working from different perspectives: one with nurture, and the other with 'the crack of the whip'. But both equally valid. Two sides of the same coin. But a great soul energy.

Next week, on Christmas day itself, the Christ Office will address you.

BE IN LIGHT. BE IN JOY. BE IN HARMONY.

BLESSINGS FROM THE ST. GERMAIN.

(Speaking to K, whose birthday it was) You wanted the birthday blessings! You have now got the birthday blessings! (Laughter)

Cowards, all of you! No one attempted the exercise! (Laughter) (Note: this was in reference to a mirror exercise given to the group the previous week) I am still waiting to see you naked! (Laughter) ...Through my eyes!

THE MEHER BLESSES YOU ALL.
