

Sohrab's Channeling

7th May 2015

A BIRTHDAY EXERCISE

THE REALM OF INFINITE POSSIBILITIES

THE REALM OF INFINITE PROBABILITIES

THE REALM OF INFINITE VISION

SURFING THE UNIVERSAL WEB

THE REALM OF THE INCREDIBLE LIGHTNESS OF BEING

TRANSPARENCY DURING 2015

Greetings!

(Meher Baba blesses two group members whose birthdays are being celebrated.)

The Meher has not forgotten the others; he blesses all of you!

And the Meher would like to offer you a little birthday tip. Whenever you choose to celebrate a birthday, be it that of a loved one, friend, or even an admired leader or movie star whom you don't know; take a moment to identify at least 5 qualities that you perceive in that person.

In general, these will be ones you admire; but even if a distasteful one comes to mind, make a note of it. Then acknowledge that these qualities also exist within the self. They have to be a part of you, or else you would not have noticed them.

It is naturally easier to acknowledge the qualities that please you in another, but if you find yourself identifying a distasteful one, please do not reject it. Instead, celebrate it within the self and embrace it. Know it is a valid part of the self. Only after assimilating it can you choose, in the future, when to exercise that quality, and when not to do so. This way, that aspect ceases to control you. You are now in charge of it.

(Indicating the ladies celebrating their birthdays) All of you know these two friends. As an exercise, please focus on either one of them, and identify 5 qualities that you associate with her. (Pause) Now celebrate those qualities within the self. (Pause)

BLESSINGS FROM THE MEHER.

THE GERMAIN GREETES YOU.

We have spoken in the past about the Realm of Infinite Possibilities. We would like to share with you today, a little more information about other realms that exist within this one, because the Realm of Infinite Possibilities truly is All That Is.

First of all, when we speak of a realm, please do not view it in a linear manner. From your perspective, as a child advances in school from one class to another, each class IS a separate realm. But in energetic terms, all realms co-exist simultaneously, one within the other.

For example, when you stir milk and sugar into a cup of tea, there are now four realms in one: water, tea, sugar and milk. Yet you cannot really tell where one realm ends and the other begins, because it is now a homogenous mixture. And yet the tea, the sugar, the milk and the water are still distinct realms, co-existing within the same space.

In the same way, the realm of Infinite Possibilities contains within it the Realm of Infinite Probabilities. Possibilities are countless and limitless. Probabilities are more finite, and are based on your current frequency.

Please give us an example of this?

It is possible for anyone in this room to choose to study and become an Astro-physicist. But the probability of your choosing that, in this lifetime, is far less. So the Realm of Infinite Probabilities is a sub-set of the realm of Infinite Possibilities, based on the frequencies you contain, emit, and desire to interact with in this existence.

Now let us speak of a few other Realms contained within the Realm of Infinite Possibilities.

The Realm of Infinite Vision:

The basic level of vision on earth is through sight. You look around you, receive impressions, make choices, and observe and analyse all the visual stimuli around you.

Less evolved people make strong judgments based on what they see and hear. They instantly categorize a person by his appearance, speech rhythms, clothing, manners, cleanliness, attitudes and so on.

As you evolve as a human being, you now begin to add to this inner vision. You move beyond the external stimuli, and start to 'see' the person more for who he is, rather than relying solely on his external appearance.

Most of you are easily able to work at this level. We would now like to urge you further, so that you touch the third level of Inner sight. This level has very little to do with physical sight. You now need to be able to enter a person's energy field, and scan it with the inner eye.

Isn't this invading their private space?

It is not, because work at this level is beyond the concept of invasiveness. When you relate to another at this level, you are always welcomed. And it can only be successfully completed when you offer them your energies to them as fully as they offer you theirs. It is a temporary, but full, merger. At this level, you become them; and they become you.

All Lightworkers must now demand this of the self. When you only go to Level 2, you are the loser.

Could you please give us an example?

A beggar at a traffic signal could be a Grand Master. If you do not take the trouble to activate your third-level sight, you will not notice this, and therefore not benefit from his energies. Do you recall the words of Mother Theresa, who said that she only saw God in every starving child? She truly meant that.

You may even feel urged to do so when involved in a disharmonious situation. Sometimes you may have to face an altercation, and simultaneously merger energies with your 'opponent'. This is even more challenging, but provided you stay balanced, very do-able.

Once you are familiar with level 3, you then have to move onto level 4: surfing the Universal Web.

You are all aware of the plethora of information available to you when you surf the World Wide Web. Imagine the magnificence and limitlessness of the Universal Web! Tap into this, and you can receive Universal information, wisdom and knowledge of All That Is.

When a medium channels, he or she is tapping into this. But you don't have to be an official channel to do so; it is your divine right to access it at all times. You just need to believe that you can.

How can we access the Universal Web?

You first have to believe that you can. Certainty is key. You have to feel deserving of the connection. And you have to thirst for knowledge. These three factors are essential.

On Earth, when you surf the net, you are able to access virtually any information you desire. But parents often install a Net Nanny to protect their children from undesirable websites. The Universal Web has a similar Net Nanny; one which only allows you access to that level of information which you are energetically ready to receive.

Would an earth criminal be able to access information with which he could cause chaos and destruction?

Yes he would, provided that he felt deserving of the information, and provided that it was appropriate for his blueprint, as well as the blueprints of those he would affect. This demonstrates that the Universal Net Nanny takes into account the readiness and needs of the individual, as well as that of the collective.

So how do these levels of vision tie into the Realm of Infinite Probabilities?

Let us answer this question using him (Sohrab) as an example.

It was a strong probability that he was going to become a public medium in this lifetime. He was completely unaware of this consciously in his youth, but his higher soul guided him onto the path. The higher soul offered him opportunity after opportunity to learn and grow.

During his early training, he was given limited access to the Universal Web. At first, his public meetings consisted of only 3 people. At that time, the information access he had was appropriate for his level of evolution, as well as that of the three group members.

Had he been given wider access at that point, it would have scared him off the path, and he would have, in all probability, put a stop to it. But instead, the limited access kept him (and the sitters) thirsting for more and more knowledge. As the collective got hungrier and more interested, the knowledge base expanded.

Now let us say, hypothetically, that he tries to use his flow to deliberately mislead people for self-serving purposes or to attempt to gamble, it would completely dry up. Why? Because it is not appropriate for him, or for his group. That is not his course.

All highly successful individuals, be they politicians, businessmen or movie stars, have either consciously or unconsciously tapped into the Universal Web to create what was a strong probability in their lives.

Please do not think that they are just so 'lucky' or that they 'have it so easy'. Remember what we have said to you in the past: all public figures have a dual mission. They have to work at personal growth, and simultaneously have a public mission to fulfil. They have double the responsibility: responsibility to the self, as well as to a large group of people.

The stress and strain of this often causes them to go wayward, and that is why so many public figures have emotional upheavals in their lives, marital and family problems, tremendous financial crashes and often become substance abusers.

Is this what's happening with Salman Khan?

The Salman Khan episode is the perfect example of a dual lesson: one for him, and one for the general public. His various lessons are private, but the public is being invited to question themselves, their ethical code, the legal system, general bribery and corruption, and so on.

Do we need to work at accessing the Universal Web at all times?

The Universal Web is accessed by you at all times, but at a higher conscious level. If you weren't connected to it, you would not exist: either in this incarnation, or even in spirit. The Universal Web is also the Universal Soul. All that is. The Godhead.

But ideally, you are now at an energetic level where you are ready to consciously access it at all times. It is what is also called The Flow.

You are only able to access that information which is within your energetic spectrum. And the wider your spectrum, the more you grow and evolve. And the more you grow and evolve, the more information you can receive.

Let us illustrate this with a simple example. Two people who speak the same language have a wide spectrum of connect, so they can communicate with one another relatively easily.

Two people who do not share a common language can still communicate with one another through body language, facial expressions, tone of voice and gestures. But their spectrum of connect is narrower.

Now, a man and his pet have an even narrower window of connect, but it can still be achieved through the emotional bond.

The gap narrows even further with your various spirit friends who inhabit this room right now. Here, you can't even see, feel, hear or touch them. Yet you can sense them with Inner vision levels 2, 3 and 4.

So, in short, if you develop Level 4, and bring it to the conscious mind, imagine the vast world of communication that you could develop. You would be able to interact with a Universal Friend as easily as you could with an earth friend.

Now let us examine another realm; one which we will call The Incredible Lightness of Being.

This is a realm which necessitates that you go beyond sight, sound, taste, smell and touch. It is a state of expanded beingness.

On any given day on Earth, you are in some mood or another. Sometimes a dark one, and sometimes a bright one. And these moods are generally governed by your thoughts and experiences at that moment in time.

But if you were to go beyond these superficial aspects, and venture deep into the self, you would discover a magnificent space of pure light. Pure light; with no thoughts, feelings or emotions. A space of Beingness.

This space of Beingness is vital to your existence, not only in an incarnation, but also as a soul. This is a space of non-vibration. It is nothing, yet everything. Dark Matter. Touch this for even a micro-second, and you experience The Incredible Lightness of Being.

You must now acknowledge the existence of this realm, and begin to experiment with it. You will not be able to 'hold onto it', but you can touch it and experience it.

Touch this realm, and you can transmute depression into pure joy, disease into perfect health and ignorance into wisdom.

Would this wipe out our Earthly experiences?

Not at all. You have come here to experience. But you would be able to speedily change around your experiences, learn from them, and then choose to grow through joy instead of through pain. You would repeatedly create magnificent experiences from which to evolve.

The Unicorn is a symbol of this realm.

How can we best touch this realm?

You would have to sit very quietly; ideally in deep meditation. Empty yourself of all thoughts, feelings and emotions. At this point, you will just experience pure light, pure creation. And though we use the word 'experience' for your understanding, it is truly a space of non-experience. It just IS. This is a space of pure potential, pure creation.

How would we know if we have really touched it or not?

When you return, you will just KNOW.

Do we touch this realm in the sleep state?

Yes, you often do so. Now we would like to you consciously induce it.

When we first try, we are going to be so conscious of it, that it's going to be impossible.

So what? Enjoy the attempts, and learn from them. Of course you will have to work at this. But do you have the belief in the self to attempt it several times over? It may take you weeks, even years; but if you thirst for this non-experience, you will achieve it.

Remember, you will not be able to 'hold it', but you can certainly touch it. Repeatedly.

Can it be done by listening to music?

Use any tool that works for you: music, prayer, candlelight, incense, imagery...even humour.

Humour?

Can you recall a point in your life when you have laughed so much that tears have rolled down your cheeks, and you have barely been able to breathe? A moment of sheer orgasmic laughter?

At that point, you touched the Incredible Lightness of Being. Your cells opened up completely, everything was 'blacked out' in your mind, and you were consumed by the laughter.

It may interest you to know that this can also happen during a physical orgasm. But not always. This cannot happen if the sexual union is in any way unwanted, distasteful, painful or traumatic. But when a couple unites in true love, harmony, joy and passion, it generally happens.

What of a scientist's "Eureka" moment?

This actually comes a split second after he has touched this realm.

With reference to your earlier statement about Level 3 connection with a beggar, how do we know when to merge with another's energies?

Tune in to your inner self. Listen to its promptings. The moment you feel an inner prod, or an inexplicable fascination with another, be it a friend or a stranger, initiate an instant merger.

This information is being given to you as Planet Earth is going through a major leap of consciousness as we speak. This will continue at an accelerated pace throughout this year.

Please be the leaders and Lightworkers that you are. Raise your consciousness drastically, and others will feel energetically urged to follow suit. You have to be beacons of light, leading the way. Start with the self; a ripple effect will then be created.

Are there going to be many new inventions and discoveries made this year?

Yes indeed, dear friend. We have spoken of this at length at an earlier session. It may interest you to know that there are going to be over 100,000 new inventions and discoveries, of startling magnitude, this year. Expect maverick cures, wonderful new tools and magnificent discoveries to shortly surface.

Most of these will not come to the public's attention this year, as there will be corporate and governmental suppression, due to fear, greed and a feeling of loss of control on their part. But the breakthroughs will occur, and will surface over time.

What of transparency in this new era?

You are going to experience three levels of transparency on Earth this year.

The first is surface-level transparency. More and more scams are going to come to light. Individuals and corporations are going to be exposed. Dubious activities will come to the public notice. You are all being urged to first examine the self, and then the external environment, so that you speak out, change your ways and do something about it.

The second is physical-body transparency. The human race is going to be detoxifying itself through this year, perhaps 100 times more vigorously than it has in the past. Toxins are going to be constantly released from the physical body. Through this process, some may experience skin eruptions, excessive perspiration and digestive issues.

If a person has a severely repressed issue, the organ connected with it may be strongly affected. In general, healing, counselling and self-search will smoothen the process.

We repeatedly urge you to tune in to the nutritional needs of the body. If this means changing a habituated food pattern, please do so. Listen on a daily basis to the needs of the body, and give it precisely that.

The third is planetary cleansing. This year, Planet Earth is going to do exactly what is necessary for her personal health and well-being. In the past, you have repeatedly abused her, over-polluted her and over-mined her, depleting her natural and bountiful resources. Yet she has always put the needs of you, Her children, first.

This year, She refuses to do so any longer. She is henceforth going to take care of her own needs first. This has never before happened.

This does not mean that she is going to ‘strike down’ her children; but if she needs to cleanse an area, or create a physical shift to release unwanted toxins, She will do so. She will give warning of this to the general populace, but if they ignore her, she will then do what is necessary for the Self.

As Lightworkers, please serve her in any way you feel inclined. Tune into your Mother on a regular basis. If you feel prompted to energize a certain area, or to give it instant healing, please do so without needing to know why. If you feel urged to spread this awareness, please make your voices heard.

Will we experience all these physical shifts?

Some will be apparent at the surface level, and others will be so deep and subtle that you will not even know they have taken place. A lot of such shifts are now vital for her growth and evolution, and will continue through the next few years. She is preparing for a major leap forward in 2017.

We must leave you now.

YOU ARE EMBRACED AND BLESSED BY THE ST. GERMAIN.
