To D: Drain her of her debris and ground it.

To K: Let go of 70% of you illness and trauma TODAY. Today! Today! Spend the entire day by yourself. Ground your toxins, debris, pain and trauma. Release 70% of it into the earth. Work only for the self today.

To K: Support her through this process. Make the intent to be with her energetically all day long.

(Addressing the group)

Greetings!

Though the predominant focus was on that dear friend, each of you has been worked upon today. You may make a conscious choice, if you so desire, and release any one aspect that you wish to ground today. This could be a physical problem, an emotional blockage, a situation in which you are enmeshed in, and so on.

Choose one and ground it. Have no fear that you are polluting Mother Earth; you are not. She will graciously welcome this release and will use it to her benefit.

And once the choice is made, play it out in your head as the day progresses. You have up to 12 midnight today, so work at breakneck speed. Use it to your benefit.

BHAGWAN RAMANA MAHARISHI BLESSES YOU ALL.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

THE GERMAIN GREETES YOU!

Welcome friends!

During the month of September, planet earth is going to be bombarded with Universal frequencies. These are coming in fast and furious, wave after wave.

Solar flares carry the first wave. These will be followed by new crystalline energies, facilitated by magnificent Universal beings. Earth will then receive cosmic rain and cosmic booms.

The SOLAR FLARES will begin to illuminate your cellular structure, activate your DNA and stimulate new pathways in the brain.

On a very practical level this means you will start experiencing a new vibration in the physical body. This vibration will start from one of two places: the 3rd eye (which may make you slightly dizzy and disoriented) or an area between the hara and base chakras (which will make you feel very alive and active).

But no matter the origin, these energies will slowly spread throughout the physical body. At first they will be very subtle and you won't even be aware of them. But if you tune into this process, you will be able to physically feel them. The cells will actually feel like they are popping.

The DNA activation will offer you very lucid dreams and thoughts. Even when awake, you may find strange images arising, many of which will not make sense. The mind may wander a lot, and you may find yourselves exploring aspects of the self in different realms and dimensions. Just go with this process, and explore it even further. If you do so, you will enhance the DNA activation.

The body is likely to feel very vibrant, and this may even make you restless at times. Many will be provoked to start exercising, or doing something very active. Let the body lead you. If you find yourselves sluggish, deliberately open to these energies; you are probably resisting them.

You will also find your brain patterns changing. Your thoughts will be accelerated, and you may find yourselves jumping from thought to thought, or topic to topic. Go with it. You are working towards increasing your ability to access and disseminate information.

Consciously push your boundaries this month. Read an interesting book, or research a new topic on the net. Involve yourself in an exciting discussion. If you choose to explore something you have resisted in the past, you are likely to now find it easier to comprehend.

Tune in to family members, friends and situations; work towards viewing them from a newer, wider perspective. You will find yourselves unable to view things in quite the same way you did in the past. Upgrade your mode of thought, speech and behavior.

Due to this DNA upgrade, some may experience acidity as a result of the cells releasing old patterns and pathways. If this happens, make sure you ingest soothing, cooling alkaline food and liquids.

The solar flares are also going to work in a similar way on your homes and neighborhood. They are also being taken to a new level of vibration. This would be the ideal time, therefore, to spring-clean. Dispose of unwanted clothing and accumulated household goods that hold old vibrations.

Your bodies are likely to urge you to eat high-vibrational foods. Please tune in to their demands. We are not speaking of dieting here; but of your relationship with food in general. If, for example, you are accustomed to very oily or spicy food, and the body requests that you abstain from this for a while, please do so.

The second wave of energies, which are being guided by your Universal friends, are UNIVERSAL CRYSTALLINE ENERGIES.

These will not affect the physical body directly. They will be working with your psyche and your occult frequencies. So choose to consciously 'flow' during this month. You will receive many messages and a lot of guidance from your own higher soul.

These crystalline energies will urge you to explore new concepts. They will offer you the opportunity to move out of your comfort zone. You will be provoked to explore and share exciting new information with others. You will truly be lightworker-teachers.

Use the newly-activated psychic senses to tune into loved ones and friends. You will find yourselves able to do this very easily with children and pets. Enjoy a new rapport with them. Above all, trust your intuition.

The third wave is one we will term COSMIC RAIN. This would actually look like rain, were you able to see it with the naked eye.

Cosmic rain consists of particles of Universal consciousness that flow together in streams and eddies; ones which constantly re-create themselves into different sacred geometrical forms. Cosmic rain activates all Universal societies, taking them to their next level of evolution.

Mother Gaia herself has called for this activation. She desires this for the self, as well as for her various kingdoms. Though this activation has begun this month, it will continue for a long time thereafter.

Cosmic rain offers you, individually, the opportunity to rise above that which has held you back in the past; not only in this incarnation, but over lifetimes.

So if you have identified a repeated energetic pattern that has dogged you for many lifetimes, and you wish to overcome it once and for all, you can actually harness cosmic rain and do so. Forever.

Please understand how momentous this statement is.

When you first started your spiritual journey, you believed that Karma was punishment for past transgressions. You then moved on to accept that this was not divine retribution, but was the soul's choice to create circumstances through which to grow, evolve and learn personal lessons.

Your higher souls are now choosing to once again upgrade the concept of Karma. Your power is now so great that you can continue to choose to learn lessons through karmic circumstances, or choose to 'change your study course' and not learn those lessons at all, or to work at them in a different, novel and unique manner.

Those of you who are on earth during 2015 are forerunners of this new karmic experiment. Many of you have chosen this incarnation to specifically experience this shift in Karma.

The new pattern of karma is an emergent one; it has not even clearly defined itself yet. But it has been brought about by the collective being tired of constant repetition. Many want to start with a new, fresh, clean slate.

Over 99.9% of the people of Earth will not be able to believe this, but those who do will be able to shed past karma and truly start afresh. These will be the forerunners of this cosmic experiment. They will be able to truly own their power and create their own reality.

The process of harnessing cosmic rain to change your karma will also affect your cellular structure. You will be able to shed old trauma, repetitive patterns and modes of thought and behaviour that you have carried forward over lifetimes, and still retain in the cell memory.

But to be able to do so, you have to be able to touch your own power to such an extent that you truly believe that you can do it... because you are worth it. Many who cannot do this on earth will make this their priority when they return to the spirit realm.

What of those who have already given out the intent to void their karma?

Many have already done so, but not even 10% of their karma has been voided, because they do not truly believe that they can do so, and that they are worthy of this act.

Does this apply to the children who are being born this year?

Many children who have chosen to incarnate on planet earth during 2015 have done so. Not all, but many.

These souls have already voided their past karmas, and have come with a blank slate. They are here to literally create a new reality for the self. Parents will therefore find it very difficult to accurately assess their children's inclinations, propensities, soul missions and so on. These children will keep surprising them, changing course as they go along, and creating their own future. But these children will also provoke their parents to follow suit.

Most of the children born this year, whether in affluent circumstances or dire poverty, are coming to offer pure service to their parents and others around them. They will use about 25% of their energies for the self and 75% for others around them.

You must learn to study them carefully. They will be mercurial; veritable energetic chameleons. Most will often be misunderstood; and they will, in turn, confuse you, confound you, amaze you and thrill you.

They will eat 'all the wrong foods' and thrive. They will behave in ways you just can't understand, often saying and doing all the 'wrong' things, and yet thrive. They will experiment with study courses and careers that you consider absurd, and yet make a success of them. They will turn systems on their heads, and come up with ideas and discoveries you cannot begin to imagine.

These children will have an open pipeline to the Universe, and will be able to access higher soul wisdom and Universal knowledge at will.

What I have been getting is that in this month of September one can actually choose the version of whoever is in one's life.

(Smiling) We are just coming to that!

Now let us speak of yet another energy. The Universe is directing to Planet Earth another new pulsation, in the form of Cosmic Booms.

If you tune in to this in a quiet, meditate moment, you will be able to hear it with the inner ear. You may even be able to feel it physically in the body.

The current rhythm is Boom (3 silent beats) Boom (3 silent beats) Boom etc. But this pace will increase over time.

This cosmic boom is a sound being created in a Universe in a different dimension to yours. It then enters your Universe, and spreads to all societies in existence. Each one is using it in a manner suitable to its growth and evolution.

Planet earth has chosen to use this for transformation of the self. Therefore each kingdom on earth will use it for personal transformation, in a manner most suited to its collective.

If you choose to tune into this cosmic boom on a regular basis, you can use its energies to bring about a transformation of the self in any way you desire. You can use it to change your state of health or the shape of your physical body. You can use it to speed up your mental faculties and the way you view things. You can use it to change the state of relationships or situations in which you feel enmeshed. You can use it to change your home, your environment and your country. The list is endless.

Surely harnessing this can only be dependent on a person's frequencies?

Yes, indeed. One person may be able to use it to alter his entire life, whereas another will only be able to affect minor changes in it.

This brings us to your earlier statement "What I have been getting is that in this month of September one can actually choose the version of whoever is in one's life."

As you well know, on a 3D level, you do not have the right to try and change anyone else.

But on a 5D level, you have every right to change your own reality, and to then draw the 5D aspect of that person into your 3D reality. And you do by riding upon the cosmic boom.

The cosmic boom cannot be directed, as you normally direct energy. But you can learn to resonate with it.

Once you start resonating with it, by consciously acknowledging its frequencies as a part of your own, it automatically elevates you to your 5D aspect. Once there, you instantly interact with the 5D aspect of everyone in your current life.

Please can you illustrate this with an example?

Let us say that you and your husband are at odds, here on earth. When you resonate with the Cosmic Boom, you are instantly elevated to your 5D self. There, you automatically interact with your husband's 5D self. The more you interact with him there, bringing harmony into your relationship, the quicker will his earthly self begin to change.

In actual fact, his 3D self will remain the same. But you will be able to interact with that aspect of him that is 5D, even in this 3D reality. So from your higher-vibrational perception, he will have changed.

Why do I keep seeing the symbol of infinity?

This is a very, very powerful sacred-geometrical symbol. When you spin the symbol of infinity on its central axis, it forms another, more complex symbol; one that looks like a donut.

These donut-like symbols then intertwine with one another, and take on a chain-like formation. This spreads throughout the body, energetically linking one cell to another.

Now imagine chains spreading outward from each cell, linking them with others in their vicinity. This forms an even more complex, 12D structure. This invites the DNA to rapidly evolve.

It is this 12D structure that permits you to now interact with different aspects of the self, in different incarnations, in different timelines and dimensions. This is because the symbol of infinity, in itself, transcends time, space and dimension.

We do suggest that you use this symbol to your practical benefit. If you are, for example, confused about a problem or a situation you are facing, or unable to grasp a concept being offered to you, take a moment and activate the symbol of infinity in the center of your third-eye.

Start to spin it on its central axis, faster and faster. The direction of the spin will be guided by the self. Just do this for half a minute or so; then stop and go back to the problem at hand. You will find yourself able to view it from a much wider perspective.

What you are actually doing is simply stimulating the chains of the infinity symbol between your cells, as well as between you and the situation at hand. This creates a cohesive flow of energies.

Is what they are doing at CERN mirroring what happened to Atlantis?

The energies of many of the CERN scientists are indeed similar to the energy workers of Atlantis, prior to its destruction. Many are filled with greed, arrogance and superiority, and believe that they can bend the Universe to their will.

As humans, you have the divine right to know that you are co-creators with the Universe. In fact we have repeatedly urged you to understand that you are divinity itself, and that the Universe (call it God, if you will) resides within you.

But many of these scientists have lost their humility and their respect for the force of the Universe itself. They believe that they are beyond this. They take no responsibility for their actions.

To work at that level, you have to first 'become one' with the Universe. Then you have the divine right to be a co-creator. But many of them separate themselves from the Divine Flow, and then attempt to manipulate it to their will, generally for self-serving purposes, fame and pure monetary gain. This will not be tolerated.

So will there be destruction?

Of course there will be destruction, in some form or another.

Dear friends, the September energies that we have spoken of are going to set off a ripple effect on Earth. These energies are very sensitive to your will, your thoughts, your deeds and your actions.

There is likely to be another worldwide shake-up in the money market. And if individuals and corporates don't wake up and begin to initiate a healthier, balanced and equitable distribution of wealth and finance, the market will get even more volatile.

You are also likely to create scarcity of electricity, food and water. Humanity must now awaken and take responsibility for that which they have done in the past, and that which they continue to do in the present.

Are you aware that you have already wiped out almost 50% of species of marine life? How many more are you going to kill by irresponsibly polluting your waters? If you continue to do so, you will throw off the entire ecological balance of your planet. Similarly, you have already degraded your crops with harmful fertilizers and pesticides. Wake up now, or have no food to eat in the future.

The human race keeps choosing to learn through pain and trauma. It is only when there is an acute water shortage that you learn to be more responsible with water, and realize how important it is to you. Now choose to learn through joy instead. Change your systems. Learn to be responsible before you hit rock-bottom.

Will rifts be created in different dimensions due to the irresponsible activity at CERN?

Some inter-dimensional rifts have already been created by their actions. Please understand that we are not denying the human race its right to experiment and push the boundaries of science. We are simply questioning the intent behind these experiments. When working at this level of energy, if the intent is not pure, the results are generally catastrophic.

However, the Cosmic Boom is also opening up necessary portals in time and space. These inter-dimensional wormholes are for the advancement of the human race and its consciousness.

Lightworkers and energy seekers will be able to use these to time-travel, and visit aspects of the self in other realms, time-lines and dimensions. You will be able to assimilate knowledge, resolve issues from the past, and return to the self in the next second.

I recently had a similar experience. I was dozing in a plane, and was aware that I was out of my body and visiting a magnificent spacecraft. I am not sure what happened there, but suddenly the flight attendant tapped my shoulder and I was back in an instant. But somehow I felt that I was upside-down in that spacecraft.

You were not literally ‘upside-down’, but the amount you assimilated in that short time was so overwhelming that you felt as if you had been turned on your head when you returned.

But to summarize: when energies are manipulated incorrectly by a powerful group like CERN, the results can be catastrophic. Inter-dimensional rifts can open up that cause havoc and destruction.

Could you give us an example of this please?

Hypothetically, if a large rift opens up between your planet and another planet which does not have a compatible atmosphere, the oxygen of earth could literally be suck out of it in an instant. This is but one example.

Why don't Universal Friends and Masters stop what is happening?

We cannot stop this! We constantly guide you, but your free will is paramount and must be respected by us. This is how your society has chosen to grow.

Can you understand our frustration? We would like to awaken you in an instant, but we are not permitted to interfere directly with your growth. Your planet is one of the few that has this level of free-will. Only daring societies choose this. You often err very badly; but through that you grow, evolve and awaken.

But most people are simply not aware of all of this!

With the human race's current level of energies, ignorance is no longer an excuse. The collective now has to awaken and take responsibility for itself and its actions.

So if people like us choose to work towards a new Earth, one that is awake and responsible, will it really happen?

Of course it will! You will use the symbol of infinity to set off a chain reaction of awakening and awareness. And this chain reaction will be multi-dimensional.

The symbol of infinity does not really function in 3D; it functions as an illusion in 3D. Its base frequencies are 5D. And by using it at a 3D level, you are simply urging the cells to move collectively into 5D.

Could you speak to us of the term “quantum”?

On Earth, you use the word ‘quantum’ when you refer to something of great magnitude, such as, for example, a ‘quantum leap in perception’.

From our perspective, ‘quantum’ refers to an amalgamation of energies that are not generally compatible with one another, and yet work in perfect harmony to create new, complex sacred-geometrical patterns. This quantum energy facilitates easy movement between time-lines, dimensions and realities; ones which would not normally come together in harmony.

So is this a characteristic of the Source?

The source is quantum.

You have spoken of all of these energies working with Earth during the month of September. Will they continue to do so after?

Yes, they will indeed, but the strongest thrust will be received in September. That is why we urge you to be open this month, and to tune into the Universe and your own energies simultaneously.

And will more and more energies be coming in?

This is just the beginning.

Is there anything we can consciously do to help all of this?

You can choose to speedily evolve, both individually and collectively.

So what is happening at CERN was not part of 'the grand scheme of things', by which we learn and grow?

The experiments at CERN have gone beyond what had been intended for the growth of planet earth. As you well know, in 'the grand scheme of things', you certainly need both 'positive' and 'negative' experiences for your evolution.

CERN was intended to be a fertile ground for scientific exploration. You were intended to explore the God Particle, and even open up certain rifts in time and space. But, as mentioned earlier, the scientific and exploratory intent was meant to be pure. Instead it has got contaminated.

Has this gone as intended, by now you would have been travelling inter-dimensionally and welcoming Universal friends to Earth.

Is the new Pope going to introduce us to Universal Friends?

In all likelihood, yes. But it will now be indefinitely delayed. This is because another huge wave of 'the fear of attack' has arisen in the consciousness of Man. This has been deliberately engineered by those whom you call 'the Illuminati', and has actually been spread through some at CERN.

There are actually those who work with instruments that affect your brainwaves and increase your levels of fear. Look around you: aren't people much more fear-based today, as compared to a year ago?

Why are the Illuminati doing this? And will the energies of September counteract this?

Why? To gain power and absolute control, of course. Once the people of Earth interact with expanded, benevolent Universal Friends, they will understand so much more than they do today. And those who seek absolute control over the masses will lose it.

The energies of September offer you the opportunity to wipe the old slate clean, and to start afresh. So why not re-write your future? Start with the self.

What percentage of the population is needed to re-write this?

All it will take is one single individual, with complete belief in this concept, in the self, and in self-worth.

YOU ARE BLESSED TODAY BY THE ST. GERMAIN AND A UNIVERSAL COLLECTIVE.

YOU ARE ALSO BLESSED BY THE ENERGIES OF THE INFINITY.
