

Sohrab's channeling

1st February 2018

CANCER (IN 2018)

THE SUPER MOON

DIMENSIONS

(Prior to the meeting, Sohrab invited a visiting Oncologist to address the group. She spoke compassionately of her experiences with Cancer patients, particularly children with cancer. She also answered several questions the group had about the subject.)

Greetings!

Before we proceed with the meeting at hand, let us briefly touch upon the subject just discussed. There is good news: a generic cure for cancer has already been discovered. This cure will be comprised of natural substances, combined in specific proportions.

Various Pharmaceutical companies are working towards harnessing and marketing this cure. As they desire to benefit from this financially, they are naturally suppressing this information and keeping it from the general public.

This is going to delay the widespread release of this information. It will be several years before they discover that this medication cannot be synthesized and mass-produced as 'a drug'; it will only be effective in its pure, natural form. Over time, however, the information will 'leak out' and be made available to the general public. So take heart.

As Lightworkers, you can aid in this process by sending out the intent that this information be made public as soon as possible. Work towards the exposure of that which has already been discovered.

Many of you have wondered why there appears to be a sudden increase in the incidence of cancer in the recent past. Yes; there are many energetic reasons a person creates cancer in the body. You are already familiar with some of these: repressed anger, an extreme control issue, excessive fears, and so on.

Let us add one more to this list. This year's theme is "Owning your Mastery". Some, who play the extreme victim this year, will self-create cancer, in order to jolt the self into shifting.

Any questions?

If the new cure is something natural and herbal, why can't we start using it now?

We could reveal this information to you. But we are bound by the decision of the human collective consciousness, which desires unified awakening. It's urging all of you to think collectively, and to move from greed and pure financial gain... to worldwide service and compassion. We cannot violate that decision.

If a 'victim' creates cancer and then touches his mastery, can the process be reversed?

Indeed it can. Here's some good news: in this, the era of owning your Mastery, if you touch at least 90% of your power, you can even reverse 4th stage cancer. This was rarely possible in the past; now it is.

When you speak of mastery, do you mean mastery over our thoughts of cancer, or mastery over anything and everything?

This concept has been repeatedly discussed over the last few months. You are welcome to read prior transcripts. But in general, we mean mastery over every aspect of your lives. This means being the fullest and best you can be at whatever you choose. This means working at being the best possible businessperson, family member, friend, or even a thief...if that is what you want! It's your choice.

ARCHANGEL RAFAEL BLESSES YOU.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

Greetings!

You have all been discussing the current Super Moon, and its possible effects on Planet Earth. Let us approach this from a new and different perspective; one that you are not likely to find on the net.

Over the last two sessions we have discussed 'time' and 'space'. Today, let us speak of 'dimension'. What does this concept mean to you?

It's peeling the energetic onion, layer by layer, to reveal the facets of existence.

A space where laws operate consistently.

(Smiling) Let us assure you that there are many dimensions in which earthly laws are totally reversed, or work in a manner very different from the earthly perspective of energetic laws. Anything else?

The choice of existing in a different state of mind.

A multi-layered energetic cake.

Different perceptions of the same thing.

Excellent; all of you. Let's examine this, both practically and then esoterically. You are now in an era in which you are constantly being urged to expand your dimensional perspective of life.

A very 3-D perspective of a distasteful situation which occurs would be: "He/She did this to me!" And yes; from a 3-D perspective, this is the truth.

A slightly wider dimensional perspective would be: "He did this to me. Why did he do this to me?"

The next dimensional level would be: "He did this. Why did he do this? How does this make me feel?"

The next: "He did this. Why did he do this? How does this make me feel? Why did I create this situation? "

When you get here (even though there is much further to go), you start owning responsibility for your creation and start seeing the 'bigger picture'. You now own your Mastery; you acknowledge participation in the creation of the event... and solutions start to present themselves to you. You make space for the Universe to help you.

There are, of course, infinite dimensions of self-awareness; but this will suffice for now. This is moving from 3-D to 5-D thinking.

During 2018, if you doggedly hold onto 3-D thinking, wallow in perennial victimhood and repeatedly play the blame-game, you will simply get 'left by the wayside'. But if you work at exploring your various dimensions, you will sky-rocket.

The new Super Moon has created vibrations in the core center of Planet Earth. This is not 'vibration' as you understand it. To you, vibration denotes the agitation of molecules; which it is. But here, the Super Moon vibration denotes the creation of new dimensions; ones which are now slowly being revealed.

This process has only just begun and these new dimensional frequencies have not yet reached the surface of the planet; but they shortly will, over the course of the next few weeks. Once they do, they will naturally affect all of you. These new dimensional vibrations will offer you the opportunity to simultaneously live in different realities.

The dimensional reality with which you are the most familiar is your basic, 3-D reality; life as you know it, situations that affect the mental, physical and emotional bodies, work, play, and so on.

You do touch higher-vibrational dimensions from time to time, when you are in deep meditation or in full connection with the higher self. However, you are now going to be urged to do so, on a regular basis, in daily life.

We are alerting you to the upcoming processes, so that you understand what is happening to you. Those of you who are particularly energetically sensitive may feel rather strange. Here are a few examples of what is likely to happen to some of you, over the next few months.

There will be moments in which you really don't feel you belong in this physical body. Yes; you may suddenly feel like an alien on planet Earth. This could cause you to panic, get disoriented and even hyper-ventilate. If this occurs, know what's happening to you, relax and command the self to acclimatize to the new multi-dimensionality of the body.

What's really happening is that your higher-conscious self, at that moment, is being flooded with a sudden awareness of all your concurrent and simultaneous selves. All your individuated incarnations are, for a fleeting moment, energetically merging. You will naturally return to 'who you are' the next instant.

In general, this kind of merger will take place in deep meditation or in deep sleep, so there will be no conscious knowledge of it. But for some, it may happen during the course of the day. We are simply alerting you to it.

You are now all going to hear, see and sense presences around you quite frequently. Most Lightworkers are 'relatively' comfortable with this concept; but the average lay-person is not. We urge you to be open to these presences and to welcome them. Teach others to do so, as well.

This will happen because, for brief moments, you will be exploring a dimension of the physical self that has higher frequencies. The moment you inhabit these, your awareness will increase. We urge you not to resist these moments and these visitations; welcome them instead. You are simply opening to new aspects of the self. If you block it out of fear, you will do yourself a disservice.

In the same way, many of you will start hearing strange sounds, murmurs, beeps and clicks, voices and so on. They may be unintelligible, and will come upon you randomly. Try and tune in. Don't attempt to 'listen to words'; instead tune into the energy of the sounds. That will serve as an interpreter of what is being 'said'.

Another symptom of these new energies may be a feeling of disorientation, from time to time. You could, for example, suddenly lose track of where you are, where you are going or what you set out to do. The mind will suddenly go blank. This can cause panic; we ask you instead to accept this, center yourselves and just breathe. It will pass.

You will have, at that moment, moved through a rift in time and briefly entered another dimension. You will naturally return; but this is part of the exploratory process that is essential to teach you how to become multi-dimensional beings on earth.

Now let's have your questions

You just spoke of higher-levels sounds: will this be more predominant amongst people who are hard of hearing?

Not necessarily; but they may notice it more than you do. You are likely to dismiss it as general, ambient sound.

What part does the soul play in all this?

The soul is having a birthday-party! (Laughter) Your souls are truly celebrating your emergence into 2018. This is the 'party year' that you have all been awaiting. This is a year of unbelievable frequencies; ones that have never before been experienced by Planet Earth. It's party time.

At a party, you generally 'let loose'. You are filled with a sense of freedom, fun, frolic and abandonment. You enjoy the food and drink, while playing games you reclaim your childhood sense of abandon and, in doing so, you celebrate who you really are. Yes; this year is 'party time for the soul'.

You spoke of the energies of yesterday's Super Moon...yet we have been experiencing this for a while now.

Yes; these energies started a while ago. However, the Super Moon put the 'full-stop on the sentence of these energies'. They have completed the process.

What of people who are very closed and resistant?

A good question. All the energies that you will experience this year have an acceleration effect. You are responsible for the direction in which you take them. If you stay open and repeatedly work on touching your mastery, these energies will help you reach the stars. But if you refuse to touch your mastery and choose to remain in victimhood, these energies will then take you into a downward spiral. You may then crash or self-destruct. It's a year of tough-love.

How are these energies going to affect world politics?

Multi-dimensionality is going to affect every aspect of society: the political arena, the medical and technological worlds, the business arena and so on. The same rule applies there. Anyone who works at touching his Mastery in an open and expanded manner will be able to achieve 'energetic presidency'. Those who work towards self-servicing purposes, coming from greed and constriction, will self-destruct. This may not be immediate; but the 'cancer will spread'.

I find myself looking at spaces and objects and now seeing them very differently; often noticing things that I hadn't before.

Yes, this is exactly a part of this process. Many of you will be experiencing what you assume are 'tricks of the eyes'. They are not. You can even induce this. Sit in stillness and stare at an object, a wall or a doorway. You may get a glimpse of another dimension.

Be alert to seeing people 'differently' as well. While you are talking to a person, you may suddenly see 'another face' in theirs. You are simply tuning into a different aspect of them, in a different existence. This could be an actual form they inhabit there, or simply the embodiment of an energetic trait.

Could you please give us an example of this?

Let us say that you are looking at a beautiful woman, but suddenly see, super-imposed on her face...a bearded, wise man. This could be a physical aspect of her from another reality, or simply her innate wisdom; a quality that you have never before recognized or acknowledged.

Now; your study of multi-dimensionality must begin with the self. You must now begin to consciously acknowledge, own and embrace the various facets of the self: you the husband/ wife, you the son/daughter, you the lover, you the friend, you the businessperson, you the sinner, you the saint, and so on.

Yes, these are considered archetypes; but it goes beyond your understanding of that term. You are now learning to acknowledge and embrace aspects of you that exist beyond this incarnation; ones that inhabit different time-lines, spaces and dimensions. You have to learn to own them all.

You may have days in which you are infused with a certain, unfamiliar vibration. This will make you feel very different. Let us give you an example of this.

Let us assume that you are generally meek and mild. You might find, on a certain day, that you are suddenly very forceful and pro-active. Don't suppress it. Flow with it as fully as possible: you are simply exploring and assimilating a different dimensional aspect of the self.

Now, this will be easy to do when it is an aspect that pleases or inspires you; but what of those days in which you find yourself vibrating with an aspect that you deem unacceptable or inappropriate, such as anger or aggression?

We still urge you to explore it, but in a productive manner. Don't hurt another; perhaps explore this in private. Express to the self how angry, vicious, mean or even evil you feel. Actually revel in it. Savor it. Enjoy the process.

Yes, this will be difficult for some; but we urge you to do it. If you suppress this, it will simply burst out of you at a later date; perhaps in an inappropriate manner, at an inappropriate time.

Let's give you an example that many of you (women) will experience this year. You may suddenly find yourself flooded with the 'energy of the courtesan': a strong, robust sexual energy that may almost overwhelm you. This may shock and embarrass you, and defy your moral coding.

Now, whether or not you go out and act on it is your choice; but we do urge you to experience it fully, in private. Play the role to the hilt and enjoy it. Don't suppress it. Find a way to work with it.

Is this what we need to do to add on to our experiences on Earth and finish off that which we need to?

Yes; but let us rephrase this. Rather than 'finishing off' things, you are learning to assimilate experiences, so that they become a healthy, vibrant and acceptable part of who you are. Full embrace of the self is self-Mastery.

Can singing bowls and other musical instruments help in our exploration of inter-dimensionality? Can they also help cure diseases like cancer?

During 2018, any form of music is going to have far-reaching effects in terms of healing, balancing and aligning the entire planet and all her inhabitants. Music has always been of prime importance; but this year, if it is used with skill and intent, it really can be an all-purpose cure. In its purest form, it is more effective than any known drug.

Use it as much as you can. Experiment with it. Explore the inter-dimensionality of the music you create or listen to. Use time and space to manipulate it to your benefit.

We have confused you enough for one day. (Laughter) We will continue this discussion at a later date.

THE INTER-DIMENSIONAL GERMAIN BLESSES YOU.
